IN AND ABOUT THE CITY

EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN IS BEING CONDUCTED BY CO-OPERS

H. H. B. Mask Spoke to Hartsell Audience Monday Night on Business Advantages of Association. H. H. B. Mask, director of the field service of the North Carolina Co-operative Cotton Growers' Association, who is in Cabarrus County this week conducting an educational campaign in the interest of the Association, spoke before a large audience Monday night at Hartsell.

The gold pencil, given by the Citizens Bank and Trust Co. for the boy or girl who brought the greatest number of persons to the meeting was won by Claudia Nesbit. Music was furnished for the occasion by the Wiseoff String Band and was greatly enjoyed by the audience.

Mr. Mask, in his speech, took as his theme the question "Is the Cotton Growers' Association a Safe Association From a Business Standpoint?" He analyzed the co-operative form of business as compared to the corporate form of business.

The latter was shown to be less democratic and more autocratic than was the former. In the co-operative form of business, no group of men can control the business.

From the standpoint of the commodity, said Mr. Mask, in the corporate form of business, the object is to get dividends for the firm while in the co-operative business, the object is to get a price for the commodity and to try by price marketing to have a greater bargaining power.

The advantages of a business like this, he said, are as follows: The Association acts as insurance against fluctuations and guarantees a price that individuals cannot get. The object is to move cotton on the market as there is a demand, which stabilizes the price. At the same time, the Association holds to a basic price at the highest possible price on the market.

This saves for the farmer, also, the loss which regularly goes into samples and saves him loss from handling it. Another advantage, Mr. Mask pointed out, was that the farmer had better warehouse facilities and better transfer facilities in the Co-operative Marketing than he did under the old system. In conclusion, Mr. Mask declared that the co-operative type of business was the highest form of business organization today. It offered more protection to the stockholders and less liability than any other form. More restrictions were thrown around the management than in any other business.

Mr. Mask will speak at Pitts schoolhouse tonight and will, during the remainder of the week make addresses at various points in the county.

CAMBARRUS CASH GROCERY MOVING TO NEW QUARTERS

Occupying Building Just Completed on Church Street—Has Two Floors For Use.

The Cabarrus Cash Grocery Company, O. A. Swearingen, manager, is moving today to its new quarters on Church Street in the new building constructed by E. F. White and W. W. Morris. The new place is much larger than the old and will give a less cramped room.

The floor which opens on the street will be used for the lighter groceries while the ground floor, which is below the street level, will be used for the heavy groceries and feeds.

In constructing the building, the bricks which were salvaged from the Concord National Bank when it was razed were used. This building is one of a number of new ones which have gone up on Church Street since the street was widened.

NO BASEBALL GAME HERE THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Winston-Salem Will Come to City For a Game Saturday—Kannapolis Couldn't Play This Week.

Baseball fans will be disappointed to learn that no game will be played here Thursday afternoon of this week. It had been hoped that Kannapolis, opponent in two games last week, would be here for a contest.

All efforts to get the team here from North Cabarrus failed and the next game on tap for local fans to see will be the game Saturday between Gibson and Winston-Salem.

No announcement as to the line-up for Saturday's game has been made. It is likely that practically the same personnel that has been appearing for Gibson will be seen Saturday.

St. James Church Has Largest Number of Communicants in History

Notwithstanding the fact that Sunday was one of the hottest days of the summer the Communion was administered to the largest number of people at St. James Lutheran Church that has ever been recorded. The attendance through the summer has been unusually good at both the morning and evening services. The evening services will be discontinued during the rest of July and August.

The Lutheran League has recently been reorganized and will assist more in the services and work of the church.

Rail Standard of Southern Enlarged

Announcement is made by the Southern Railway System that 30-foot rail has been adopted as the standard for future use, replacing the 33-foot length which has been the standard for many years.

Advantages of the longer rail are said to include smoother and safer track as well as economies in laying rail and in maintenance. As is well known, the weak spot in all railway track is the joint. By substituting the 30-foot for 33-foot rail, the number of joints in a mile of track is reduced from 320 to 271, a net saving of 49 joints per mile.

Widow's Barn Destroyed by Fire

Five early Monday morning destroyed a barn on the farm of Mrs. A. L. Hatley, who lives near Post Mill, the origin of the fire being unknown. In addition to the building two good horses were burned along with sixty bushels of wheat, a wheat drill, several wagons, a plow and much roughness.

Mrs. Hatley is a widow with eight children to support and friends plan to render such aid as they can.

COMMISSIONERS FIX TAX RATE FOR COMING YEAR

Rate Will Be $1.10 Increase for Most Part to Go to Schools and Roads—Other Business Before Board.

Members of the board of county commissioners in special session at the court house Monday heard complaints relative to tax levies, selected a county welfare officer and fixed the tax rate for the year, the meeting proving one of the most important of the present year.

The tax rate was fixed at $1.10, the money to be divided as follows: County schools, 35 cents. County taxes, 15 cents. Road taxes, 25 cents. Sinking fund, 15 cents.

J. H. Brown, who has served for several years as welfare officer of the county, was the unanimous choice of the commissioners and the school commissioners, who met jointly with the county board for the purpose of naming the welfare officer. Mr. Brown's work was highly commended at the meeting.

Only one person had a tax levy complaint to make to the board, this being the tax on a cotton mill in the county. Adjustment of the differences in all probability will be made in the case.

In connection with the discussion of the tax rate for the year, it was pointed out that the increase was made necessary by demands for better roads and schools. Ten cents of the increase, it was shown, will go to the county schools, and one cent increase will go for roads.

The commissioners have been swamped with petitions and requests of all kinds for better roads and better teachers, it was stated at the meeting, and these requests could be granted only by increasing the tax rate. In addition, the school commissioners of the county fix the amount of money they have to have, and the county commissioners, under the law, must make the tax rate high enough to raise this money.

The commissioners also took action relative to special license taxes to be paid under the Revenue Act of 1925. The licenses in the county in most instances will be at the same as the State licenses.

The board agreed that contractors doing from $10,000 to $100,000 worth of business should pay to the county a tax of $50, and those doing business in excess of $100,000 shall pay a tax of $100. The State taxes for contractors is $250 and $500.

DIGGING AT NEW HOTEL HAS BEEN COMPLETED

Work Is to Be Commenced at Once Laying Foundations of Building—Reed Building Torn Down.

Digging on the excavations for the new Hotel and Bank building have been completed and work will begin immediately laying the foundations for the structure.

The gasoline shovel completed its work Monday afternoon and soon afterward it was sent to Charlotte. Workmen have been engaged today hauling machinery from the Depot to the hotel property where it will be used as soon as it can be set up.

The part of the Reed building recently purchased from the Reed heirs is being torn down today. This is to give the first additional feet where the street is to be widened at Depot street.

It is very likely, according to the men engaged in the work, that the frame of the building and the roof will be completed by the first of September. The entire building is contracted to be finished in nine months.

HOW OLD IS A GOLFER?

Sousa, Past 70, Says He Is Too Young For Game.

John Philip Sousa, veteran composer and bandmaster, now past seventy years old, was quoted by William Cross, of Middletown, N. Y., after being his guest yesterday, as saying he isn't old enough to play golf yet.

"I'll start playing golf when I can't do anything else," said Mr. Sousa. "Mr. Sousa left Mr. Cross' home for Norwich, N. Y., to keep a concert engagement."

Faculty Upholds Jimison Acquittal. Excitement caused at Wake Forest by the arrest of Tom P. Jimison and others of the Wake Forest law school on a liquor charge, was abated somewhat when it was found that the faculty had decided to uphold the action taken by Judge P. H. Wilson, of the recorder's court, who completely exonerated Jimison. No action will be taken by the faculty against any of the students implicated in the charge and all parties who appeared before the recorder will be allowed to continue their class.

Can't Make a "Monkey" Out of Him. To the New York Herald-Tribune: In these "evolutionary" times it is interesting to quote a few lines by John Kendrick Banks. They are:

Whatever my forbears may have been, Ape, insect, bird, fish, fowl or fin, I am myself, and, rain or shine, Intend to fill the place that's mine. Say what you will, prove what you can, About the origin of man, No line of monkey ancestry Can make a monkey out of me.
