CHARGED WITH MURDER IN BESSEMER, ALABAMA

Babb and His Wife Arrested in Asheville for Crime Committed Two Years Ago.

Asheville, May 27.—Walter Babb, 23, wanted by the police of Bessemer, Ala., for the alleged murder in that city on September 17, 1923, of William Miller, was arrested in Asheville Tuesday.

Babb was taken by a city detective and deputy sheriff while walking near the intersection of Lexington Avenue and College Street this morning. He has been engaged as a truck driver for the city of Asheville, and has been living with his wife in Haw Creek township.

The arrest of Babb completes an investigation of the case that has been carried on at this end by Sheriff E. M. Mitchell, who said he has worked up evidence that is expected to convict Babb of the murder. The names of witnesses in Alabama and New York City have been furnished the Bessemer police by Sheriff Mitchell.

Miller was shot and killed in Bessemer, supposed because he was thought to have been a police officer seeking to arrest a party of four persons transporting whiskey in an automobile. Babb and his wife are alleged to have been two of the parties, and Babb is charged with having killed Miller with a shotgun.
