Smart Habit for Little Miss

THIS smart riding habit was worn by little Anita Fremault at the opening of Blumensack and Co. and created no little attention. It is of white, worn with a topcoat lined in red and a tie with red figures. This hat is a soft red felt.

Miss Bost Entertains.
Miss Martha Bost most delightfully entertained about forty of her friends at a party Friday night at her home on East Depot street for her guests, Misses Julia and Inez Probst, of Roanoke Rapids. The porch and yard were very prettily arranged with jack o' lanterns. Games and dancing were the features of the evening. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Missionary Meeting.
The regular meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist Church will be held with Mrs. L. R. Crooks, on McGill Street, Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Get-Together Meeting.
The Woman's Missionary Society of Central Methodist Church will have the "Get-Together Meeting" Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the ladies' parlor.

GOVERNOR ACTS ON CAPITAL FELONIES

Clemency Extended to a Mecklenburg County Negro.

Raleigh News and Observer.
Governor A. W. McLean yesterday took final action in two capital cases, announcing he would not interfere with the execution of George Love, negro, of Haywood county, who is to die by electrocution at 10:30 o'clock this morning, and granting a commutation to life imprisonment for Alex Rodman, negro, of Mecklenburg county. The governor issued lengthy statements in both cases.

After this morning at 10:30 there will be only two inmates of death row, Cheatem Evans, of Nash, who has been declared insane, and who has been reprieved to September; and Arthur Montague, of Burke, who has appealed to the Supreme Court from conviction for a criminal assault upon an inmate of the State institution for the Deaf at Morganton.

Love, who is to die today, killed Bill Brock, a white man, nearly three years ago, and has been twice convicted. The Supreme Court granting a new trial following the first conviction.

Rodman, who was commuted to life imprisonment yesterday, was convicted in February, 1924, one year after Love's first conviction, and has been reprieved four times, his case having been originally considered along with that of Jim Collins, Anson county negro, who was electrocuted two weeks ago. Efforts were made by disinterested parties to save both negroes, but there was not near the pressure for the extreme penalty in the Rodman case there was in the Collins case. Collins killed A. C. Sedberry, member of a prominent Anson county family, and his relatives followed the case through to the bitter end.

In the Rodman case, Governor McLean comments on the fact that the negro was tried by Judge A. M. Stack, with little opportunity given counsel to prepare their defense.

Kiwanis Clubs and the Farmer.
St. Paul, Miss., June 20.—In his first annual report to the international convention of Kiwanis Clubs, to be held in this city next week, Walter J. Campbell, chairman of the committee on agriculture created at the Denver convention last year, will tell of significant progress in the work of making Kiwanis clubs a constructive force for better agriculture and rural progress.

The designated purpose of the committee is "to study ways and means of working out a better understanding and closer relationship between the farmer and the city man." One of the means employed is that of extending Kiwanis membership among the farmers, so that they will have representation on equal footing with men in business and the professions. Backing the general committee are committees in each of the twenty-nine Kiwanis districts.

Forest Fires Cause Extensive Damage.
Asheville, June 19.—Fires in Western North Carolina forest during the present weather have destroyed approximately two million board feet of timber according to an estimate made Friday by A. C. Shaw, assistant supervisor of the Pisgah national forest.

Mrs. G. M. Stewart, England's famous woman motorcycle racer, competed on the Brookland track the other day, being the first woman to take part in a long-distance race there.

Fisher-Shaeffer.

Characterized by beauty and simplicity was the marriage of Miss Loula Belle Shaeffer to Mr. Arthur William Fisher, of Kannapolis, which took place on Wednesday at high noon at the country home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robert Lee Shaeffer, near Fincastle, Va.

For the ceremony, the lower floor of the home was thrown together and beautifully decorated with a profusion of pink roses and lilies. The vows were spoken before an improvised altar formed of palms and ferns intermingled with lilies. Cathedral candles cast a soft glow over the whole.

Prior to the ceremony, an appropriate musical program was rendered. Miss Queen Graeber, of Kannapolis, presided at the piano. Mr. Silas Smyre, of Newton, N. C., sang, "The World Is Waiting for the Sunrise," and Miss Lila Fisher, of Asheville, sang "Today," and "Beloved It Is Morn." Miss Blanche Smyre, of Newton, acted as accompanist for Miss Fisher and Mr. Smyre.

The bridal party was headed to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin. During the ceremony "Traumerel" was softly played. Mendelssohn's wedding march was used following the benediction, which was pronounced by Rev. M. L. Ridenhour, who officiated.

The bride entered the room with her sister, Mrs. Frank Thomason, of Salisbury, who acted as dame of honor. They were met at the altar by Mr. Fisher and his best men, Mr. A. G. Harris, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga.

Master Joseph Conrad Ridenhour, nephew of the bride, was the little ring bearer and carried the ring in a huge white rose.

For her wedding, the bride was charming in a pink gorgette trimmed with cream lace trimmings and orchid picture hat and accessories to match. Her corsage was of sweetheart roses and valley lilies.

Mrs. Thomason was becomingly gowned in pink gorgette trimmed with lace and wore a black picture hat. Her flowers were pink rosebuds.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served. The dining room was prettily arranged with quantities of roses and lilies.

The punch table which was placed in the east living room was presided over by Miss Margaret Smith, of Washington, D. C.

The bride's book was kept by Miss Elsie Nofsinger. Those assisting in entertaining the guests were: Mrs. M. L. Ridenhour, sister of the bride, of Kannapolis; Mrs. John Carpenter, cousin of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. K. L. Craven left this morning for Raleigh, where they will spend some time visiting their son, Henry Craven.

PEARL DRUG COMPANY

bride, of Maiden. Mrs. Ella Huffman, aunt of the bride.

During the afternoon, the couple left by motor for a wedding trip in the North. They will be at home after July 15th at Kannapolis.

Mrs. Fisher, who is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robert Lee Shaeffer, is a young woman of charming personality and counts her friends by her acquaintances. For the past three years she has been teaching at Kannapolis.

Mr. Fisher is the son of the late Mr. William Fisher and Mrs. Fisher, of Mt. Pleasant. Mr. Fisher is in the cotton mill business at Kannapolis. He is a graduate of Newberry College, Newberry, S. C.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Miss Margaret Smith, of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. John Carpenter, of Maiden, Miss Blanche Smyre, and Mr. Silas Smyre, of Newton, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Ridenhour, and Miss Queen Graeber, of Kannapolis, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. McElrath, of Decatur, Ala., Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Lucas, of Greensboro, and Mrs. A. G. Harris, Jr., of Atlanta, Ga., Mr. George M. Rose, of Charlotte, Misses Kathleen and Elizabeth Ridenhour, of Kannapolis, Miss Mary Evans Foll and Mrs. O. F. McEachern, of Mt. Pleasant, Miss Pearl L. Shaeffer, and Miss Christine Shaeffer, of Troutville, Va., Miss Lila Fisher, of Asheville, and Mrs. Aaron R. Tosh, of Roanoke, Va. The large number of handsome gifts attest the popularity of the young couple.

JEVETT BURNELLE HAS NOT YET BEEN CAUGHT

Woman Who Knocked Miss Irene McConnell Off Highway Made Good Her Escape.

Efforts at locating the woman who ran into Miss Irene McConnell's Chevrolet Friday on the Charlotte road failed, and the license number together with the warrant for arrest of the woman were turned over to Horace Moore, internal revenue agent, who was in the city yesterday. Mr. Moore said he would try to locate her at her home which was found to be Charlotte.

The accident occurred yesterday morning, the woman, who gave her name later as Jewett Burnelle, running into the rear of the Chevrolet and knocking it off the road into a ditch. None of the occupants of the car were injured but the car was badly damaged.

Miss Burnelle, after she had been brought back to the scene of the wreck, made her escape by declaring that she was coming to Concord to make settlement. She has not been heard from since by the local officers.

Four Suits Started Against Bus Lines.
Greensboro, June 18.—Four suits asking damages amounting to $11,600 were instituted in Guilford Superior Court here Wednesday against the Royal Blue Transportation Company, operating a bus line to and from Greensboro to several other points, as a result of an accident at the intersection of the High Point-Oak Ridge and Greensboro-Kernersville highways on April 4, 1925.

The plaintiffs are Robert S. Russell, who seeks $800 for damages to his car and medical bills; Mrs. Mabel M. Russell, $5,000 personal injuries; Albert Russell, by his next friend, Robert S. Russell, $1,000 personal injuries, and Sarah Frances Russell, by her next friend, Robert S. Russell, $5,000 personal injuries.

The complaints declare that the automobile of R. S. Russell was en route from High Point to Oak Ridge when the accident occurred and it is charged that the bus of the defendant company, driven by Boyd Samuels, was operated at an excessive rate of speed, this causing the collision.

Ocracoke Now Has 10 Cars.
Kinston, June 19.—Ocracoke island, last place in North Carolina if not in the country, to adopt the automobile, now has ten cars. "Big Ike" O'Neal, kinsman of "Cousin Sidney" O'Neal, the island's celebrated story-teller, Dallas Williams and William Gaskill have acquired motors. The percentage of cars now is about one to 65 inhabitants. First stivers were allowed on the island about a year ago. There have been no traffic accidents to speak of. Ocracoke's streets are lanes, its main street a creek.

The school board has been put aside for the spring-board.
