LOCAL MENTION

Ten pages today—two sections.

Miss Helen Stuart Brown is confined to her home on North Church street by illness.

The Odds Fellows singing class of the Children's Home at Goldsboro will give a concert here next Tuesday night at the high school auditorium.

Every child can get one of our beautiful infant dolls without a cent of money. Read the big page ad. and see how easy it is.

Miss Maggie Snyder will entertain the members of the Y. W. A. of the First Baptist Church Friday evening at eight o'clock at the home of Mrs. M. B. Sherman on South Union street.

Mrs. Scott Frieze underwent an operation for the removal of her tonsils in this city this morning. Early this afternoon she was reported as resting as comfortably as could be expected.

Yesterday's game in the City League between the Y. M. C. A. and the DeMoyley team resulted in a victory for the DeMoyley nine. The score of the game, which was a well-played one, was 3-1.

The condition of John McInnis, who turned his arm last week, is reported today as being rather serious. His injuries took a turn for the worse yesterday.

The three negroes from Statesville who are alleged to have broken open some gas tanks at a local filling station Monday night, will be given a hearing in police court this afternoon. The negroes are charged with malicious mischief and have been in the local jail since their arrest.

Fred R. Bost is improving nicely at the Concord Hospital following an operation for appendicitis there early in the week. Mr. Bost became so ill Sunday that his physician advised an immediate operation, and this was performed Monday.

Large numbers of persons continue to take the typhoid inoculation treatments at the Wednesday and Saturday clinics at the county building. On last Saturday there were over 100 new patients and it is expected that the crowd will be unusually large today.

Mrs. A. H. Propst returned Tuesday night from Charlotte, where she was called by the serious illness of her sister-in-law, Mrs. T. E. Cochran, of Newells, who was injured in an auto accident Sunday. She reports the condition of Mrs. Cochran as still critical.

June is called the "Bride's month," but it was a poor season for marriage licenses in this county. Records in the office of Register of Deeds Elliott show that only 13 permits to wed were issued during the month, while 23 such permits were issued during the unpropitious month of April.

One of the city fire trucks was called out yesterday afternoon to respond to a call on Buffalo street when a Highway Commission truck caught fire from the exhaust pipe. No serious damage resulted although the blaze was in a precarious position, just above the gasoline tank.

The choir of St. James Lutheran Church was heard in concert last night in Monroe at St. Luke's Church. A large and appreciative audience gathered to hear the local chorists. Before singing, the members of the choir enjoyed a picnic supper at Lake Tonawanda at Monroe.

Tuesday was a busy day for C. N. Fields, city tax collector. Quite a number of property owners called at his office during the day and paid taxes that had been overlooked. Mr. Fields had warned that property on which taxes had not been paid by July 1st would be advertised for sale.

Tuesday was the busiest day which the Carolina Motor Club here has yet experienced since starting the sale of 1925-26 licenses. The total number sold was 378 tags for a total amount of $5,060. Up to Tuesday the busiest day had been last Saturday when 358 were sold.

Capt. Norman Alston, commanding officer of Company E, is making final plans for Mobilization Day in Concord. The day will be observed here Saturday prior to the company's departure in the afternoon for Camp Glenn at Morehead City. The full plans for the day will be announced later.

Washington is leading the American League now, having defeated Philadelphia again Tuesday while Chicago was winning from St. Louis, Cleveland was winning from Detroit and New York from Boston. In the National League Boston defeated New York, Chicago defeated Pittsburgh and Philadelphia won from Brooklyn.

An elaborate lighting display was offered over the city during the night. While there were few sharp crashes here, the skies at times seemed aflame as the Thunder God played on his magic anvil that sends the lightning bolts earthward. From shortly after dusk until 4 o'clock this morning the spectacular display continued.

Piedmont and Northern Kills Spartanburg, June 29.—Joseph E. Gentry, prominent traveling man of this city, was instantly killed about 1:30 Monday afternoon near Taylor's, when his coupe was struck by an extra freight train on the Piedmont and Northern railway. Mr. Gentry's body was badly mangled, and the wreckage of the coupe was dragged several hundred feet by the train, according to messages received in Spartanburg from the scene of the accident.

Death of a Remarkable Woman.

Salisbury Post. Mrs. Mollie Fitzgerald, who died at Spencer the past week at the age of 84 years had a remarkable ministerial family connection. In her immediate family are four ministers and three of her daughters are the wives of ministers. It is doubtful if another woman in the state has furnished so many ministers.

She was the widow of the late Lieut. J. B. Fitzgerald, a well known Confederate veteran, who died fourteen years ago and had been in exceptionally good health all of her life until stricken with pneumonia two weeks ago. She was conscious to the last.

Mrs. Fitzgerald was also a remarkable woman in other respects, there being seven ministers in her family, either sons or sons-in-law. The minister include Rev. John H. Fitzgerald, formerly a well known foreign missionary and now pastor of a large Methodist church in Los Angeles, Calif.; Rev. J. B. Fitzgerald, of Crouse; Rev. J. W. Fitzgerald, of Welcome, Davidson county; Rev. O. P. Fitzgerald, of Selma; Rev. Grady Wilson, of Linwood; Rev. E. W. Downum, of Seattle Hill, and Rev. J. A. Sharpe, of Spencer, the last three being sons-in-law. Other sons surviving include C. F. and C. L. Fitzgerald, of Whitsett. Four daughters also survive, Mrs. J. A. Sharpe and Mrs. Cora Baxley, of Spencer; Mrs. D. Hope, of York, S. C. and Mrs. E. W. Downum, of Seattle Hill. There are also surviving 35 grandchildren and 35 great grandchildren.

Her body was brought to Wesley's Chapel, Davidson county, for interment.
