TOURISTS LEAVE FOR WASHINGTON THURSDAY. Bible Story Contest Winners Guests of Y. M. C. A. on Trip—Thirty in Party. Soon after 5 o'clock on Thursday morning of this week, a party of 30 persons will leave the Y. M. C. A. headed north for a ten day encampment in Washington. The trip is the first of its kind organized in Concord.

One of the big Dixie Coach Line buses has been secured by Y officials, who are sponsoring the trip to carry the tourists. Plans have been made to take two days in transit both on the journey to the capital city and on the return. Stop-overs will be made in Richmond. Three of the Bible Story contestants, winners in the third group, Muriel Wolf, Catherine Widenhouse and Francis Pickard, are guests of the Y. M. C. A. on this camping tour.

The tour is being arranged by Y officials to take the place of the regular yearly encampment of the Y. M. C. A. The first camps were held at Camp Harris in Anson County. Last year, a place was secured in the mountains for the Concord vacationists and this year, the novel idea of taking the party to Washington has been used. It is possible that further trips will be made, one being projected to take place on the 18th of June to either Beaufort or Wrightsville Beach.

Those who will go to Washington are as follows: Catherine Widenhouse, Muriel Wolf, Frances Howard, Margaret Parnell, Lucy, Eleanor and Sarah Crowell, Winzie Frieze, Lula Petree, Louise Yow, Helen Goodman, Mrs. John Boger, Fannie Morrison, Millicent Ward, Era Linker, Margaret and Nola Barrier, Irene Harris, Margaret Fowlkes, Anita and Lula Umberger, Mary McLelland, Francis Pickard, Floyd Furr, Robert Dick, Duval Sturgis, Carl Litzker, and Roy Isehour.

Y. M. C. A. Movies. Saturday night movies at the Y. M. C. A. were attended by an unusually large number of people. Every inch of space on the Y lawn was crowded. The prizes in the current events contest, given by J. C. Penny Co., were won by Fred Brown and Ora Lee Jenkins. The winners were presented tickets to the Concord Theatre.

AVIATORS DEFY DEATH IN STUNTS AT CHARLOTTE. Crowds Are Thrilled By Show in Air Over Myers Park Field. Charlotte News, 30th. The daredevils of the Gates Flying Circus thrilled thousands of spectators with their stunts Friday and Saturday. Several hundreds of local persons gathered at the polo grounds, in Myers Park, for each exhibition, and thousands of other from various places in the city craned their necks to watch the aviators defy death in many thrilling ways. At 12:30 o'clock Saturday, one stunt plane dropped 25 copies of The News, wrapped within five of which were tickets for free airplane rides. These were dropped in the vicinity of The News building. This same stunt was done Friday and at both performances many engaged in the chase for the tickets, gifts of the aviators. At 3 p. m., on both Friday and Saturday, the air circus performers did their most daring stunts high in the air above the flying field. The chief thrill of the twoday circus was provided Saturday afternoon, when Diavolo Krantz, aerial acrobat, changed from one plane to another. Only three living men have performed this feat, it was said by members of the circus. Among the other stunts that Krantz pulls off are swinging from his plane, his foot tied to a 80-foot rope; standing erect on the top wing while the plane loops the loop; standing on his head on the wing of a speeding ship; hanging from the landing gear by one hand, and others equally as dangerous.

WAS MINE EXPLOSION DUE TO A MATCH? Dr. Scott of Sanford Finds Matches on Some Dead Negroes. Coal Glen, May 30.—Smoking in the Carolina mine near Sanford, a practice which was forbidden by the ownership, may have been the cause of the explosion in the mine Wednesday morning which took a toll of 55 lives, according to a revelation made here this morning by Dr. John L. Scott, Sanford physician. Dr. Scott has been in charge of the temporary morgue where the bodies of the victims were examined on being removed from the mine. He stated to government experts that he had found matches in the pockets of several of the negroes mine victims. The body of Houben Chambliss, white, was removed about 1:45 this morning, leaving in the mine now only the remains of Joe Hudson, white, and of one of the negro miners, so far as known.
