LOCAL MENTION

The weekly meeting of the Concord Kiwanis Club will be held at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow at 12:30 o'clock.

Every child should have one of The Tribune's beautiful infant dolls—it's easy to get one.

Frank Mund, city building inspector, reports that he issued fourteen building permits during June, work to be done under the permits totalling $14,340.

Mrs. L. D. Coltrane, Jr., has been taken to the Charlotte Sanatorium, where she will remain for treatment for some time.

Rev. E. F. K. Roof, pastor of Center Grove E. L. Church, will preach at 8 o'clock Friday evening a sermon preparatory to the Holy Communion on next Sunday. All are cordially invited to these services.

Peaches in the county are in very good condition, declared R. D. Goodman this morning, especially so where they have been sprayed. They are remaining on the trees till ripe and are showing very little signs of rotting.

A tent meeting will begin tonight on Fink street, services to be held daily at 7:30 p. m. Preaching will be done by Rev. F. M. Wilson and Rev. P. J. Parks, and the general public is invited to the services.

During last Saturday and the first days of this week, eighty-five persons paid their city taxes to C. N. Field. "There are about 100 persons who have not yet paid their taxes," Mr. Field states, "and their property will be advertised unless they pay immediately."

Union services for a number of the "down-town" churches will begin next Sunday night when Dr. J. C. Rowan, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will preach at the Roof Garden at Central Methodist Church. These services will continue throughout the month of July.

Two games will be played in the city league this afternoon. The Pythians take on the Y. M. C. A. at the High School diamond and the Calvary Lutherans play the DeMolays. Up to the present the Pythians have not been beaten in the city league.

The pavement in front of the new hotel is being broken up and removed preparatory to lowering the sidewalk nearer the street level. The sidewalk was laid before the street was paved at this point and has always been much higher than the street.

Quite a number of cotton mills in the county are standing for the remainder of the week for their annual Fourth of July holidays. Work in the mills was finished for the week last night and will not be resumed until Monday morning. The mills usually observe holidays for several days for the Fourth.

The Charlotte All-Stars under the direction of Joe Westledge, who had a tryout with the Chicago White Sox this year, will play at Kannapolis this afternoon. The Charlotte team is claiming the championship of North and South Carolina this year and the game should be a good one.

New York is leading the National League again by defeating Philadelphia twice yesterday while Pittsburgh was winning from Chicago, and Brooklyn was winning from Boston. In the American League New York defeated Boston, Cleveland and Detroit divided two games and St. Louis defeated Chicago.

The aldermen will meet at the city hall tonight at 8 o'clock for their regular July meeting. Several street matters, in addition to another question in regard to widening East Depot Street, will be presented to the board members at the meeting. The meeting is expected to attract a large audience.

The square, which was partially covered with dirt while the sewer line for the new hotel was being laid, was given a fine bath this morning. Water from two hydrants near the square was turned on in great force by the men engaged on the work and much of the dirt and trash which had collected was swept into the drain pipes.

A Fourth of July celebration will be held by colored citizens of the city at the fair grounds on Monday of next week. Many features will be offered during the day and the celebration will come to a close at night when fire works will be shown. It is planned to make the day one of unusual interest for those in attendance.

Wednesday's Salisbury Post: "Mrs. J. F. Hurley has as her charming guests Miss Virginia Reed, Miss Annie Cannon and Miss Miriam Coltrane, of Concord, visiting Mrs. Hurley and Miss Elle Hardeman, of Charlotte, at a dance given this evening by Mrs. Hurley and Mrs. Egan. They will be in the city for several days and will be the center of a number of delightful entertainments."

Prof. J. B. Robertson went to the Moore school, in No. 6 township, this morning to see about a well being dug for the school. "It is the policy of the board of education to provide wells at each school where it is possible to do so," Prof. Robertson explained, adding that during the past several years a number of wells have been dug at various schools in the county.

Two of the Statesville negroes charged with malicious mischief for breaking open a gasoline tank at a filling station here were fined $15 in police court yesterday and judgment was suspended against the other. Another defendant, charged with having liquor, was sentenced to serve thirty days in jail, capias not to issue upon payment of costs and good behavior for one year.

Chicago woman bit a cop, but ours are not good to eat. Men are becoming so effeminate One elapped a St. Louis motorman. Violins are dangerous. Dallas, Texas, man won a wife with one. "Truth is stranger than fiction" is a well-used saying, and perhaps it is not generally known that it was originally employed by Bryon in his "Don Juan."

COME TO COVINGTON'S

Colonel Pitt Covington spent yesterday forenoon in Charlotte canvassing the business situation over there with an eye for location. However, that is far in the future. In the meantime the original Come to Covington's Store is better prepared than ever before for showing, selling or giving goods away. "You Know Me All" Come to Covington's. COVINGTON'S P. S.—I have a lot of private papers of the late Aaron J. Bost. Anyone interested is invited to call and get them.
