GIBSON MILL TEAM TO CHANGE LINE-UP SATURDAY

Young Has Been Released to Make Room For Al Johnson, State College Football and Baseball Star.

Thursday's sorry exhibition may result in a shake-up of the Gibson Mill team. It is conceded that never before have the locals played so poorly and steps are being taken by Manager Basinger to strengthen his weak points.

Young, who has played second base for the last two games, will go. This was definitely decided Thursday night. There was some hesitation because of the fact that he is the best batter Gibson has had hold of in many a day. In the last three games here, he has made six hits in seven trips to the plate, which is phenomenal batting. Two of the six hits have been home runs.

However, Young can't play second base. His most ardent admirer, admiring that since he admitted that he could not play outfield, there was nothing to do but to let him go.

Smith and Haney will probably retain their old positions. Both are seasoned outfielders and it was evident that both were experiencing an off day Thursday.

By way of strengthening the team, Al Johnson, State College star, will be used here, either at second or third. Johnson is an excellent left fielder and is good at the bat. His addition to the team should help.

Simmons will pitch against Kannapolis Saturday with Herman Holshouser, Carolina ace, occupying the mound against Gibson. These two first-rate collegiate hurlers should do some pretty tossing and should make a very worthwhile game.

A PICTURE IN TUNE WITH THE TIMES

Constance Binney Stars in "Three O'Clock in the Morning," Thirteenth Feature at the Concord Theatre.

By the Press Agent.

"A picture in tune with the times," aptly describes "Three O'Clock in the Morning," the entertaining screen-play at the Concord Theatre. In this C. C. Burr production, starring charming Constance Binney, life today is shown in its gay and sombre actualities. There are delightful home scenes, with those sparkling players, Mary Carr and Edmund Breece, in the role of Miss Binney's screen parents. Before the home fireside some of the best scenes take place.

The right jolly side of life today is also shown in all its brilliancy and thrill. The star and her gay companions participate in many gay festivities in beautiful settings. The "Mirror Mosaic" setting used for the Cafe Rotonde was especially designed by an effect-man brought on from California for this picture. In this glittering scene, Miss Binney executes one of the dance solos for which she is famous, both on the stage and screen. These scenes reveal the dance in all its beauty, as Miss Binney has made a study of dancing for the screen and directed the scenes herself.

"Three O'Clock in the Morning" is the star's first American picture in sometime, as she spent several months in British studios. Her English-made picture was shown on American screens, but was not as charming for Constance Binney in a picture made in her native land, such as those which gained her stardom in the cinema. Perhaps you remember "The Stolen Kiss" and "30 East," and the others.

Miss Binney's leading man in her latest screen effort is Richard Thorpe, a player of great promise. In addition to his excellent acting in the dramatic and love scenes, Thorpe provides one of the thrills of the picture. He actually leaped from the upper deck of an ocean liner off the Statue of Liberty in New York harbor and swam ashore.

Mary Carr and Edmund Breece, who play the parents of Miss Binney, need no introduction. Both of these stellar artists have long lists of stage and screen roles to their respective credits.

PROHIBIT PARKING ON PART OF UNION STREET

New Rule Necessitated by Work That Will Start Soon on New Hotel Building.

On and after July 20th no parking will be allowed on the west side of Union street from the entrance to the Cannon building to the square, under an order just issued by the police department. In making public the order Chief Talbirt pointed out that such parking would interfere with work on the hotel and would tend to interfere with traffic.

"The street at this point is none too wide when it is entirely open," Chief Talbirt pointed out, "and when work on the hotel starts part of the street will have to be used. That will mean the street will be made much narrower, and therefore more dangerous. For this reason parking will not be permitted on the west side of the street from the entrance to the Cannon building to the square."

At the Theatre.

William Desmond in "The Burning Trail" and a Century comedy, "Harem Follies," are the features being shown today and tomorrow at the Pastime.

Constance Binney in "Three O'Clock in the Morning" and a comedy, "Handle 'Em Rough," will be at the Concord Theatre today. Kalam's Hawaiian group will be at the Concord Theatre today and tomorrow.

Florence Vidor and Edward Everett Horton in "Marry Me," and a comedy are at the Star today.

LIST OF DEATHS FROM HEAT GROWING LARGER

However, Wave is Broken in New York By Thunderstorm. Middle West Suffers.

New York, July 9.—While breezes and showers brought relief today from the torrid temperatures which have gripped the city since Monday, three deaths occurred from the heat, bringing the total since the heat wave began to four deaths and nine prostrations.

Tomorrow, it was predicted, will be fair and warmer. Both the temperature and the humidity fluctuated erratically today, and while the high mark of the mercury was 80 degrees, the humidity, which reached a maximum of 93, in some measure counter-acted the effect of the cooler weather.

The National Association of Amateur Carismen was organized at a meeting held in New York City, August 29, 1872.

The company arrived in Morehead City early last Sunday, and immediately pitched camp. They had practically the entire day to get their camp in order and thus avoided much of the confusion that has marked the first night and day in camp in former years when arrival at camp was made after dark.

The men have been kept busy during the mornings and early afternoons with drill and study periods, according to reports sent back to relatives, but they also have found time for dips in the sound and other recreations.

The company will be in camp fifteen days, dating from last Sunday.

Funeral of Stone Baby.

The funeral of Robert Stone, Jr., the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Stone, of Columbia, S. C., was held Thursday morning at 9:30 at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Stone, on the Kannapolis Road. Mrs. Stone had been spending some time visiting relatives when the baby became sick.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. T. E. Higgins, pastor of Forest Hill Methodist Church, assisted by Rev. R. S. Atwood, of McKinnon Presbyterian Church. Selections were rendered by members of the choir of both churches. Pall bearers were John Fink, Frank Smith, Garrel Denny, S. O. Stone, Jr., Charles Phillips and Beatrix Crooks. Flower girls were Edith Denny, Pearl Fink, Mary Welker Crooks, Lois and Grace Phillips, Sara Crooks, Robert King Smith, Mary Allen Litaker and Lillian Smith.

The floral designs were many and beautiful showing the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Stone are held. Among the designs was a beautiful spray of gladiolus from the grade roll of Main Street Methodist Church, Columbia, S. C.

Telegrams of sympathy from Columbia, Charlotte and other places were received by the bereaved parents.

Interment was made at Oakwood cemetery.

Dearest baby thou hast left us,
And thy loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God that has bereft us,
He will all our sorrows heal.
His many friends deeply sympathize
With these young parents in this sad bereavement.

Nearly every town of any size now has its swimming pool, and probably no other form of recreation has grown so rapidly in popularity these last five years. Here again there is no reason why country people should not make greater use of a natural country sport. More families might well do what two or three families of kinpeople whom we know have done. They have built a couple of bathhouses, one for the men and one for the women, on the river's edge, and often go there during the week-ends, with their bathing suits, and have more fun than any similar group of townspeople have at their extensively built "swimming pools."
