The regular weekly meeting of the Rotary Club will be held tomorrow at 12:30 o'clock. H. W. Blanks, chairman of the boys' work committee, will have charge of the program.

County Highway forces are now engaged in building roads in the Watts' Cross Roads section. The old Salisbury highway is now being reconstructed from the Cross roads to the Rowan county line.

The Carolina Motor Club issued 133 licenses here Monday and took in a total in fees of $1882 for the day. It is thought that the rush will continue until after the first of July.

The traffic sign at the square became jammed in some manner this morning and would operate only after an electrician had worked on it. The sign was not badly out of order, however, and was in operation again a few minutes after the electrician started his work.

"Nothing new to report," was the reply received at police headquarters this morning when officers were asked about business in their line. "No session of the police court was held Monday afternoon," an officer stated, "and nothing has developed of more than passing interest."

People in No. 9 township are delighted now that work has begun on St. Martin's hill, which for years has been a bugbear to travelers in that section. The hill, which is one of the worst in the county, is being cut down so that it will be only a gradual grade.

Washington cut Philadelphia's lead in the American League Monday by defeating Cleveland while St. Louis was winning from Philadelphia. At the same time Chicago defeated New York and Detroit defeated Boston. In the National League Chicago defeated Cincinnati and Pittsburgh defeated St. Louis.

In an effort to control foot traffic at the intersection of Union, Meigs and Barbrick streets, a pedestrian's path has been designated by white lines. "If persons will follow this route instead of cutting across this intersection in all directions, they will be safer and traffic will move more swiftly and more easily," a traffic officer of the city states.

The Hunkin-Conkey Co., which has the contract for the new hotel building here, plans to transfer a number of workmen to Concord from Greenville, S. C., next Monday. These men have been engaged on the Poinsett Hotel in Greenville for the past eleven months. The Poinsett is without doubt one of the handsomest and finest hotels in the South.

The sewer line for the new hotel building will be laid in Union street at once, the work of cutting the asphalt on the street preparatory to digging the sewer ditch, having been started this morning. The line has been laid on West Depot and the ditch has been dug on East Depot street. The ditch on Union street will connect the lines on East and West Depot streets.

Practically all of the local men who served with Battery F during the World War plan to go to Mooresville on Thursday of this week for a reunion. The battery had its headquarters in Mooresville when it was organized and for that reason the reunion will be held in that city. Plans are being made to get every member of the battery in the Iredell county town for the reunion.

Monday was probably the hottest day of many years in Concord, according to a number of persons who have expressed their opinion of the heat during the day. There are other persons, however, who think it was just as hot or hotter Sunday. Signs of rain have been in evidence throughout the day, as it has been cloudy since 6 o'clock this morning. Rain is badly needed throughout the county now.

We have been requested to state that the name of J. R. Dorton was included in the delinquent tax list by mistake. Two returns for Mr. Dorton were made out in some manner and although he paid his taxes some time ago his name was included because of the double return. "Mr. Dorton's name appeared by error," Sheriff Caldwell stated this morning, "and the same is true of several other persons. The double returns are responsible for the errors."

A white Brazilian tope that weighs ninety pounds has recently been placed in view in the Field Museum in Chicago. Lepidarians estimate that it would make at least one hundred thousand stanzas of one verse each.

The clothes that make the women are the clothes that break the men. Cost of a chicken dinner depends on how many chickens you invite. There is no excuse for a bachelor's being a good liar. Chairs last longer if tacks are placed upright in the seat. The good or bad thing about being in love is you can't drink. A man usually gets what he deserves in this world. That's the trouble with the world. Bessed are the bootleggers for they have inherited a large part of this earth. Wasn't it about this time of year when Rip Van Winkle went to sleep and slept twenty years? The differences which cause most trouble are indifference. All of the cures for sunburn are very good but none of them seem to be good enough. It's a wrong road that has no turning back. The skeleton in the average closet is in the bank book instead. A man who married one of the super sex last June thinks she is the supper sex now. Love thy neighbor, but be not too friendly with borrowing his goods. These are the days the boss gets mad when he finds things went along nicely while he was away fishing. Here and there you hear of a stream being dragged for some one who didn't think it was deep. Eight Billion Dollars a Year on Automobiles. The American people are now spending about $8,000,000,000 a year on the purchase and maintenance of automobiles. Of this amount $2,000,000,000 goes for new machines, and the remaining $6,000,000,000 for accessories, gasoline, tires, repairs, and garage charges. There are now in use in the United States 17,500,000 passenger cars and trucks, or one to every seven persons in the country. These facts are contained in a recent report just made public by the American committee on highway transport. The report, asserting that the wealth and resources of the country have increased by billions of dollars by reason of the motor car, brands the automobile and economic necessity. The report continues: "During the period of the advance of the motor car in America savings banks deposits have nearly doubled, individual bank deposits have tripled, and life insurance in force has increased two and a half times. The development of motor transportation also has revolutionized life on the farms, each year seeing many more cars and trucks in the country."

Bantam Rooster Becomes a "Mother!" Lexington Dispatch. Some fine chicks were hatched out this morning after a bantam rooster belonging to Mrs. Ernest Smith had sat upon the eggs for the required period of time and according to news from the chicken lot just before press time there is no prouder "mother" in Lexington. It may have been the heat, or it may have been the doings at Dayton, Tenn., that caused the little rooster to act that way, but several weeks ago he began to sit around on bricks. When he persisted, eggs were substituted and he stuck to the job until the reward came this morning. Pake Mr. Bryan! Pake Mr. Darrow!

The committee was aided by a representative of the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Education, and the code they propose has recently been completed.
