

Hard-Boiled, This Goodyear Heavy Duty Cord

How would you like to have a tire that couldn't be licked? Drive it hard—give it the bad news—run it anywhere short of a nail plant or a glass works.

Easy now! Don't crowd. We've got plenty for you.

The new Goodyear Heavy Duty Cord for passenger cars. Made with extra plies of SUPERTWIST—extra elastic and extra strong—armored with circumferential sidewall ribs—powered with the famous All-Weather Tread.

Costs what? Let us give you the good news—confidential.

Ritchie, Mary McEachern, an orphan girl, was a student of Sunland School and, as its representative, won first prize in the Bible Story Contest.

Thirteen cases were on docket for trial in recorder's court this afternoon, police officers stated this morning. Three of the defendants are charged with being intoxicated, four with having liquor, one with gambling, two with false pretense and three with speeding. Most of the cases developed over the week-end, the officers pointed out.

A strong breeze swept over Concord Sunday afternoon, bringing relief from the torrid weather of the past week. There was a shower of rain during the night but the water that fell hardly dampened the ground and did nothing to break the drought that has damaged the gardens and growing crops in some sections of the county.

A. E. Tibbs, of Great Falls, S. C. has been secured by the members of the First Baptist Church of this city to act as supply preacher during the summer months. He will occupy the pulpit until October 1st. Mr. Tibbs is a graduate of Furman University and has just completed a course at the Louisville Theological Seminary.

City officers chosen by the aldermen at their meeting Thursday night will be on their duties after the aldermanic meeting in July. Most of the officials are on the job now so they will just continue at their present posts. The new officials, however, will take office after the July meeting and after those who are required to give bond have had their bonds accepted by the board.

H. S. Williams, one of the most prominent of the Guilford College alumni in North Carolina, left this morning to attend the commencement exercises at the college. Several weeks ago Mr. Williams was nominated by friends as a candidate for the presidency of the alumni association of the college and the matter is expected to be decided during the present week.

The Buick touring car belonging to L. T. Hartsell was struck last night, while parked in front of the home of Dr. W. H. Wadsworth, by a Ford coupe driven by H. H. Barnett. The damage done to the Buick was not great but the entire front part of the Ford was mashed in. Mr. Barnett declared that he was blinded by the lights of an oncoming car and for that reason did not see the Buick.

Much interest was shown by the public in the awarding of the contract for the erection of the new hotel building here. When it became known that bids had been submitted and that the matter was under advisement by a building committee many inquiries as to the action of the committee were received at this office. The new hotel is to be a community project and this undoubtedly accounted for the great interest displayed by the general public.

Religious Jumpers of Echternach.

Echternach in Luxemburg yearly witnesses a strange survival of the days when its townspeople kept off the plague by religious jumping.

This "holy city" was founded by an English missionary in 698 and the procession which has been going on in Whit-suntide ever since had its origin in a cattle plague which the people tried to exterminate by jumping about and imitating animals. But it had no effect, so they decided to send a band of "springing saints" or "holy dancers" to the shrine of the saint. The disease was immediately stayed. The procession has only been stopped once and the result is said to have been a recurrence of the plague. This odd pilgrimage is one of the oldest of its kind in Europe and the fervor of the people shows no sign of abatement. They line up at nine in the morning and leap and dance about for five hours. The general idea is to take three steps forward and two backward until they finally reach the Church of St. Peter.
