CHILDREN'S INSTITUTE TO BE HELD HERE ON SATURDAY

Miss Eugenia Lore Has Charge of the Program.—Miss Klutz to Hold Model Service.

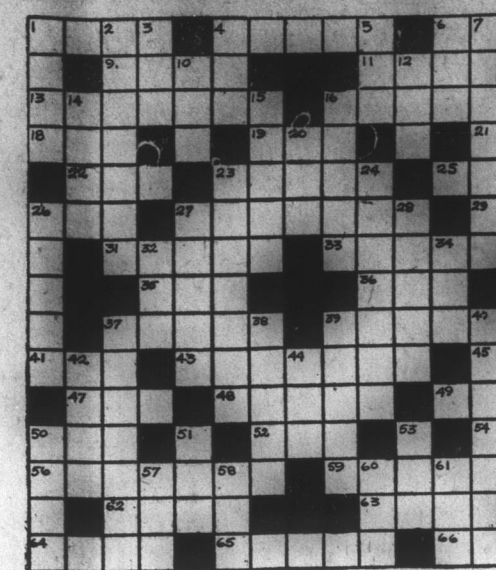

Plans for the County Children's Division Institute which is to be held in the Central Methodist Church, Concord, Saturday, May 9th, 1925, are said to be progressing splendidly.

Miss Eugenia Lore, County Children's Division Superintendent, is giving untiring effort to make the Institute a Success, while other county officers are co-operating heartily.

One of the most attractive features of the program will be a worship service conducted by Miss Janie Klutz, of Concord. The children will be present and participate in the service. It is expected that this service will be conducted as such a service would be conducted in an up to date Sunday School. The program arranged for the occasion is as follows:

- 1—Worship Program, Miss Janie Klutz, Superintendent, Junior Department, Central Methodist Church, Concord.
 - 2:15—How to Have a Wide-Awake Cradle Roll, Mrs. John Reed, Superintendent, Cradle Roll Department, First Presbyterian Church, Concord.
 - 3:25—The Story and Its Importance in Teaching Children—Miss Mary King, Superintendent, Primary Department, City Public Schools, Concord.
 - 3:55—Special Music.
 - 4:10—Co-operation of Parents and the Sunday School—Miss Daisy Magee, Children's Division Supt., North Carolina Sunday School Association.
 - 4:40—Hymn.
 - 4:45—Discussion.
 - 5:00—Adjourn.
- The Cabarrus County Children's Division Institute is under the auspices of the Cabarrus County Sunday School Association. It is for Cradle Roll, Beginners, Primary, and Junior Sunday School Workers of all denominations and all others interested in the religious training of children under thirteen years of age. Miss Eugenia Lore, County Children's Division Superintendent. J. J. Barnhardt, County President. J. Sam Query, County Secretary.

SOUTHERN PLANS TO HAUL LOT OF FOLKS

Will Operate Special Excursion Train From Here to Charlotte Monday.

The Southern railway is making preparations for hauling a lot of folks to Charlotte next Monday on the occasion of the 250-mile championship automobile race in that city. Just how many people will patronize the trains and how many will honk their way to the Queen City is problematical, but the Southern believes that with the low round trip rate it is offering people from this and other sections will prefer the train to the auto. Leastwise the railroad is going to run a special excursion train from Greensboro to Charlotte Monday, leaving here at 7:45 in the morning and returning leaving Charlotte at 7:30 at night thus giving patrons of the train a stay of about eight hours in Charlotte. The races at Charlotte are scheduled to start at 2 p. m.

While no official reports have been made people who spend much time around the station here give as their opinion that travel seems to have picked up both on local trains and through trains. It is said that the Crescent Limited, the extra fare, extra fast train recently inaugurated by the Southern between New York and New Orleans, is doing a very nice business for this season of the year and railway people are confident that the train will become more and more popular as seasons come and go.

MORRISON SAYS MUST GO ON WITH MEMORIAL

Likes and Admires Borglum But Expects To Sell Half Dollars for the Committee.

Raleigh News and Observer.
"I think that we should close ranks and go ahead and that North Carolina should not be willing to have no part in the magnificent Stone Mountain Memorial simply because we like and admire Mr. Borglum," declared former Governor Cameron Morrison, who has been appointed chairman of the North Carolina committee to sell the memorial half dollars which will be offered through banks at one dollar each.

"I shall not definitely determine what I shall do about the appointment until I get back to Charlotte on Friday and see just what they want me to do, but if I can adjust my other engagements so as to do the work I shall accept and do what I can to sell the half dollars in this state," declared Mr. Morrison.
"I like and admire Mr. Borglum and I am sorry he was dismissed and is not to finish the job, but that great tribute to the Southern Confederacy must be completed regardless of who does and I see nothing to do but go ahead with the legally constituted authorities. But if I accept the appointment I do not wish that action to be interpreted as the expression of any opinion one day or another concerning the controversy between Mr. Borglum and the committee."
Mr. Morrison, who passed through Raleigh yesterday on his return from Red Springs where he addressed the Scottish Society of America, has gained flesh since he laid down the duties of governor on January 14th, and appears to be in the best of physical condition.

Decrease in Value of Hyde County Farm Land.

Raleigh, May 8.—A decrease of approximately $600,000 in the value of farm lands and farm buildings of Hyde county, North Carolina, took place between January 1, 1920, and January 1, 1925, figures made public here today by the department of commerce at Washington, D. C., show. The data was contained in the preliminary announcement of the 1925 farm census by the department in Hyde county. The acreage devoted to farms also decreased in the five year period from 80,675 acres to 69,615. The value of the farms and buildings for January 1, 1920, was given as $4,672,263 and on January 1, 1925, $3,792,940.
The number of farms increased in the period covered from 1,148 to 1,248. White farmers operated 971 of the farms in 1925 while 457 negroes operated the remaining farms. These were divided into 628 owner farms, four farm managers and 616 tenant farms.

A decrease in the acreage devoted to the principal crops of the State was shown from the crop figures of 1919 to those of 1924 but a slight increase was indicated in the acreage devoted to apple production. The number of horses in use increased while the total number of cattle and swine on the farms showed a decrease.
Male's Kick Leads to Suit For Damages.
Greensboro, May 8.—A mule got the better of an automobile in a collision near here, wrecking the front part of the Ford and injuring the driver, and as a result the owner of the machine has filed suit in Guilford Superior Court for $10,000.
E. P. Putnam is plaintiff and C. B.

Hester, a contractor, is defendant in the suit. Putnam claims that last November he was driving near Guilford College and met a bunch of mules, owned by Hester; that they almost blocked the road; that he drove on the right-hand side at a moderate rate of speed, and that, without warning, one mule jumped in front of his automobile and kicked the front part to pieces. Personal injuries were sustained by Putnam, he alleges and he asks $490 for the automobile and $10,000 for the injuries.

The New Blue Sky Law.
Raleigh News and Observer.
"The new blue sky law is a bad law or the State," declared Colonel F. H. Fries, of Winston-Salem, president of the Wachovia Bank and Trust Company, who was in Raleigh yesterday on his way to the bankers' convention on at Pinehurst.
"We can't operate under the law; nobody can operate under it," he said.
"The law permits 'reputable dealers' to buy securities but does not permit them to sell them after they get them. The purpose of the law was fine and people who were paying 25 and 30 per cent, to sell stock ought to have been gotten rid of but the law goes too far and will have to be amended in order to give relief."
