LOCAL MENTION

The Cabpell sisters in vaudeville will appear at the New Concord Theatre all this week, matinee and night.

The banks of the city will be closed Wednesday, this being a legal holiday, the celebration of the Mecklenburg Declaration.

Marriage license was issued Saturday by Register of Deeds Elliott to J. H. Parker and Miss Nerva Davis, both of Kannapolis.

The condition of Mrs. Constance Cline, who has been ill for some time, is considerably improved. She is able to sit up for a short while each day.

Mrs. E. Myers was operated on last week at St. Peter's Hospital in Charlotte. She is doing nicely and returned to her home here today.

Mr. Harris P. Johnston is representing the circulation department of The Tribune at Kannapolis. Hand him your subscription and let him deliver The Tribune to you every day.

The Wake Forest baseball team won the State collegiate championship Saturday by defeating State 7 to 3. Sorrell pitched a steady game for the Baptists and had the game well in hand at all times.

For the first time in several years the Virginia baseball team has won a series from Carolina. The deciding game in the series this year was played Saturday, Virginia winning 2 to 1. Carolina won the first game and Virginia the last two.

A regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the Legion club rooms on West Depot. In announcing the meeting Miss Mamie Brown, President of the Auxiliary, expressed the hope that many members will be present.

Among the more recent additions to the European tour which E. W. Blanks is getting up is Miss Helen Marsh, who has decided to accompany him on the trip. The party, which includes a number of Concord people as well as people from all parts of the country, will set sail from New York on July 4th.

No session of the city police court will be held this afternoon due to the fact that Recorder M. H. Caldwell is out of the city on business. "We had several cases docketed for trial today, but owing to Mr. Caldwell's absence from the city the cases have been continued until Wednesday," a police officer stated this morning.

The Philadelphia team continues to set the pace in the American League, defeating Chicago Sunday while New York was losing to Detroit. Washington was winning from Cleveland and St. Louis was winning from Boston. In the National League the Giants defeated Chicago and Pittsburgh defeated Brooklyn.

Judge John M. Oglesby returned yesterday to Rutherfordton, where he is holding court, after spending a short while here. Judge Oglesby went to Greensboro Saturday night to attend a banquet given by the law fraternity of which he is a member, he having been asked to attend the banquet as a guest of honor.

The Charlotte baseball team is home the first three days of the week and the league leading Macon team will furnish opposition for the three days. The Charlotte team is in second place and can take the lead by winning the three games from Macon. A number of local fans went to Charlotte today for the opening game of the series.

A large congregation was present yesterday for the baccalaureate sermon preached to the high school students of the Rocky River school. The sermon was delivered by Rev. T. H. Spencer, Jr., and was the last exercise of the commencement program. Saturday night the annual play was presented by students of the school before a large audience.

The two local councils of the Junior Order United American Mechanics, Councils Nos. 23 and 49, will have a public meeting on Monday evening, May 18th, at 8 o'clock in the hall of Council No. 25, over Ritz's store. At this time Mrs. Clara Huberty, of Ohio, national organizer of the Daughters of America, will deliver an address. All members of the Junior Order are expected to be present with their wives, and all other ladies of this city and community are invited to attend. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting.

News from London. Rainbow shoes are the fad. Hot dogs: Brooklyn (N. Y.) clock fell out of a tower, striking one.

Haircuts are up in Chicago, maybe due to the spring rush.

A straw vote shows a majority (will have new hats before long).

King of Bagdad has had his pay cut in half. What the king business needs is a strong union.

Nebraska girl is the champion speller of five states. She didn't learn by being a stenographer.

The London Zoo has mice smaller than bees, which may look as big as horses to some women.

Great Britain's back on the gold standard. So are our dentists.

Doesn't matter, but Liangling Chang, new Chinese consul, may have been named for a fire wagon.

Boston cops are using tear gas. It is not made of spring onions.

Girl who met a millionaire in Florida will marry him in California. It was quite a chase.

Uncomfortable chairs in the office will get a lot of work done.

Little poker bids often are raised on the bottle. (Copyright, 1925, NEA Service, Inc.)

Government will take a census of insects, but we don't want time job of counting mosquitos' children.

Effort to make silver dollars popular has been abandoned. They made wealth too much of a burden.

TAX LISTING.

I will be at Jim Walker's May 20, and at Brown's Mill Saturday May 23rd, for the purpose of listing taxes in No. 2 township.
