RUTHERFORD COUNTY BAR ENDORSES JUDGE OGLESBY

Resolution Adopted At Close Of Superior Court In That County Last Week. Judge John M. Oglesby, who presided at the May term of Rutherford County Superior Court during the past two weeks, has been strongly endorsed by the bar of the county in a resolution adopted at the close of the sessions of the court. In the resolution Judge Oglesby is commended for "his fairness and impartiality in the administration of justice," and for his "consideration and courtesies to all members of the bar."

The resolution is as follows: "Whereas, on Monday, May 11, 1925, the regular May term of the Superior Court of Rutherford county was convened, His Honor, John M. Oglesby, presiding, and "Whereas, the members of the bar of Rutherford county have been profoundly impressed with the manner in which his honor has conducted the court, and in the deep appreciation of his fairness, firmness and impartiality in the administration of justice, and in further appreciation of his consideration and courtesies to all the members of the bar, be it

GIRLS IN DEMAND FOR FILM COMEDY

Opportunities for Comedienne in Movies Unlimited, Says Constance Talmadge. More comedienne! Constance Talmadge declares that there aren't enough girls making fun films in Hollywood. "Most girls prefer to become stars in the dramatic branch of motion pictures," says Constance. "As a result the men have the comedy field almost to themselves. The list of male comedians is a long one. "Up at the top among the men there are Buster Keaton, Harold Lloyd and Charlie Chaplin, the big three among the comedians. Charles Ray, Douglas MacLean and Will Rogers have their own delightful styles of screen fun-making. Then there's Ben Turpin, Lloyd Hamilton, Al St. John, Larry Semon and half a dozen others. Now where can we girls in comedy match those men? "Strange to say, it is the ambition of almost every girl now engaged in comedy work to graduate into "something more serious," as they express it. "There is a real opportunity in Hollywood for girls who have genuine talent as comedienne, but it must be that women don't like to be laughed at, for the opportunity is going to waste. Constance's latest First National comedy, "Her Night of Romance," was written by Hans Kraly, author of "Passion," "Deception" and other photoplays. The picture will be shown at the Concord Theatre today. Constance's leading man is Roland Colman, who also played in "The White Sister."

Mrs. Johnston's Estate to Pay Two Million in State and Federal Tax.

Raleigh News and Observer. Lean State revenues have been very materially increased by a tentative settlement of the estate of Mrs. Katherine Reynolds Johnston which netted the State an initial payment of over $200,000 with the total tax of between $400,000 and $500,000 expected before the end of the month. No tax has yet been received by the Federal government but it is understood that the estate tax will be about three times the tax collected by the State, making the total amount paid by the estate between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000. The same estate paid an enormous tax when it was inherited by Mrs. Johnston from her first husband, R. J. Reynolds, the tobacco magnate, in 1919. Lists of stock holders filed with the taxing authorities contain over 200 items and neither the State nor Federal governments have completed their inventories, but the estate is generally estimated at between $16,000,000 and $17,000,000.

CHIEF JUSTICE STACY PLAYED BL. LOCKHART

Charlotte Lawyer Opposes the Jurist As University Alumni President. Charlotte, May 24.—Charging that when the war trumpets sounded and all able-bodied unmarried men were called to the colors, he hid behind the robes of his office, James A. Lockhart, former commander of the North Carolina department of the American legion, today launched a spirited attack on Chief Justice W. P. Stacy, of the state Supreme court, who has been prominently mentioned as the next president of the University of North Carolina Alumni association. Mr. Lockhart, in his statement to the press today, declares that he has re-organized from world war veterans. In every part of the state pleading their support in his fight on the chief justice. "I, and some thousands of other former service men in North Carolina, protest the suggestion to name Chief Justice Stacy to the presidency of the North Carolina University Alumni association," declared Mr. Lockhart in a formal statement. "If the University of North Carolina stands for anything at all, it stands for patriotic and unselfish service to the state in its hour of need. It is to Mr. Stacy I hid behind the judicial ermine during the war, though he was a bachelor and a healthy specimen of manhood. He claimed exemption from military service on the ground that he was a judge, but when the military emergency was over he resigned his judicial position and went into private practice of law to enhance his fortune. "It is attitude," the statement continues, "was in striking contrast, for example, to that of General Albert Cox, who, though a married man and entitled to exemption because he had a family to support, resigned his position on the North Carolina bench and offered his services to the government, serving bravely at the front with other good Americans from North Carolina. "It is characteristic of the man, in keeping with the sophomoric vaunting of himself that he has always shown, for him to come forward and offer himself for a position sought largely to satisfy his personal vanity, when he preferred a position of safety to the one that called loudly but vainly for him when the state needed the services of its best men."

New Orleans Cotton Review. New Orleans, May 24.—The past week in cotton has developed more active trading than for some time. After reaching low points on the recent decline last week, the drop appeared to discount expectations of a high condition average by the government in its forthcoming report. Elimination of practically all of the stale long interest and creation of considerable interest strengthened the technical position of the market. This and the discovery that the spot situation had become very strong as a result of the rapid shrinkage in supplies remaining in the south caused old crop months to stiffen materially, with realization of the fact that the certificated stock here and in New York was being drawn upon by the trade and shipped out because of scarcity of desirable grades in southern markets. Near months shorts sought to cover and the price of July which on Saturday of the preceding week closed at 22.23, and advanced to 23.60 Thursday, a gain of 317 points. The strength of the near month carried new crop positions upward, although October did advance, as did July, owing to active buying of the near month against sales of October. The premium of July over October which on the Saturday preceding had been 70 points, widened by Thursday to 134 points. While some disposition developed to ease off from high points during Friday's trading, the market experienced a good bulge again on Saturday owing to the strength of spots, the bullish character of the weekly statistics, an improvement in the goods trade and increasing seriousness of the drought in Central and south Texas. The week closed with prices near the high points reached Thursday.

THOUGHT THERE WAS NO RELIEF FOR HER

Now She Says She Feels Entirely Well Since Taking Nature's Own Remedy, HERB JUICE.

"I simply cannot find words to express my gratitude for the relief your HERB JUICE medicine has given me. I never dreamed that any medicine would do for a person what HERB JUICE has done for me in such a short time, and I know now that there is still relief to be had when suffering with gas stomach as I did, for this great medicine has restored my health and now I feel entirely well," said Mrs. T. W. Moore, of No. 12 Guy St., Concord, N. C. Continuing her statement to the HERB JUICE man, Mrs. Moore added: "I thought I was about done for, and no relief was in sight when I began using HERB JUICE. Anyone who knows the discomfort of gas pains and indigestion can appreciate my condition. I would have the most suffocating pains in my stomach after eating and this caused me so much trouble at night that it was utterly impossible to get a real night's sleep. Everything I ate seemed to hurt me, my food would sour, causing belching, heavy bloating and it was out of the question to eat a hearty meal without suffering for hours afterwards. I was told at the Drug Store that HERB JUICE was a good medicine for such ailments as I had. I decided I would try a bottle. Now since I have taken several bottles of this medicine, I feel like an entirely different person. Today I am in good health and do not hesitate one moment to say that HERB JUICE is a responsible and effective remedy. I have gained considerably in weight and have more energy than I have had in years. As soon as I started using those wonderful medicine the gas pains and bloating spells vanished and now I can do my housework with ease. I will always keep a bottle in my home. I can recommend HERB JUICE to anyone as the greatest medicine I have ever used."

Hundreds are calling at Gibson Drug Co., Concord, N. C., to see the HERB JUICE man and learn more of the great medicine that is relieving so many thousands of Concord people. Also sold in Kannapolis by F. L. Smith Drug Co.

COITON STANDS VARY WIDELY IN THE STATES

Germination and Growth Slow in Some Places; Other More Favorable. Washington, May 23.—Cotton stands in various parts of the United States show wide variation of condition, the department of agriculture reported today. Germination of seed and the growth of the plant have been slow in many localities, occasioning considerable replanting, because of a lack of moisture and cool weather, the department added, but on the other hand recent rains over large areas have temporarily broken the droughty condition. "Planting now is proceeding rapidly although warmer weather is needed and many areas still need rain. Chopping is reported in good condition in South Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee and Texas. In both Texas and Oklahoma recent rains have provided sufficient moisture for the present but warmer weather is needed to stimulate growth. Georgia reports fertilizer sales to date as 784,138 tons, compared with 670,000 tons at this time last year. "In Egypt attacks of 'sore shin' are reported in both the delta and upper Egypt. The condition of the crops is favorable so far in the Laguna and Lower California cotton regions of Mexico, although no rain has fallen in Laguna. The crop in Lower California is about two weeks ahead of the condition at the same time last year."

A Finnish law substituting pilot and lightship service for compulsory military service in the Anland Islands (a group in the Baltic between Sweden and Finland) has aroused great dissatisfaction among the islanders.
