the Office of Chief Executive.
Charlotte Observer.
Miss Julis Alexander, representative from Mecklenburg county in the general assembly, resterday announced that she had definitely determined to make the rice for governor in the next campaign. Although previous mention had been made of her prospective candidacy and although she has had the idea in mind time early last year, resterday was her first definite nullis commitment.

"Since the first newspaper mention of my prospective candidacy for governor in the next campaign," she said, "I have received so much assurance of suport from people of prominence in political flairs that I shall certainly enter the race," litical affairs that I shall certainly enter the race."

Having raised her standard on the political hillton, she will make her campaign with positive assurance as to the auteome. In making the announcement, she said. "Such enthusiastic interest has been manifisated in my candidacy by vot. 17 ces throughout the state that I feel confident of successs." When making the announcement she exhibited some of the letters she has received.

Miss Alexander is the only woman representative. In the general assembly in North Carolina, and she aspires to the higher political heaters, she says, not because she is a woman, but with the motive of rendering service. She feels that 31 a woman's point of view on affairs afforting the whole state should not be materially different no less sound than that of the male, political leaders who have long maintained a monopoly in the field.

cced to the presidency were chief features of the monthly meeting of the Fellowship Club of the First Presbyterian Church, held last night in the Sunday school rooms of the church.

Tom Glasgow paid a splendid tribute the life of Mr. Robinson, who had been active in church an delub work and who had been elected the club's president at the January meeting. A set of resolutions, presented by Hunter Marshall, Jr., was adopted, to be placed on the club minutes and sent to the members of his family.

Joe Tolbert, home missionary in the mountains on Kentucky, was a special guest of the club and made an interesting talk, the general theme being along the line of spreading sunshine wherever ane is Mrs. J. Nick Sloan sang for the club.
