Guess Is Wrong, It's a Nightie

THERE'S chic as well as comfort to this sleeveless night gown of satin striped voile with red poppies gracing its surface. The ties at the shoulder and belt are of red ribbon, and the skirt is cut in points finished with a plait edge. It is different, at any rate.

Mrs. W. C. Houston, Mrs. W. J. Rudge and Miss Fannie Person Rudge left today for Durham to attend Duke commencement exercises. Dr. Hodston and Mr. Rudge expect to leave tomorrow to be with them. William Rudge, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Rudge, whose home is in Monroe, will receive the M. A. degree at Duke this year.

DONALD WAUCHOPE WAS DROWNED ON FRIDAY

Was Swimming in Lake Waccamaw When Accident Occurred—Funeral Here This Afternoon.

A long distance telephone message Friday night to Mr. and Mrs. E. Gibson Sherrill brought the news that Donald Wauchope, son of Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Wauchope, was drowned late Friday afternoon while swimming in Lake Waccamaw.

Funeral services will be held this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Second Presbyterian church here, interment to be made in Oakwood cemetery. The body will arrive in Albemarle on the South-bound railroad and will be met there by a Concord undertaker, who will bring it on to this city.

No details have been learned as to the manner of young Wauchope's death, the message over the telephone simply stating that he was drowned in Lake Waccamaw, which is near his home in Whiteville.

Until last spring, Rev. W. C. Wauchope, father of Donald, was pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church here. He resigned his pastorate here to take a charge in Whiteville. Mr. and Mrs. Wauchope and Donald were in Concord only ten days ago on a visit.

A pall of gloom has been cast over the entire congregation formerly served by Mr. Wauchope and the many friends of the family at the tragic death of Donald, who was sixteen years of age. He was the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Wauchope.

Salem Alumnae Association Meeting.

The Salem Alumnae Association held its annual meeting at the home of Mrs. E. J. Ridenhour on Friday afternoon. Mrs. Farrell White, of Albemarle, president of the association, presided, and Miss Alice Keeney, of Salem College, was a special guest at the meeting. Other guests included the Concord girls now attending Salem College and Misses Jennie Brown and Penelope Cannon, who expect to enter Salem in the fall.

The meeting opened with a delightful musical program consisting of the following selections:

Piano Solo—Miss Margaret Hartsell, Alma Mater.
Vocal Solo—Miss Lois Crowell.
Vocal Solo—Mrs. Gibson.

Following this Miss Keeney made an interesting talk in which she gave a comprehensive account of recent occurrences at Salem College. Among other things she mentioned the graduating recital in voice given by Miss Lois Crowell, the establishment of the H. A. Shirley Music Library by the Salem College Glee Club and the presentation at commencement of the Mary Louise Stroud memorial, a six thousand dollar scholarship fund.

After Miss Keeney's talk plans were made for holding in the near future a bridge tournament for the purpose of raising money for the endowment. Officers for the new year were elected as follows:

Mrs. Laura L. Ross, President.
Mrs. Victor Means, Vice President.
Mrs. Prentiss Raeford, Secretary.
Miss Lucy Hartsell, Treasurer.

At the close of the business meeting Mrs. White served a delicious salad course.

TORRID WAVE HAS KILLED UPWARD OF 175 IN WEEK

Thermometer in Eastern Cities Touches 100 Degrees—Still No Relief Seen.

Chicago, June 5.—From the Rocky Mountains to the Atlantic seaboard, the country sweltered tonight in the grip of a record-breaking heat wave, as weather reports held out little hope of immediate relief and death tolls and prostrations increased.

Tabulations tonight revealed that the hot weather and violent storms which accompanied Old Sol's heat jag, have taken a toll of upward of 175 lives during the past few days. Weather forecasts indicated that the sizzling temperatures would continue until Sunday, at least.

In many cities today the boiling mercury climbed to new altitude records, causing additional deaths and prostrations, starting fires, causing the closing of some schools and interfering with business.

Upward of thirty deaths were reported in the "furnace belt" today. In Chicago two fires were attributed to the sun's rays on combustible material and several schools were dismissed when the mercury climbed to 96.3, a new high record for June 5th.

More Accidents in Warm Weather.

Speed maniacs were responsible for more of the 402 persons killed in automobile accidents in the month of April than any other cause, reports the National Safety Council. Contending for the right of way was the cause of most of the non-fatal accidents, with "exceeding the speed limit" claiming a close second.

With the coming of warm weather, child pedestrian accidents have increased over all previous months since the first of the year. Male motorists are the greatest offenders, says the council. They were involved in twenty times more accidents than were women motorists, and male pedestrians killed numbered three times the women killed.

"Failed to signal," "on wrong side of road," "cutting left corner sharply," and "driver intoxicated," were other causes of auto accidents. Almost two-thirds of the accidents occurred at intersections, in daylight, when the weather was clear and the road dry. "Walking, running or playing in the street" resulted in more accidents to pedestrians than any other single circumstance, and most of them were children.
