BAPTIST WOMEN HOLD SEMI-ANNUAL SOCIAL

Four Charter Members of the Church Honored at Meeting at the home of Mrs. T. D. Maness.

One of the most delightful social events of the season was the semi-annual social meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church at the home of Mrs. T. D. Maness Monday afternoon.

A play, bringing out the thought of the obligation which is binding on every Christian to set aside one-tenth of the income for the Lord's work, was presented by a dozen or more actors in a very forceful manner and with convincing arguments against ill excesses.

Among other pleasing features of the program the ladies had arranged a surprise for the charter members of the church, four of whom were present, viz: Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Lentz, Mr. Hinson and Mrs. K. L. Chaven.

On behalf of the society Mrs. J. A. Walker spoke words of love and appreciation to these heroic members, who have stood by the Baptist cause in this city hopefully, patiently and faithfully for nearly forty years, and whose service and sacrifice they have been spared to see develop into triumphant achievement.

Beside the honor of a special program, the charter members were treated to a greater surprise when they were each presented with a gold coin as a slight token of the love of their comrades in service, who now follow the pathway of their leading in holding aloft the banner of the King.

This climax touched the hearts of the veterans, and in a few broken sentences they responded in words of appreciation and gratitude.

"Best Be the Tie That Binds" closed a program long to be remembered by the large company present.

Assisted by several of the ladies, Mrs. Maness served her guests with delicious refreshments.

Salem Alumnae Hold Bridge Party.

The Salem College Alumnae Association will have a benefit bridge party at the Country Club on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Women of the city are invited to be present at this affair which promises to be one of the most brilliant of the season.

Missionary Guild to Meet.

The Girls' Missionary Guild of Trinity Reformed Church will meet tonight at 8 o'clock with Miss Mary Elizabeth Davis on West Corbin Street.

Surprise Birthday Party.

Master Carlyle Swink entertained at a surprise birthday party given at his home on Church street Wednesday afternoon celebrating his seventh birthday. After many games were played refreshments were served to the following:

Mary Alice Moose, Delphina Foll, Miriam and Edith Caton, Idalene Martin, Alma Jais and Ponce Fuller, Agnes Isenhour, Miriam Long, Ruth and Sarah Deaton, Alice Moore, Wilene Swink, Jesse Moore, Arthur and Charlie Goodman, Billy Peele, George Slack and Billy Morrison.

TOURISTS TO WASHINGTON EXPECTED BACK TOMORROW

Members Report Having Had a "Jolly Good Time"—Visit Places of Interest.

Thirty-seven tired but happy tourists will return to Concord tomorrow afternoon or night after their ten-day trip to Washington in the Dixie coach. They have had, according to reports, a "jolly good time."

Their trip has been eventful. Leaving Concord early last Thursday, they reached Mebane without a mishap, but were held up there for several hours on account of a broken driving axle. The night was spent in Richmond and they went on to Washington the next day.

The camp is located in the park about 500 yards from the Washington monument and is on the banks of the Potomac River. Members of the party have visited practically all the points of interest in and about the city in their week's stay in the Capital City. Among the places visited were Arlington, Mt. Vernon, and the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis.

On the visit to Mt. Vernon, the journey was made in a boat. The return trip will be made by Alexandria, Frederickburg and Richmond with stop-overs in each of these places.

Arrangements were made by Mrs. Gales Pickard, who was the chaperone, to have the party taken through the White House and meet the president.

According to the last census, there were only eleven Irishborn farmers in the State of North Carolina.

PLAN ENTERTAINMENT FOR VISITING MACCABEES

Horse Racing, Ball Game and Athletic Events Will Be Staged in City.

Spectacular horse racing, a ball game, and numerous athletic events constitute a part of the program which the Chamber of Commerce is arranging with M. D. Gleason, national director of the Maccabee motordrome, for the entertainment of the thousands of Maccabees who will be in Concord the greater part of the day on July 14th.

Mr. Gleason was in the city yesterday in conference with H. W. Blanks, Secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, and Dr. T. N. Spencer, president of the Chamber of Commerce, and Secretary of the Fair Association. Arrangements were made at the time for entertaining one of the largest gatherings that has ever been in Concord.

The Maccabee Motordrome is on route from all parts of the country to Washington where a national gathering will be held. The part Concord will be called upon to entertain will come in 900 cars, it is said by Mr. Gleason, and will contain over three thousand persons.

The Motordrome will reach Charlotte on the morning of the 14th and will immediately take part in a gigantic fraternal parade which is being projected by the Chamber of Commerce of that city. As soon as the parade is completed, the entire gathering, including thousands of people from Charlotte, it is declared, will come directly to Concord for the events here. In the late afternoon, the majority of the crowd will return to Charlotte where an amphitheatre has been put on in the amphitheatre that night.

Places for several hundred Maccabees to sleep the night of the 14th are desired and Secretary Blanks asks that all who have available rooms to rent at that time communicate with him at once.

The caravan which is planning to stop in Concord will start in Texas and Louisiana and will then proceed through Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and on to Washington. It grows, as it proceeds, members of the fraternal organization constantly joining the motordrome. The Caravan Jubilee starts on July 20.

Walthall-Hutchison.

Charlotte Observer.

Williams Memorial Presbyterian church, on the Beatty's ford road, was the scene last night of a pretty wedding ceremony in which Miss Lee Hutchison, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hutchison, became the bride of Mr. James Lee Walthall, of Concord, Rev. Dr. A. R. Shaw, the pastor, performing the ceremony.

The church was attractively decorated in an arrangement of palms, ferns and Queen Anne's lace.

Miss Ellen Jamison was at the piano, playing the wedding march from Liszt's opus 65 as a professional and Menhelson's as a recessional. Miss Ruth Hanna, of Greenville, S. C., sang "At Dawning," and during the ceremony played "To a Wild Rose" as a violin solo. The event was attended by a large gathering of relatives, and friends, some of whom came from other states.

The bride was gowned in Duchess satin, on train, with veil worn coronet fashion, caught with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses.

Her maid of honor, Miss Josephine Hutchison, a sister, wore robin's egg blue brocaded satin and silver lace and carried Russell roses and anapardous. The bridesmaids, Miss Margaret Walthall, the bridegroom's sister, and Miss Mary Louise Carr, the bride's niece, appeared in pink taffeta, carrying yellow tea roses.

The flower girls, little Misses Dorothy and Evelyn Hutchison, wore ruffled, organdy-pink and blue, respectively—and carried butterfly roses. The ring bearer, Frank Hutchison, was very impressive and dignified—and delightful in a full dress suit. He presented the ring on a tray.

Mr. W. H. Biggers, of Concord, was best man, and Messrs. J. C. Wadsworth, Jr., and Robert P. Walthall, both of Concord, were groomsmen. Messrs. William Harry and Harper C. Dicks were ushers.

Following the ceremony a reception was given at the home. Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Carr, Jr., as host and hostess, stood at the door and the bridal party composed the receiving line. Miss Marguerite Allred was in charge of the register and Mesdames E. L. McConnell and Henry C. McConnell were at the punch-bowl. An entire room was given over to the display of handsome wedding gifts, a feature of special admiration on the part of guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Walthall left last night for a motor trip through the mountains of North Carolina. On their return they will reside in Concord.

Mr. Walthall is a member of the local Ford Motor Company staff. The bride and bridegroom both have large circles of friends with whom they are popular.
