

The Concord Daily Tribune.

V. B. SHERRILL, Editor and Publisher
W. M. SHERRILL, Associate Editor

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Concord, N. C., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

Subscription Rates table with columns for duration (One Year, Six Months, Three Months, One Month) and location (In the City of Concord, Outside of the City, Outside of the State).

Railroad Schedule table with columns for destination (Washington, Danville, Richmond, etc.) and time (A.M., P.M.).

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY. Includes a star icon and text: "Love defrauds not... O love Divine, how sweet Thou art!"

COTTON INDUSTRY ON A SOUND BASIS. The final ginning report for the year shows that more than 13,000,000 bales of cotton were raised in the United States last year.

THE MEANING OF DREAMS. A writer in Popular Science gives some interesting information on dreams. "Many persons," he says, "are afraid of their dreams."

PACIFISM AS BAKER SEES IT. Pacifism has come in for much discussion in recent years and many persons who have called themselves pacifists have been criticised.

EVERETT TRUE BY CONDO. A cartoon strip showing a man talking to a woman and a motorman. Captions include: "BY GOSH, THAT'S A WOMAN FOR YOU!!!" and "DON'T TALK TO THE MOTORMAN!!!"

HUNT'S WASHINGTON LETTER

By HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Writer

Washington—Much has been said and will be said as to the influence of "partisanship" in the action by the Senate in rejecting the nomination of Chas. Beecher Warren to be United States attorney general.

It is most probable that the country now believes and will continue to believe that partisanship was the controlling factor in the struggle over the Warren appointment.

That it was a factor, no one who knows politics and human nature will doubt.

But that it was the controlling factor, any one who followed the development of the fight will privately if not publicly deny.

The question that should always be balanced against the view that the 46 votes against Warren were purely partisan votes is:

"To what degree were the 39 votes cast favorably to Mr. Warren influenced by similarly partisan considerations?"

The truth would be, of course, that partisanship played equally as dominant a part in the fight to put Warren across as it did in the fight to block his confirmation.

The lack of enthusiasm over the Warren appointment, on the Republican side of the Senate, was at all times strikingly evident.

Warren is no more popular with a lot of the older Republican wing in the Senate than he is with the Michigan representation in Congress.

And his fellow Michiganers turned thumbs down on him.

One staunch G. O. P. publication, which made a pool of Republican senators, reported that only five members could be registered as out-and-out Warren supporters.

The other 34, the inference being, were voting for him because of party regularity, on the theory that the president ought to have a free hand in naming his own cabinet.

If nothing else, the result has demonstrated that the "safe party control" the president was said to hold in the new Senate has gone glimmering before any legislation has been brought before that body.

For not only did the four "insurgents" who have been expelled from the G. O. P. family by the Senate caucus—La Follette, Ladd, Frazier and Brookhart—vote against the president's dearest desire, but seven others stepped out of the party lineup to record their opposition.

These were, Borah, Couzens, Howell, Johnson, Norbeck, Norris and McClister.

With Shipstead, a Farm-Labor senator, this makes a total of 12 votes that many, as they desire, exercise a veto on administration plans.

With the Democratic completely out of business, instead of being crowned as heroes, these champions of progress suddenly found themselves on the defensive.

The public changed its mind over night. The war cry "forward" which had well-nigh ruined the state, was changed to "stop, look and listen." Did you ever in all your life see so complete and sudden a reversal of public opinion?

Nobody is sorry that the state has made progress but everybody is glad that we are looking about now to find a way to pay for that progress.

The issuing of bonds by the million had completely demoralized us. It made us spend-thrifts, and we forgot that there is such a word as economy in the dictionary.

It was plainly revealed in the high rolling officials around Raleigh, but it seemed all the way down to the very bottom of the social order.

The General Assembly had about forgotten, namely, that it takes cash to settle bills while credit only postpones their payment.

REMEMBER PENNY ADS ARE CASH USE GLYCA-PYNA

The Creosote Throat and Bronchial Preparation

For throat, croup, whooping cough, catarrhal bronchitis, bronchial, asthma and especially coughs of long standing and deep-seated colds, there is nothing better.

If you are debilitated and in a rundown condition, are susceptible to colds or have weak lungs, use GLYCA-PYNA as a tonic.

Put Up in Three Sizes, $1.10, 60c, and 35c a Bottle

SOLD BY Cabarrus Drug Co.

MAY WE TAKE YOUR ORDER?

three o'clock

for a complete up-to-date sanitary bathroom equipment in your home? Our wash basins, bathtubs, foottubs, toilets, etc., are the latest design and are very easy to keep clean and white-looking.

E. B. GRADY

Phone 334W

Show Room 34 E. Garbin St.

CONCORD STEAM BAKERY

Phone 116

TODAY'S EVENTS

Tuesday, March 24, 1925.

Two hundredth anniversary of the birth of Thomas Cushing, Revolutionary patriot and governor of Massachusetts.

Bicentenary of the birth of Henry, Cardinal of York, who was the last Stuart claimant to the British throne.

Andrew W. Mellon, who holds the Treasury portfolio in the Coolidge cabinet, celebrates his 70th birthday anniversary today.

The Rt. Rev. Robert C. Jett today observes the fifth anniversary of his consecration as Episcopal Bishop of Southwestern Virginia.

Nominations for the new North of Ireland parliament are to be made today, with the elections to follow on April 3.

The twenty-fifth anniversary of the breaking of ground for New York's first subway is to be celebrated today under the auspices of the New York Board of Trade and Transportation.

Gerald Chapman, the million-dollar mall robber, who escaped from Atlanta prison two years ago and was captured recently in Indiana, faces trial at Hartford, Conn., today on a charge of having killed a policeman at New Britain last October.

The Tide Turned. Charity and Children. The late Legislature did a good many things wise and otherwise, but there is one thing to its credit that no man can belittle or deny, and that is, it completely reversed the tide of wild extravagance in the administration of our government.

Ruthless exposure of reckless expenditure put the plungers completely out of business. Instead of being crowned as heroes, these champions of progress suddenly found themselves on the defensive.

The public changed its mind over night. The war cry "forward" which had well-nigh ruined the state, was changed to "stop, look and listen." Did you ever in all your life see so complete and sudden a reversal of public opinion?

Nobody is sorry that the state has made progress but everybody is glad that we are looking about now to find a way to pay for that progress.

The issuing of bonds by the million had completely demoralized us. It made us spend-thrifts, and we forgot that there is such a word as economy in the dictionary.

It was plainly revealed in the high rolling officials around Raleigh, but it seemed all the way down to the very bottom of the social order.

The General Assembly had about forgotten, namely, that it takes cash to settle bills while credit only postpones their payment.

An Uncertain Life. A group of big business men in Washington were talking one evening about government taxation.

"There is no telling where we will land by the time the tax bill is settled," said one. "Our status is as uncertain as that of an old negro slave I once heard of. Somebody asked him to whom he belonged. 'I don't know, sah,' he replied. 'Ole Marshe, he's upstairs playing poker.'"

March 28 is the date fixed by the Commonwealth Sporting Club of New York for a 12-round bout between Cow-negro battler.

DINNER STORIES

"Dangerous thing, electricity."

"What now?" "Hear about the girl in the electric bakery? She got a roll with a current in it, and the shock killed her."

Departing Passenger—This is miserable street car service. Conductor—Why, what's the matter? Couldn't you get a seat? Passenger—Sure, I got a seat. But my wife had to stand up all the way.

Teacher—"Johnny, name a collective noun." Johnny—"A vacuum cleaner."

Little Girl (waiting while her mother pays her light bill): "Murrer, lift me up so I can see the animals, too!"

"Do you understand what is meant by invisible government?" "Personally speaking," said Mr. Meekton, "I do. My wife gives me a list of errands every day by telephone."

Doctor—"Have you taken every precaution to prevent spread of contagion in the family?" Rastus—"Absolutely, doctah. We eben bought a sanitary cup an' we all drink out of it."

He "rose with great alacrity To offer her his seat; 'Twas a question whether she or he Should stand upon his feet.

"Albert—"Ma, kin I go out in the street. Pa says there is going to be an eclipse of the sun." Ma—"Yes, but don't get too close.

"In Time of Peace, Etc." "Rastus," said the judge sternly, "you are found guilty of having stolen some chickens from Mr. Robinson's coop last week. The fine will be five dollars."

Smiling complacently, Rastus approached the clerk of the court and laid a ten dollar bill on the desk.

"Yassuh, judge," he said, "so I give you ten bucks, which will pay you up to and includin' nex' Sattiday night."

His Honey. A salesman, bringing his bride South on their honeymoon, visited a hotel where he boasted of the fine honey.

"Sambo," he said to the colored waiter, "where's my honey?" "I don't know, boss," replied Sambo, eyeing the lady cautiously. "She don't wuk here no mo'."

March 28 is the date fixed by the Commonwealth Sporting Club of New York for a 12-round bout between Cow-negro battler.

REMEMBER PENNY ADS ARE CASH USE GLYCA-PYNA

The Creosote Throat and Bronchial Preparation

For throat, croup, whooping cough, catarrhal bronchitis, bronchial, asthma and especially coughs of long standing and deep-seated colds, there is nothing better.

If you are debilitated and in a rundown condition, are susceptible to colds or have weak lungs, use GLYCA-PYNA as a tonic.

Put Up in Three Sizes, $1.10, 60c, and 35c a Bottle

SOLD BY Cabarrus Drug Co.

MAY WE TAKE YOUR ORDER?

three o'clock

for a complete up-to-date sanitary bathroom equipment in your home? Our wash basins, bathtubs, foottubs, toilets, etc., are the latest design and are very easy to keep clean and white-looking.

E. B. GRADY

Phone 334W

Show Room 34 E. Garbin St.

CONCORD STEAM BAKERY

Phone 116

America's Finest Rugs—Empress and Karagheimer. Let Us Beautify Your Home With New Rugs.

The supreme artistic test in home beautifying comes with the selection of Rugs and use made of them. The first essential to proper selection is logically to have available the correct materials from which to choose.

BELL-HARRIS FURNITURE CO.

3 Ways You Save With a Gurney. 1. Costs less to buy. 2. Lasts Years Longer. 3. Uses Less Ice. Includes illustration of a Gurney refrigerator.

H. B. Wilkinson. OUT OF THE HIGH RENT DISTRICT. Concord Kannapolis Mooresville China Grove.

A Style That Will Appeal to All Women. Below you see the apex of smart shoe fashions. Two-tones of the smartest style. Chic for chic tastes. Scores of others equally as notable ready to greet you tomorrow. All Sizes. What a Stunning Spring Model AA to D $3.95 to $6.95. RUTH-KESLER SHOE STORE. 31 South Union St. Phone 116.