LOCAL MENTION

Marriage license was issued Thursday by Register of Deeds Elliott to J. F. Brunley and Miss Hallie Kincaid, both of Kannapolis.

The regular Saturday night movies at the Y will be shown on the lawn tomorrow night provided the weather remain as warm as it is at present.

The condition of T. H. Webb, who has been confined to his home for several days by illness, is reported today as much improved.

According to a deed filed Thursday with the register of deeds, Mrs. Minnie F. Troutman has sold to Joe Goodman property in No. 5 township for $1250 and other valuable considerations.

Rev. W. C. Rourke, of Ellerbe Springs, will preach at the Second Presbyterian Church Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock. The public is invited to be present.

J. A. Peck has been selected by the Postal Authorities to fill the vacancy on the rural mail route No. 6, caused by the death of W. H. Heglar. Mr. Peck will begin his duties on May 1th.

Lindsay Ross had the misfortune to injure his leg at the Y Circus Thursday when he ran into a stake used in planning down one of the tents. He is painfully though not seriously injured.

Four cases are on docket for trial in recorder's court this afternoon, police officers stated this morning. Three of the defendants are charged with speeding and the other with intoxication and disorderly conduct.

Work has been underway for the last several days giving the street light globes their spring cleaning. Each of the lights has been removed and given a thorough washing, with the result that the appearance of the white way is very much improved.

Funeral services for Mrs. Hayden Talbirt, who died at her home near the Jackson Training School Wednesday night, were held Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment was in the cemetery at Rocky Ridge. The services were attended by a large concourse of friends and relatives.

Court continued its slow progress here yesterday, only two cases on the docket being completed. The case of Amos Morrison, charged with arson, was nolle-suited. Henry Webster, Ernest Burgess and Noah Harwell were convicted of larceny and were sentenced to 90 days on the roads.

W. N. Northcott, who represented the national organization of the Y. M. C. A., during the financial campaign of the local Y here this week, was ordered Thursday to report to Beverly, Mass., for a campaign. He left Thursday night. Mrs. Northcott and son, Roger, will join Mr. Northcott later, making the trip in their car.

In the program for county commencement as carried in The Tribune yesterday one name was omitted in the recitation contest. The name was that of Miss Agnes Hudson, of Boger School, whose subject in the contest will be "Grandmother's Day." Miss Hudson's name was omitted when the program was first arranged.

The county commencement exercises here tomorrow in the high school building will begin at 10 o'clock. The recitation and declamation contests will be held in the morning with the literary address by Dr. George Howard scheduled for the afternoon. Hundreds of persons from the county precincts are expected here for the exercises.

Hundreds of persons are expected to witness the baseball game at the Gibson Park this afternoon when the local high play Salisbury in the State high school elimination contest. Sullivan, star of the local's hurling staff, will be on the mound. The locals were confident of an early this afternoon as they awaited the arrival of the Salisbury team.

Albemarle Press: "Mr. John Crowell, of R. L. Pleasant, day miller for Albemarle Milling company, happened to a slight accident at the mill on Monday morning of this week, caused by becoming entangled in one of the mill pulleys. He received a severe bruise on the cheek bone, and was rushed to the Tally-Brunson hospital where he will be confined for a couple of days or more."

The Giants won their sixth straight game in the National League Thursday by defeating Boston while Philadelphia was defeating Brooklyn and Chicago was defeating St. Louis. In the American League Washington defeated New York, Philadelphia defeated Boston, Cleveland defeated St. Louis and Chicago defeated Detroit. In the South Atlantic Spartanburg defeated Charlotte.

Albemarle Press: The New London roller mill was destroyed by fire on Friday night of last week. A severe electric storm had illuminated the night and none knew just how nor when the big building began its holocaust. County Commissioner Mr. Henry Calp was in Albemarle the following morning, and says the property was a total loss. The town was powerless to cope with the blaze, which was well underway when discovered.

Albemarle Press: Mr. M. M. Ritchie, of Richfield, father of our townsman, Prof. O. D. Ritchie, was bitten by a copperhead snake on Monday. He was given treatment locally, but the poisoned condition seemed to spread, and Prof. Ritchie prevailed upon his father to come to the local hospital for treatment. Under care of surgeon and nurses, the inflamed arm is getting under control, and Mr. Ritchie is expected to recover. He has suffered a great deal from the bite.

Melrose Flour Liberty Flour

We advertise Melrose Flour and Liberty Flour as much perhaps for our customers' satisfaction as for our own profit. Every customer on these brands of flour is perfectly satisfied. Other brands of flour come and are tried and fail. Where are the many brands sold twenty-five to thirty years ago? Melrose Flour is here today and its steady and increasing sales answers the question. None of the others are here.

Liberty Self-Rising Flour is Melrose in quality. Any customer using a Self-Rising Flour will receive the same perfect satisfaction with Our Liberty Self-Rising Flour.
