LOCAL MENTION

Cotton on the local market today is quoted at 23 to 23 1/2 cents per pound.
Mrs. Graham Robinson and daughter, Mary Graham, are spending the week-end in Concord as the guests of Mrs. Bernard Fetzer on Georgia Avenue.

Mrs. Dewey Moose is confined to her home on South Spring street with erysipelas. Her condition is regarded as being very serious.

The Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church will meet Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with Mrs. Lee I. Beasley, 96 Franklin Avenue.

Improvement is reported today in the condition of Mary Louise Means, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor A. Means, who has been confined to her home for several days by illness.

The trip of the South American Commission which inspected the North Carolina roads last summer will be depicted in the movies shown at the Y tonight. Comedies will be shown also.

A deed filed Friday with the register of deeds records the sale of property in Ward 3 by H. C. Ridenhour to Mrs. Mary J. Blackwelder. The purchase price was given as $4,500.

Rev. J. L. Hood, of Troutman, N. C., is preaching in the A. R. P. Church. The first service was held last night. He preaches again tonight and at the two services tomorrow.

Five persons were tried in recorder's court Friday afternoon. Four of them were charged with gambling and were fined $10 each. The other defendant was charged with bigamy and the charges were dismissed.

O. L. Sullivan, of New York, will make an address on the "Jews Rebuilding Palestine; the Reason" at the Star Theatre Sunday afternoon, April 5th, at 3 o'clock. Seats free. No collection. See advertisement in this paper.

The April meeting of the board of county commissioners will be held at the court house here on Monday morning. Many routine matters will be presented to the board but so far as is known now, no matters of unusual importance will be presented.

County court officials are getting everything lined up for the April term of Cabarrus Superior court which will convene here on April 20th. Court will be in session two weeks, one week to be devoted to criminal cases and the other to civil cases. Judge J. T. Shaw, of Greensboro, will preside at the sessions of the court.

Robert M. Cook, who has been in the Concord Hospital for several days following an accident near the Jackson Training School, in which he suffered painful injuries, has returned to his home on Barrow street. His many friends will be glad to know that he is improving, and is able to devote a part of his time each day to his business.

Those persons who wish to vote in the Democratic primary next Saturday and whose names are not on the registration books, can register now. The books were opened Friday and the registrars today have been at the various polling places for the convenience of those who wish to register. Persons registered at the November election do not have to register again for the primary.

Ira G. Bost was tried in recorder's court Friday on a charge of bigamy. It was alleged that he married his second wife in Virginia and when it was proved that he had not lived in North Carolina with her the charges were dismissed as a North Carolina court has no jurisdiction in the case. Bost's wife here had him arrested during the afternoon on charges of abandonment.

Mary Francis Barnhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Barnhardt, Jr., is confined to her home by illness. She became ill Thursday night with an infected ear and the infection became so painful Friday she had to submit to an operation. Her condition today is reported as improved. Mr. and Mrs. Barnhardt planned to spend to week-end in Cleveland Springs with Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Byrd, but the trip was called off on account of the illness of Mary Francis.

The Parent-Teachers' Association of the East Corbin Street School has been fortunate in securing Mr. Rose, an expert food demonstrator, to speak at their meeting on Tuesday, April 7, at 3:15. Mr. Rose has a helpful message for mothers in regard to special foods and dieting for children. Every mother should take advantage of this opportunity to hear this noted authority. Miss DeLorme's pupils will have charge of the devotional exercise.

Albemarle News Herald: "Mrs. E. F. Correll has closed a contract with Mrs. J. D. Harwood for the erection of a handsome nine-room two-story dwelling on her lot recently purchased as one of the Gentry lots. Work of placing materials has commenced and the building will be finished as early as possible. The building is being erected on the street leading from North First to Edna Mills. It will stand just beyond the old Gentry home."

Concord is well represented at the Magnolia Gardens at Charleston this week-end. Twenty persons from this and adjoining counties left for Charleston Friday and today on the special Pullmans operated by the Southern Railway. Friday afternoon those leaving for the gardens included Mrs. Julius Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Ervin, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Maness, Mrs. Gale Pickard, Miss Lucy Richmond Lantz, and Mrs. W. M. Sherrill. Mrs. J. E. Allison and Misses Mary and Lizzie Young, left this afternoon.

In Los Angeles, a girl says he was going to marry her but turned her down, so she turfed him up.
A scientist finds they had quack doctors in 1600 B. C. You would expect them then. But not now.
Chicago plans to build a seven-million-dollar jail if city officials don't steal most of the seven millions.

Nothing can feel better and look worse than last year's straw hat.
Michigan has refused to choose a poet laureate, probably feeling no one man should be blamed too much.
Oh, to be in Vienna in the spring, where there are 200,000 more women than men, according to the census.
Bad London news. They may broadcast Parliament speeches by radio, it not being against the law to do so.

New York taxi driver got arrested for running over a man and killing him. We don't know why he was arrested.
The winner of a national beauty contest has returned from Paris minus her husband. This speaks well for Paris. Beautiful women are an awful lot of trouble.

Terracing Demonstrations in Iredell.
(By the Associated Press)
Statesville, N. C., April 4.—Terracing demonstrations recently given by R. W. Graeber, farm agent for Iredell county, have been largely attended. Twenty-two farmers attended one such demonstration where Mr. Graeber constructed a terrace fourteen feet wide and eighteen inches high. One grower said: "If you would put a whole year's rainfall in one day on this field, you would not break that terrace. N. S. Gaither, county commissioner, allowed a tractor and road machine to be used in the demonstration, so as to have a model terrace for the farmers of this community."
