TEXT OF ADDRESSES AT WOMAN'S CLUB

Miss Janie Klutz Tells of Year's Work.—Mrs. Gorman Tells of Convention.

The following is the text of Miss Janie Klutz's address before the Woman's Club in its meeting last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Gorman:

When our club was first organized we felt mere babes for few of us had any definite conception of the workings of a Woman's Club. Nor is there any definite plan under which a club may work, for the good of all should be considered and this must be done by each department of the club. We crawled, then we took a few lighting steps. We fell but we arose and tried again. Now we are standing more firmly on our feet and while we never expect to move alone in the community, for all should work together, we at least feel that we are beginning as a club to have a personality, which is being recognized and felt by the community.

We have not always sailed on calm seas, nor have we done all those things we should like to have done. We have been greatly handicapped because all our departments have not been functioning during the past year. But, we have done some things of which we may be justly proud. Entertainments of high order have been brought to Concord. Our Art and Literature and Music Departments are the only departments which have been working this year. Both of these have added much to our store of knowledge and deepened our desire for the more uplifting things of life.

We were told we could not put music in the schools, nor could we bring the Redpath Chautauqua here without facing a great deficit. But we have done both. We feel directly responsible for music in the schools and it is a source of pleasure to see the progress that has been made in music in the schools in the short period of eighteen months.

If we had done nothing else these two things—music in the schools and giving Concord the Chautauqua—would alone justify the existence of the club.

The immediate work before the club is the selling of season tickets for the Chautauqua this year. And for this, we need the co-operation of you all.

We have before us a golden opportunity. Let us all work together for the good of all. We have long been in need of a central meeting place and we are happy to announce that the Merchants and Manufacturers club rooms will be available to us for three or four evenings each month, beginning next fall.

We have long since felt that there are too many moving pictures being shown which parents do not wish their children to see. Even if the parents themselves are rather indifferent we know this to be true. One of the theatre managers has promised us a children's matinee once a week. Children under 12 will be admitted for 5 cents and after expenses the club will receive half of the proceeds.

Mrs. Riley, chairman of the better film committee, will select the pictures. Next fall we will have four departments functioning. We shall need you and your friends and I know you will not disappoint us. The officers for next year are as follows: Your president is before you. Vice President, Miss Alma Goode; second vice-president, Mrs. G. Ed. Kestler; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. John Partery; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Guy Beaver; Treasurer, Mrs. Ben Craven.

Literature and Art Department: Mrs. H. S. Williams, chairman; Mrs. Hinton McLeod, vice chairman; Miss Muriel (Continued on Page Seven)

MRS. ALFRED M. WADDELL GUEST IN CITY FRIDAY

State President of Colonial Dames Entertained Here.—Other Distinguished Guests Present.

Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Archie Cannon, their chairman, the Cabarrus county committee of the Colonial Dames of America held their regular meeting. Mrs. Alfred Moore Waddell, of Wilmington, state president, was the honor guest of the Dames. Sharing honors were Mrs. Stewart Cramer, of Charlotte, chairman of the Mecklenburg county committee; Mrs. R. A. Dunn and Mrs. C. O. Hook.

Mrs. Waddell gave a most interesting and instructive talk to the committee, after which Mrs. Cannon invited the guests into the dining room where delicious refreshments were served.

The dining table with its yellow candles and beautiful blue and yellow spring flowers carried out the color scheme of the Dames, adding beauty to the charming hospitality of the hostess. The other Dames present besides the guests were: Miss Jenn Coltrane, Mrs. Robert Jones, Mrs. R. S. Young, Mrs. L. T. Hartsell, Mrs. J. F. Cannon, Mrs. W. W. Flowe, Mrs. T. H. Webb and Mrs. R. P. Gibson.

KINDERGARTEN TO CLOSE HERE FRIDAY, JUNE 5TH

Plans Will Be Made For Next Year Provided Enough Interest Is Shown by the Public.

The kindergarten which has been conducted during the past several months at the Y. M. C. A. under the supervision of Miss Hallam, will close on Friday of next week, June 5th. It was planned to close the school this week but due to the fact that Miss Hallam was forced to be absent from the city an entire week, she agreed to continue the school next week so as to get in the full course.

Secretary Blanks, of the Y. M. C. A., who was instrumental in getting the kindergarten for the city, plans to conduct another one next year if the people show enough interest to warrant it. "We have not had any too much support this year," Mr. Blanks said, "and unless we are assured of more co-operation next year we will not schedule the course."

So that he may make his plans now, Mr. Blanks is anxious to talk with parents of the city who want the school continued. "I hope all persons who want to send children to the school next year will communicate with me at once," he added, "for we want to offer the course again if there is enough interest to warrant our doing so."

Bible Story Winners to Be Featured in New York Times

Miss Louise McEachern, student at Sunderland School and first prize winner in the recent Bible story contest here, and Miss Catherine Widenhouse, winner in the second group in the contest, are to be featured in next Sunday's issue of The New York Times. Secretary Blanks, of the local Y. M. C. A., sent photos of Miss McEachern and Miss Widenhouse to the New York paper and he has been advised that the pictures will appear in the issue of the paper next Sunday.

By winning first prize in the older group Miss McEachern gets a free trip to Europe, while for her prize in the younger group Miss Widenhouse gets a free trip to Washington.

Mock Battle Created Great Interest

The mock battle staged by seventy youngsters of the city on Friday night and Saturday proved so successful that similar events may be staged throughout the summer months by Mr. Denny, physical director of the Y.

"We had about seventy boys on the trip," it was stated this morning by an official of the Y, "and each seemed to get all there was out of the event. The youngsters entered into the spirit of the stunt with fine enthusiasm, and each was as 'rarin' to go' when the thing was over as he was in the beginning."

The battle was staged near Post's Mill, starting Friday night and ending early Saturday morning.

To Pave Main Highway in Mt. Pleasant

The principal streets in Mt. Pleasant, extending north and south, are to be paved in the near future. Grading work on the street is underway now and when this is completed the concrete base for the asphalt coating will be laid.

The principal street extending east and west through the town is being paved by the county and State, so when the pavements now underway are completed the town will have both of its principal thoroughfares paved.

Price of Chautauqua Tickets.

There has been some confusion as to the price of Chautauqua season tickets, some of the window cards and other advertising stating the price at $3.00. This is an error. The prices for season tickets are $2.50 for adults and $1.50 for children.

Matinee For Children.

The Concord Theatre wants every child under twelve years of age to attend a special matinee next Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.
