Washington Letter

BY CHARLES P. STEWART

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The United States senate next year will be over the bodies of all college administration supporters in general, of course, including the body of Senator George Wharton Pepper, whose seat Pinchot wants to take away from him, and over the body of Secretary of the Treasury Andrew Mellon in particular.

When one considers how tremendously big a man Secretary Mellon is in the present administration, what weight his word carries, and the things Pinchot has said about him, it is not surprising that some ringing words over his head upon the presidential dome itself, and when one considers that Pinchot is trying to get into the senate from Mellon's own state, and at the expense of Senator Pepper, whom the administration likes pretty well.

SECRETARY MELLON can't want Pinchot for governor of Pennsylvania for the first place. The Republican state organization fought him but he won.

PINCHOT didn't even concede that the administration "meant well." He said Secretary Mellon didn't want to enforce the law.

Appreciates What Papers Are Doing. Hechtman Dispatch.

The co-operative advertising which Southern newspapers are giving to the North and the Middle West about the great advantages and wonderful opportunities to be had in this section of the country.

The North Carolina page is headed, "North Carolina a Dream Come True." It has already run in a number of states, and the advertisements of several of the other states have been used in North Carolina.

The letter is signed by C. O. Keuster, vice president and business manager.

Things Down About Durham Way, Durham County Progress.

For the past several weeks dark rumors have been going the rounds in Durham. It is said that somebody said that somebody else said that one of the city officials got gloriously drunk one afternoon and evening, drove up in front of his home, cut numerous capers with his car, finally dismounted and interned on his front porch for quite several minutes where he alarmed the neighborhood with his groans and moans and al-legically drunken antics. The city manager wrote a letter to each member of the city council requesting that if any member of the council had heard of the rumor or knew of any facts relative to this case, that they be placed before him and action would be taken.

And it is due those city officials who have not been charged with having acted improperly to let the public know all about this alleged incident. If there was no foundation for the rumor, this fact should be proven.

WILL ROGERS IS STRONG FOR HIMSELF FOR GOVERNOR

Says He Hasn't Voted in Oklahoma for Years, But Will Go Home and Vote for Rogers.

Bartlesville, Okla., July 14.—Will Rogers, Broadway cowboy actor, says he has not voted in Oklahoma for years, but that he will be glad to come back and vote for himself if he is entered next year in the race for governor.

In a telegram today to J. S. Leach, editor of The Bartlesville Enterprise, referring to a report that he was being "boomed" for governor, Rogers said: "I haven't voted in Oklahoma for years because you never had the right man up-for-me to vote for. But me up for governor and see how quick I'll come home and vote for myself. That's what I've been doing for years, and I'll do it today. If any campaign funds have been raised, kindly send some on now. I have two Democrats here in New York I can bring out with me. Yours for a better governor's mansion."

Hobson's choice is so called in allusion to the practice of Thomas Hobson (1581), of Cambridge, England, who let horses, and required every customer to take the horse which stood nearest the door.

Angus W. McLean for President of the United States of America, Durham County Progress.

Certainly Governor McLean has turned things upside down at the state capital since taking over the reins of state government. He told the people of this state during his pre-election campaign that, if elected, he would install a business regime at the state capital and he has done this.
