MISS JANIE KLUTZ HEADS CLUB WOMEN DURING NEXT YEAR

Other Officers Elected—Mrs. McLoud and Mrs. Gorman WIR Represent Club at Pinehurst.
The Woman's Club held its regular meeting Friday afternoon at 8:30 o'clock in Central School Auditorium. Splendid reports from the Music Department and the Literature Department were given by Mrs. Ada Gorman and Mrs. Hinton McLoud.

The club members also went on record as being heartily in favor of giving an oil portrait to the High School building but decided that it would be best to defer the work until next Fall since the year is so near to a close.

Gastonia 15; Concord 1.

Gastonia April 3.—Hitting frequently in the closing innings and raining bases with their head up while Concord High were unable to find the books of George Henderson and were throwing the ball into all corners of the lot on different occasions, Gastonia High won her fourth exhibition of the season today by a score of 15 to 1.

Concord scored in the initial frame when Henderson hit Simpson, who scooped when Sullivan hit safe to left field. Simpson, Sullivan and Widenhouse were the only visitors able to touch the offerings of the local moundsman. Shannon and Henderson, of Gastonia, hit for extra bases. Batteries: Concord—Simpson, Sullivan and Widenhouse; Gastonia—Henderson and Mundie, Umpire: Hord.

FEDERAL OFFICERS CAPTURE CAR WITH LIQUOR

Harry Overcash Held for Trial in Charlotte Next Week—Liquor Poured in Sewer.
Twenty-nine gallons of corn liquor, a Studebaker roadster and Harry Overcash were brought to Concord Friday night as a result of a scouting expedition which Federal Agents D. F. Widenhouse and C. F. Alexander conducted in the Roberta Mill neighborhood.

The twenty-nine gallons of corn were poured out early Saturday morning and trickled into the sewer, the roadster is being held by local federal officials to be sold at auction, and Harry Overcash is out on $1,000 bond awaiting trial next week before Judge E. Y. Webb at Charlotte.

The capture came about shortly after 11 o'clock Friday night. The two officers were loitering on the highway about one-half mile on the Concord side of the Roberta Mill. They had been there only a short while when a car was noted coming toward them. The two officers stepped out and attempted to stop it. The driver cut sharply off the road and ran into a nearby field where they stopped and he and Overcash made a dash for freedom.

Officers gave chase and succeeded in capturing Overcash but the other man eluded them and made good his getaway. Overcash was brought to Concord with the captured car and with the liquor.

In a hearing before Federal Commissioner, G. Ed Gestler, Overcash declared that he did not know the other man in the car. According to his statement, he met the man in a cafe Friday afternoon and that after a conversation with him, the man offered him a drink which he accepted. The fellow then asked Overcash, he said, to accompany him to the Roberta Mill where he had some liquor to deliver. No one was at home when the liquor was taken to be delivered and they were on their way back when overtaken by the officers.

There was no license tag on the car and it was impossible to tell where it was from, but the officers were of the opinion that it was a Virginia car since the liquor was all put up in square one-gallon tin cans which, they say, the customary way of bottling it in that state.
