

Ten Reasons Why The New Columbia Is Superior

1. It starts itself.
2. Stops itself—nothing to move, set or measure.
3. New International Reproducer—a marvel of naturalness.
4. One hand top—another convenient refinement.
5. Stream line cabinets—in good taste everywhere.
6. Straight, spun brass tone arm—enables tone to develop fully and naturally.
7. Tone leaves built on pipe organ principle—control volume.
8. New Precision Motor—accurate—strong—smooth as a watch.
9. Bronze and brass bearings in motor, acting like jewels in a watch.
10. Perfect ciling system—easy, clean, convenient.

LOCAL MENTION

With the new refrigerating device ice cream is kept in the most perfect condition at the Pearl Drug Store.

Mrs. Annie Baird is confined to her home on Marsh street by illness. Her condition is reported as being improved today.

According to a deed filed Monday Violet Cannon has sold to Sandy Thompson property in No. 11 township, Silver Hill, for $100.

The weekly meeting of the Concord Rotary Club will be held at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow at 12:30 o'clock. The program will be in charge of A. F. Hartsel, chairman of the Fellowship Committee.

Harry Johnson and Dewey Sappenfield left this morning in the "Patrol Car," the Y Chevrolet, for Washington, where they will make the necessary arrangements for the campers who leave here on Thursday morning.

Six defendants were tried in recorder's court Monday afternoon and they paid fines and costs totalling $108.35. The heaviest fine was assessed against a man charged with carrying a concealed weapon, the fine being $50.

Fifteen Confederate Veterans of the county left this morning for Wilson to attend the State reunion. Railroad fare was given to the veterans by the county under an order issued by the commissioners at their meeting Monday.

Most of the teachers who taught in the public schools of the city have returned to their respective homes for the summer. Some of the high school teachers remained over for the finals this week and will leave today and tomorrow for their homes.

Jack Brown, manager of the Browns-Cannon Co., succeeded in moving about half of the company's stock of goods to its new quarters in the Cannon building Monday. The moving work is being continued and Mr. Brown hopes to complete the change not later than tomorrow.

The June meeting of the board of aldermen will be held at the city hall here Thursday night at 8 o'clock. This will be the second meeting of the board elected in the May election. It is rumored that several matters of much general importance will be presented to the board for consideration.

Announcement of the death in Raleigh Monday afternoon of Col. Benham Cameron was received with sincere sorrow by his host of friends in Concord. Col. Cameron was related by marriage to the family of T. H. Webb, of this city, and was known by many of the older citizens of the city.

All persons who are planning to take the trip to Washington are asked to get their baggage to the Y. M. C. A. not later than Wednesday afternoon. The Dixie Coach will arrive in the city Wednesday and will be loaded that night preparatory to starting for Washington on the next morning. About thirty persons have signed up to go on the trip.

Mrs. H. P. Guffy has resigned her position as nurse, medical dietitian at Lenoir College and will at once take up public health work at Oxford, where she will make her home. Her daughter, Miss Lois Guffy, is with her in Oxford, while her other daughter, Miss Edith Guffy, is at present visiting her aunt, Mrs. L. L. Mauldin, of Concord.

The Giants continued their winning streak in the National League Monday defeating Brooklyn again. Other games resulted in victories for St. Louis over Cincinnati, Chicago over Pittsburgh and Philadelphia over Boston. In the American League Washington defeated New York, St. Louis defeated Cleveland, Detroit defeated Chicago and Boston defeated Philadelphia.

Brick masons, carpenters and others workmen who are taking a part in the erection of the new home of the Bell & Harris Funeral Parlors were entertained at dinner today at the Carolina Cafe by M. M. Linker, manager of the funeral company. Spring chicken, with a variety of vegetables were served. About fifty men, including white and colored, were included in the dinners.

Another man of Concord has been tried and convicted in recorder's court of a charge of operating his auto without a State license. "This is the fourth man to be tried on this charge within the past several weeks," one police officer stated this morning, "and we are determined to arrest all other violators of the law." The fact that new licenses have to be bought this month does not excuse a person, the officer said.

Police officers of the city found 21 pint bottles in a garage near the city this morning. No arrest was made because the officers saw a man carry something to the rear of the garage and hurry away before they could catch up with him. The owners of the garage said he did not know the bottles were there and argued that the man placed them in the garage when he saw the officers. A small quantity of liquor was found in several of the bottles.

J. W. Denny, in speaking of the beginning of swimming at the Y this morning, declared that he would like to have every person going in the pool wear ear stoppers. "The reason," he said, "is that ear trouble is caused by the presence of water in the ear canals which irritates the delicate membranes. No matter whether the water is clean or not, the ear is likely to become infected. For that reason I wish everyone would wear stoppers."

Men may be dumb, but very few of them wear stylish clothes.

"Down with liquor" is the cry of both sides in the rum war.

Your luck may be bad. But they kicked a Boston man out of jail.

Arthur Train, author, is writing a Turk opera. What's worse?

Prohibition costs $100,000,000 a year. Yet we get little of it.

The Prince of Wales saw a wrestling match, then went to a dance. Must be different in Africa.

Telephone pole fell on an auto in Seattle. It was self-defense.

World's biggest ox is on exhibition in Chicago. The world's biggest monkey is at large.

King of Brussels is a member of the Rotary Club, and no doubt it helps his kinging business.

COME TO VINGTON'S

Dear Sallie: Mt. Pleasant's braces are bonnie. Mt. Pleasant's skies are blue.

I'll be shot if I could not write a modern Annie Laurie on Mount Pleasant's sweet girls, smart boys, gracious ladies and gallant gentlemen. M. P. C. I. boys all over the states ask me about such a girl—been married several years, perhaps if he's single I break it easy; if he's married I lay it on pretty thick; She's forgot him; the sickening conceit of some men gives me the pip.

Well Sallie, Mr. Sherrill charges me fifty cents each for printing these letters and if they are long ones he charges me a dollar each. As trade is pretty dull I'll close so here's to you, Bill and your old sweethearts and Mt. Pleasant with beachtop streets and electric lights. No place for courting now.

C. COVINGTON.
