FOURTEEN YEARS OF SERVICE BY THE PARKS-BELK COMPANY

Event Will Be Celebrated by This Big Department Store Beginning Friday Morning.

Fourteen years of service to the trading public of Concord and Cabarrus county is the occasion for the celebration event being arranged by the Parks-Belk Company which will open on Friday morning at their local store, and continue through July 4th. It is the intention of a big birthday celebration, during which they will show their appreciation of patronage during their career here, by offering unheard of values in their huge stock of merchandise. The store has been closed all day today, to allow the force sufficient time to arrange and specially price the merchandise for this event.

Almost fourteen years ago the Parks-Belk Company started business in Concord with a small stock of goods and two floors of space in a small building. This has grown steadily until today the huge stock fills to overflowing three spacious floors and basement in the large building which they bought and enlarged. Besides, other stores have been opened up from this parent store, and are located in Albemarle, Kannapolis, Newton and Hickory, North Carolina and in Spartanburg, South Carolina.

During the fourteen days of this celebration special offerings will be made at certain hours every day. Everything is in readiness for the opening of the doors at 8:30 o'clock Friday morning.

Rev. C. W. Sifford Is Buried in Native Soil

Salisbury Post.

The remains of the Rev. Dr. C. W. The service was in charge of the Rev. Dr. J. L. Morgan, of Salisbury, president of the North Carolina Lutheran Synod, and was also participated in by the Rev. Dr. George H. Cox, of this city; the Rev. Mr. Miller, pastor of Ebenezer Church, and the Rev. G. H. Lingle, of Mooresville. Ten Lutheran ministers were in attendance at the funeral and burial. Nephews of the deceased were pallbearers, these being P. M. J. V. and C. E. Barger, of Mooresville; R. R. Shepherd, of Concord; J. A. Kerns and W. C. Sifford, of Salisbury.

The deceased was about 70 years of age and was a son of the late Dr. Paul A. Sifford, of this county, and a brother of the late J. L. Sifford, of Rowan and Mrs. M. L. Barger, of Mooresville. ### Jealous Husband Testing Wife's Loyalty Gets Surprise

A penetrating picture of life and love is the new Eneore production, "Is Love Everything?" which opened at the Concord theater yesterday and will be shown again today. It features Alma Rubens, Frank Mayo, H. B. Warner, Walter McGeary and Lilyan Tashman. While it is primarily a play of domestic problems, it is nevertheless filled with stirring and thrilling scenes that add to its interest and serve to heighten its dramatic appeal.

Luxurious settings and beautiful gowns, scenes of splendor and sensational adventures aboard a whiskey runner at sea punctuate its fascinating story, which tells of a husband who after two years of marriage, inflamed by jealousy, puts into execution a scheme to test his wife's loyalty.

From this startling and daring situation the producer has evolved a drama of telling power that moves to its unexpected climax in a logical and fascinating manner. "I don't believe that a woman can tear a love from her heart," the husband had said when his wife and her old lover met again for the first time since her marriage. Upon her he had heaped wealth, jewels, social position—yet he felt that it was only the husk of love that he had received in return for his devotion.

Honors at Duke University For Stanly Boys and Girls.

Stanly News-Herald.

The Stanly News-Herald has been telling its readers of what was going to happen when the younger generation got into action. Well they are now getting into action, and they are making themselves felt at the various schools and colleges where they have gone. Looking over the list of those winning special honors at Duke University the past year, we find that Stanly was well represented. In the first place, Mr. Stanton S. Pickens, son of Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Pickens, of this place, was chief marshal. Of the nine who won special honors in "Religious Education," the name of Mr. James Swearingen, son of Rev. and Mrs. R. A. Swearingen, of this city appears as one. Miss Ellen Huckabee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Huckabee, of this place, was one of the few who won special honors in the freshman class, as was also Miss Beulah Virginia Thompson, of Norwood. Five won special honors in history, and Miss Idalene Gullledge, of this city, who graduated with honors this year, was one. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Gullledge, of New Dec Avenue.

And we shall hear more from the Stanly boys and girls next year. They are determined to get old Stanly on the map as the home of brilliance and character. Watch them do it.
