LUTHERAN WOMEN OF STATE WILL MEET THIS WEEK

Fortieth Annual Convention of Women's Missionary Society to Be Held in Charlotte, Observer, 8th.

Two hundred women from various parts of the state are expected to attend the fortieth annual convention of the Women's Missionary Society of the North Carolina Lutheran synod at St. Marks Church here from Tuesday evening through Friday noon.

"Soul Saving Service" will be the motto. Among those on the program will be Rev. Dr. L. B. Wolf, of Baltimore, secretary of the board of foreign missions of the United Lutheran Church of America; Rev. C. P. Wiles, of Philadelphia, general secretary of Sunday school literature of the United Lutheran Church of America, and Mrs. Wiles; Rev. E. R. Linberger, of the Andrews' mission; Rev. Dr. J. L. Morgan, of Salisbury, synod president; Dr. John F. Crigler, pastor of St. Marks Church; Mrs. J. E. Leonard, missionary to Africa, and Mrs. M. O. J. Kreps, of Columbia, S. C.

Preliminary to the convention, the executive board will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The opening general session will be held at 8 o'clock that night, Dr. J. L. Morgan to preach and assisted by Dr. J. F. Crigler, to administer communion.

Wednesday's program will be begun at 9 o'clock with a devotional led by Mrs. E. H. Kohn, of Mt. Holly. It will comprise announcement of committees and reporters, reports of Mrs. D. W. McClanahan, of Gibsonville, the president; Miss Julia Hall, of Cherryville, superintendent of the Light Brigade; Mrs. Fred Shepherd, of Concord, treasurer; Mrs. C. O. Leonard, of Landis, statistical secretary; Miss Laura Ebird, of Raleigh, executive committee; Mrs. Hubert Patterson, of Albemarle, mission study; Mrs. C. P. Wiles, of Philadelphia, mission study book; Mrs. J. L. Kiser, life and in memoriam; Mrs. E. K. Roof, literature; Mrs. J. M. Cook, of Concord, thank offering; Miss Clara Sullivan, announcements.

At 11:30 o'clock Mrs. W. F. Morehead, of Salem, Va., will speak on "The Universal Need of Soul Saving Service" and echoes will be heard from the missionary conference at Washington in February.

Mrs. E. C. Cooper, of Albemarle, will open the afternoon session at 2 o'clock with a devotional, after which greetings will be brought from other synods, reports secretaries will be continued; Miss Beulah Loyd, of Salisbury, will discuss student and deaconess; Mrs. Mauney, of Kings Mountain, India lace; Mrs. Roy T. Troutman, Charlotte, box work; Mrs. R. L. Fritz, Hickory, West Indies; Mrs. H. S. Mitchell, magazine; Mrs. J. A. Linn, history. After the report of the conference president and of the organization chairman, Rev. E. R. Linberger, will tell of the Andrews' mission activities.

Dr. Crigler will conduct the vesper service at 8 o'clock. Dr. Wolfe to speak on "Our Newly Acquired Work in China" and the St. Marks Missionary Society to give a reception in honor of the 40th anniversary.

Opening with a devotional led by Mrs. Kohn, the Thursday morning program will comprise business, reports of committees, impromptu talks by visitors, address at 10 o'clock by Dr. Wiles on "The Responsibility of Soul Saving Service Through Missions in the Sunday School," and an address at 11:45 o'clock by Mrs. Wiles on "The Methods of Soul Saving Service: How, When and Where Done."

A devotional at 2 o'clock led by Mrs. Cooper will begin the afternoon meeting, which will comprise election of officers and delegates to the biennial convention, open forum on parental responsibility, home rule and law enforcement conducted by Mrs. E. A. Shenk, of Greensboro, and impromptu talks.

The convention banquet will be held at 6 o'clock that night atop the Johnson building with Mrs. J. F. Crigler as toastmistress. At 8 o'clock Mrs. J. E. Leonard will speak on "Our African Work" and Mrs. M. O. J. Kreps will discuss "The Rewards Here and Hereafter of Soul Saving Service."

The Friday business, beginning at 9 o'clock, will consist of unfinished and new business, installation of officers and announcements. The executive board will meet after adjournment.

The officers of the synod's Women's Missionary Society are Mrs. D. W. McClanahan, of Gibsonville, president; Mrs. J. L. Morgan, of Salisbury, vice president; Miss Laura Ebird, of Raleigh, secretary, and Mrs. Fred Shepherd, of Concord, treasurer.

Circle 10 Meeting Changed. The meeting place of Circle 10 of the Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian Church has been changed from the home of Mrs. J. A. Cannon to the home of Miss Mary King.

The Tent Meeting. The tent meeting at the Locke Mill is in great progress. There were several hundred people there last night. A large number of people requested prayer. Two prayed through. We are looking forward for this to be a great meeting. The tent will seat about 1200 people. Come and bring some one with you. REV. H. T. BLACKWELDER.

Marvin W. Cook Friday, May 29, 1925 Concord, N. C. At Home after June 25th. Kannapolis, N. C. The bride is from Durham. She graduated from Duke University and for the past two years has been teaching at Rousemount, N. C. Mr. Cook is a son of Ed. M. Cook, of Kannapolis, and attended school at Weaverville College, Asheville. He holds a position with Ed. M. Cook Grocery Store, in Kannapolis.

Mrs. Cooke Honored at Delightful Party Durham Herald. Saturday morning from 10 to 12 o'clock Mrs. John W. Neal and Miss Eva Neal were joint hostesses at their home on Hillsboro road in honor of Mrs. R. M. Cooke, of Concord. The home was beautifully decorated. A profusion of summer flowers were placed at intervals throughout the home carrying out the color scheme of pink and white.

Upon the arrival of the guests delicious punch was served by Misses Pauline Cole and Mary Latta. The game of the morning was heart dice, and after these games it was found Mrs. Eric Tillet held the highest score. The prize proved to be a paper bag, which on being opened disclosed a cat holding an announcement of the marriage of Miss Ethel Near to Marvin W. Cooke of Kannapolis, N. C.

The guests were invited into the dining room which was lovely with pink unshaded tapers. The centerpiece was a beautiful bride's cake, the cutting of which afforded much merriment among the guests. At the conclusion of the morning a delicious course with nuts and bonbons was served to the following guests: Misses Pauline Cole, Studie M. Barker, Myrtle Scorgins, Erna Umstead, Lottie Moore, Coma Cole, Mary Latta, Ava Sharpe, Jessie Leathers, Doris Mathoney, Hazel Cole and Mamie Holloway, Mesdames R. M. Cooke, V. A. Cole, M. T.
