DIXON TREATS SCOPES TRIAL IN LIGHT VEIN

If Taken Seriously It Would Be Disgrace to United States, He Declares. Raleigh, July 13.—Thomas Dixon's statement today that evolution has nothing to do with religion recalls to local observers of religious phenomena the radical difference between the North Carolina playwright and novelist and his senior brother, Asa, Clarence's Dixon, prince of the fundamentalists.

Clarence Dixon died a few days ago. The Baltimore Sun, in the city where the big North Carolinian preacher, paid tribute to the senior Dixon as a great fighter and a faithful believer in what he professed. Only a few days before Clarence Dixon died, Frank Dixon suddenly passed. The two tragic events brought the old Shelby boys back to North Carolina. Tom Dixon today talked to the Raleigh Times reporter and got out before the morning papers found that he was here. Everybody knew that he would be amused at the Dayton business. He said so and The Times quotes him.

"The attempt on Mr. Bryan's part to fix a standard for ignorance for our country is, to say the least, amusing," said Mr. Dixon. "If the situation were taken seriously," he added, "it would be a disgrace to the United States."

"My personal view is that evolution has nothing whatever to do with religion, any more than astronomy or geology. If we stop teaching evolution, then let's stop teaching astronomy and geology."

"Evolution is nothing more nor less than a scientific hypothesis as to how God created man in his own image. It makes no difference whether it took him ten million years or whether he took some mud and a trowel and made man and then set him up by a fence to dry in the sun."

Hundred Injured in Rioting at Glasgow, Glasgow, Scotland, July 12.—More than a hundred persons were injured and fifty arrests were made in four riots late last night, the disturbances growing out of a demonstration in commemoration of the battle of the Borne.

Fifty thousand Strangemen participated in a parade which near midnight was attacked by opposing factions. Batches and missiles of all kinds were thrown indiscriminately, the riots continuing until large forces of police separated and dispersed the combatants.

Stewart's Washington Letter

Washington, July 13.—Representative Alfalfa Bill Murray lives for...

It isn't the mildness in itself that he likes. The job of taming it is what he gets his fun out of.

Having done so, he's ready to move on to a new one. Just as he moved on from Oklahoma to Bolivia, when the former got too civilized for him.

"Nowhere else in the world," said Bill to himself, "are there such pioneers as back in the states, where I came from. Gosh! I remember 'em in the old days. How they'll jump at a chance to get back to 'em!"

He propagandized accordingly. He offered extremely favorable terms to the land-hungry, for it was recruits he wanted rather than their money.

He made pioneering sound biomed romantic. He described the country as a cross between a garden of paradise and a storehouse of riches, which was "true enough, but Bill rather slighted the detail that settlers would have to start from scratch on the task of developing the resources he was bragging about.

Probably he took it for granted that as experienced frontiersmen, they'd have sense enough to know that without having it diagramed.

What Bill forgot was that the old-timers he had in mind were either dead or mostly too old to make fresh starts in a new country. He just happened to be an exception.

He got colonists all right, but they were the old hard-shells' sons and grandsons—two entirely different and progressively softer generations. A look at Bill's wilderness scared 'em.

Women's Shoes of Lizard Skin Become Popular in London

London, July 13.—Lizard farming in England has been greatly stimulated within the last few months since the skins for women's shoes have become fashionable. Lizard shoes for street wear have become very popular in London this summer and lizard slippers for evening wear have been quite the fad for some weeks.

Dealers say lizard skin shoes are here to stay as the material is serviceable and comfortable and not nearly so expensive as is usual when a new idea is introduced. Lizard skin shoes retail here at from $15 up.

Never seem to be more clever than your neighbor. He will set you down as a conceited ass. But discover his talents and he will praise your discrimination.

Werner Bros. May Invade Europe

Every indication points toward Werner Bros. extending their theatre building activities to foreign countries, according to an announcement from the Warner New York office this week.

Albert Warner has called for Europe for a survey of theatrical properties in foreign cities, and from what he reports after a four months' trip through England and continental cities, Warner Bros. will decide whether to enter the foreign theatre field at the same time they are getting under way their first-run theatres in this country.

Fifty-six days have been allotted for the Fall racing season in Kentucky, opening at Latonia September 12th and closing at Lexington November 21st.
