PEOPLE OF STATE BELIEVE IN INSURANCE.

The people of North Carolina believe in insurance as shown by the fact that during the past year much new insurance business was done in the State. Increase of ninety-one million dollars in the amount of life insurance in force in North Carolina was one of the remarkable achievements in the State last year.

NO DEMOCRATIC CHOICE FOR MAYOR.

Voters of Concord failed in the primary Saturday to choose a Democratic nominee for mayor, the race between J. B. Womble, C. H. Barrier and John L. Miller resulting in nothing definite but the elimination of the latter.

Hunt's Washington Letter

By HARRY HUNT
NEA Service Writer
Washington—When the processes of the law become so involved that the government itself cannot follow them, it would seem to the layman that the time had come for some simplified and commonsense rules of procedure.

Speaking of bribery—Democrats suggest that actually, though not morally or legally, some such influence was responsible for Dorchester county, Maryland, going Republican for the first time in its history last November.

As the story goes, the presidential yacht Mayflower, on one of Coolidge's week-end trips last fall, put in at Cambridge, Md., on lower Chesapeake Bay one Sunday morning.

The church authorities, proud of the visit by the presidential party, seeking some tangible token by which the memory of the visit could be perpetuated, pronounced upon that $5. Instead of being turned into the treasury it was properly labeled, framed, and hung in the vestry room.

In order that these cows may have a chance at higher and more profitable production it will be necessary that the crop rotation on the farms where they are located be arranged so as to make available the following amounts of feed, or the equivalents, for each cow in the herd for one year.

- 1 1/2 tons of legume hay.
15 bushels corn
11 bushels oats
9 tons corn silage or stock beets.

Yes, it was true, they spread the word. Five whole dollars, right out of the presidential pocket!

The result, according to the Democratic alibi experts, was the carrying of Dorchester county at a personal cost to the president of one $5 bill!

TODAY'S EVENTS

Tuesday, April 14, 1925
Sixtieth anniversary of the assassination of President Lincoln.

One hundred and fifty years ago today the first anti-slavery society in America was formed by the quakers in Philadelphia.

Twenty-five years ago today the first automobile race ever run in America was held on Long Island, and was won by S. T. Davis, Jr.

The Most Rev. John W. Shaw, Roman Catholic archbishop of New Orleans, today celebrates his fifteenth anniversary in the episcopate.

The anniversary of the sinking of the steamship Titanic is to be observed today with five minutes' silence by all ships and coastal wireless stations.

An Anglo-American wedding in Paris today will unite Miss Emilie de Koenigk, daughter of Mrs. Edward Brooks, Jr., formerly of Philadelphia, and Captain Charles Spring-Rice, of England.

Three alleged bandits, the oldest only 21, face trial at Cape May, N. J., on charges of having robbed the Tuckahoe National Bank at Tuckahoe, N. J., and the murder of one of its directors.

Was There Fraud in the Sale of the Paul Rubber Company Stock?
Greensboro News.

The president and four other officials of the defunct Paul Rubber Company, of Salisbury, will answer in the federal court an allegation of using the mails to defraud in connection with a stock-selling campaign.

Numerous people in Rowan, Iredell and other counties who separated themselves from good money for stock in the rubber company will unhesitatingly declare that they were robbed; and they will bear their loss with more equanimity if somebody lands behind the bars.

If there was fraud in the rubber stock sale, as is generally believed, it is hoped that the government will be more successful in the prosecution than it generally is in such cases.

AGRICULTURAL COLUMN

N. C. Dairy-Extension News Letter For April, 1925.

In the March News Letter an error was made in calculating the average value of the milk produced by the five high cows. Instead of $49.50, the average value given, it should have been $60.90, leaving a profit of $41.90 instead of $24.50.

It is not too late to plant soybeans or cowpeas for hay. If possible provision should be made for one and one-half tons of legume hay for each cow to be fed this winter.

On many of our smaller dairy farms where cows are kept principally for butterfat production more consideration should be given to the amount and quality of the roughage required by each cow in one year.

The quantity provided is often too small and the quality low. The roughage given in many instances consists almost entirely of corn stover, oat or wheat straw and mixed grass hay, all of which are low and unprofitable milk producers.

In order that these cows may have a chance at higher and more profitable production it will be necessary that the crop rotation on the farms where they are located be arranged so as to make available the following amounts of feed, or the equivalents, for each cow in the herd for one year.

- 1 1/2 tons of legume hay.
15 bushels corn
11 bushels oats
9 tons corn silage or stock beets.

If the above amount of feed is grown for each cow, and 300 pounds of cotton seed meal and three hundred pounds of what bran purchased, where they are not grown on the farm and fed in connection with the above feeds, together with pasture and some low protein roughage a good profitable ration will be provided throughout the year.

USE GLYCA-PYNA

The Creosote Throat and Bronchial Preparation

For throat, croup, whooping cough, catarrhal bronchitis, bronchial, asthma and especially coughs of long standing and deep-seated colds, there is nothing better.

If you are debilitated and in a rundown condition, are susceptible to colds or have weak lungs, use GLYCA-PYNA as a tonic.

DINNER STORIES

Gray—Having your car repainted to match your wife's gown, eh? Isn't it rather expensive?

White—It's cheaper than buying a gown to match the car.

Blinks—Times have changed. Jinks—I'll say. It used to be when a man was run down he took a tonic; now he takes an ambulance.

A man took his wife to a big movie theatre. On inquiring of the resplendent attendant at the door the would-be patron was astonished to be told that the program was not a good one.

"Why," he said. "I felt certain you'd say it was splendid. That's not very good for business, you know. You'll have to be more careful or you'll be dismissed."

"I have been," was the terse reply.

Gas Inspector—No, mum, there may be a leak somewhere, but there ain't any gas being waster. It's all down in the bill.

Good gracious, said the visiting bachelorette. "Does your baby always cry like that?"

"O, dear no," responded Mrs. Albertson. "She has quite an extensive repertoire. This is only one of her lighter performance. She reserves her heavy work for 2 a. m."

"What does this mean, sir?" said the boss to his clerk, coming in 30 minutes late.

"It was on account of the awful fog," explained the culprit.

"Fog! Fog!" said the boss, testily. "What has the fog to do with it? You do not live across the bay."

"No, sir, I know I don't, but you do. I thought you'd be late."

"Look here," commanded the traffic cop "if you're the driver of the car that knocked down this old lady, you're under arrest."

"What's the matter?" asked the hardened motorist in surprise. "Ain't it all right?"

"Oh, sure, but you parked too long after the accident."

The old ones are the best. A traveling man journeying through Fayetteville stopped his flivver on the outskirts to watch a ball game in progress between two youthful teams of negro boys. It was one of those hit and run games with a runner coming galloping home every few minutes.

"What's the score?" he asked one of the spectators.

"Thirty-nine to nothing," he was told. "Rather one-sided," he commented.

"Can't tell yet, sir," replied the youthful optimist. "We ain't bin to bat yet."

F. Stallings, of No. 1 Township, has returned to his home after having been ill in a Charlotte hospital for several weeks. His condition is much improved.

The Prince of Wales has started out on a 25,000-mile trip, this being a sure sign of spring.
