IN AND ABOUT THE CITY

CONCORD-CHARLOTTE HIGHWAY IS BUSIEST IN CABARRUS

Figures for Traffic For July Given Out by Highway Engineer—Motorists Have Least Traffic.

Figures compiled by the State Highway Department in Concord for traffic on the Cabarrus County roads, give the Charlotte-Concord highway as the busiest in the county. A total of 2551 vehicles used this road as compared to a total of 1710 using the Concord-Salisbury road, which was the next busiest.

These statistics were compiled on Thursday, July 9th, a man being stationed at each of six places in the county. He began taking count at 7 o'clock in the morning and continued until 7 o'clock that evening.

The least used state highway in Cabarrus County was the Monroe-Concord road which had only 330 vehicles on it.

The following are the figures as given by Louis Peck, resident engineer for the state highway in Concord:

Concord-Charlotte Highway, at city limits of Concord 2551.

Concord-Charlotte Highway, at Harrisburg 1032.

Concord-Salisbury Highway, at city limits of Concord 1710.

Concord-Albemarle Highway, at city limits of Concord, 842.

Concord-Albemarle Highway, at Mt. Pleasant, 538.

Concord-Monroe Highway, at Concord, 330.

SOCIETY DANCES WHILE ACTORS WORK

Motion Picture Company Furnishes the Music.

By the Press Agent.

An impromptu dancing party was held on the porch of a house adjoining the home of an Eastern capitalist from whom Vitaphone obtained permission to "shoot" the night sequence of the exterior of the Marley residence for "My Man," which will be shown at the Concord Theatre today.

The services of the Capital City Music orchestra were obtained as that which sledge is supposed to have engaged to serenade Molly Marley. As the orchestra, picturesque in its native Mexican costume, swung into the richness of a Mexican waltz, a group of young people skipped out of the neighboring house, and, after listening a moment, were captivated by the melody. Couples were formed, instinctively, and in a few moments a dance was in full progress, which continued until after midnight.

When the orchestra left the "set" a hearty round of applause broke out from the assemblage; and a number of feminine voices earnestly pleaded with them to come again for a return engagement.

FAMILIAR FACES TO BE SEEN AT GIBSON AGAIN

Southside Team From Winston Comes to Concord for Second Engagement of the Season.

Many will be the familiar faces to be seen once again on the Gibson Park Saturday afternoon to engage in a tilt with the Southside team from Winston-Salem. After last week's orgy of strange and unusual plays, it will be a pleasure to view the customary changes at their customary places making their customary plays in their customary way.

Yes, everybody will be glad to see the line-up back as it was in the days of yore.

The only new player, and he really isn't so new any more, is Clemmer, who played last week for the locals and who will play back-stop for the locals tomorrow. Clemmer is good. He comes from Stanley Creek in Gaston county and has played for two seasons for Lenoir-Rhyne College where he was one of the best.

He has shown that he can play baseball in his two appearances here, his home run last Saturday assisting the locals materially.

Stannous, the old standby, will do the hurling. Once before he held the Winston team to six hits and in all likelihood he will do better this week as he has been going mighty good here of late.

Tommy Harris is to flash around first base. Andrews is to be used at second. Hayes is at short and Eastinger at third. In the outfield, Watts appears in left, Smith in center and Harty in right.

The game will likely be a tight one. On the last appearance of the Winston team, the Gibson nine nosed them out by a 2-1 decision when Watts made a home run with one on in the ninth. However, who was then pitching for them, has since gone to the Winston team in the Piedmont League. It is not considered probable that any other pitcher can hold the locals to five hits as did Clie on that memorable occasion.

The game is to be called at 4 o'clock.

Fortunate Piedmont.

The Uplift.

"I guess J. B. Duke will spend the balance of his life like many of us—a poor man." This was the declaration of a grocer, who had wasted in riotous living his goodly inheritance, when Mr. Duke established a foundation of mercy to the tune of forty million of dollars. The grocer did not know this man. This North Carolina genius is the architect of his own fortune and he is spending it in such a way as to bless the world.

It was announced that Mr. Duke is preparing to extend his electric railway from Piedmont and Northern to Winston-Salem, touching Concord, Kannapolis, China Grove, Salisbury, Spencer, Lexington. He is not asking for subscriptions. He simply wants the cordiality of the towns which his road will touch. He's got that already.

Piedmont North Carolina has reasons for great joy that this wonderful and fatigued builder is in our midst. He is literally transforming this whole section by the utilities his genius and power are making possible. This is a kind of revolution that has basis and is not foolish. Long may his power be continued in the splendid developments that prosper on his wise guidance.

Nothing better could happen to Piedmont Carolina unless it be that we could enjoy the presence and activity of two J. B. Dukes.

IMPORTANT MEETING OF LEGIONNAIRES TONIGHT

Meeting Will Be Held in Post's Club Rooms at 8 O'clock—All Members Are Urged to Attend.

What is described by officers of the post as one of the most important meetings of the year will be staged tonight by the Fred E. McConnell, post of the American Legion. The meeting will be held in the post's club rooms at 8 o'clock.

"Several matters of unusual interest and importance will be discussed and probably acted upon at the meeting," said Van Waiser, adjutant of the post, "and for that reason we are anxious to have every member of the post present."

L. C. Yow Kills Himself at First Wife's Grave.

Lonnie C. Yow, of Stanfield, aged 25, was found yesterday morning about 5 o'clock with his head lying on the grave of his dead wife, and a gunshot wound through his heart. Judicious point to suicide, under investigations made by Coroner T. Finch Morgan.

Yow was married to Letha Hartwell just a few days ago. Circumstances bringing about the marriage were such that Yow is alleged to have been forced into a marital contract, to which he was an unwilling party and a victim. He protested his innocence of things charged against him, and close acquaintances say that this is back of the suicide act.

The coroner's jury rendered a verdict that the deceased came to his death from a gun shot fired by his own hand.

The young man's father is quoted as saying that when officers served papers on his son Monday and forced him into the marriage without hearing or chance to give bond or even defend himself that his son got mad. And the father thinks this is the cause of the suicide.

The Stanfield correspondent of The Tribune and Times sends the following account of the suicide:

Alonzo Yow, who lived with his father, E. M. Yow, near Lenoir's Grove Church, committed suicide Wednesday morning by shooting himself through the heart by his wife's grave at that place. He lived only a few moments. The home is only a short distance from the graveyard and his father heard the shot and not finding his son in the house he rushed to the graveyard to find him breathing his last and his body lying across his wife's grave. He had married another woman on Monday before he killed himself. It seems that he was in great trouble and his mind had become unbalanced.

His family are heartbroken and it was a heart-rending scene to see his little twenty-months-old son call for his daddy. Lon had many friends who are grieved over his death.

Rev. Ridehour conducted the funeral services and his body was laid beside that of his wife.

TEN COMMANDMENTS WILL BE SHOWN HERE TOMORROW

Special Showing of Great Picture at the Star Theatre Tomorrow Morning at 8:45 O'clock.

R. W. Means, owner of the Star Theatre, has asked a number of persons of the city to attend a special showing of "Ten Commandments" at his theatre tomorrow morning, those invited to be the guests of the management.

All city officials and their wives, ministers and their wives, Sunday school teachers and superintendents, and their wives and a few other persons are included among the guests invited for the special showing of the picture which is said to be one of the most elaborate ever screened.

The picture will be shown on the regular program at the theatre beginning Monday.

Due to the fact that it requires about three hours for the showing of the picture, Mr. Means will begin his special matinee at 8:45 o'clock tomorrow morning so those present can return to their homes by noon.

Have Mr. Duke Extend Electric Line to Albemarle.

Charlotte as a trade center for a fine section of Piedmont North Carolina is an ideal aim to work for.

Mr. Duke proposes to extend his electric car line from Charlotte to Winston. Albemarle is not in line, but a branch line from Concord to Albemarle and Radin would be a strong feeder to the main line, and contribute much towards developing Charlotte as a trade center for this section.

It is necessary for a section like this to have a central point. A basis of trade would naturally be worked out to the mutual interest of Charlotte and each of her smaller town patrons.

Mr. Pleasant needs an outlet, and Radin would prove as large a patron as any point yet proposed. Adding these to Albemarle, we see many inducements for Mr. Duke to extend his service into this territory.

There is much else that could be said upon this point; but just now we only throw out the suggestion. We hope that the matter will be brought forcibly to the attention of Mr. Duke, and urge Charlotte to take up this idea as a talking-point towards bringing about a very satisfactory situation which would be to the interest of all concerned.

No Right-of-Way Troubles.

Charlotte Observer.

Mr. J. K. Wolfe is a farmer running a farm merchandising business in Charlotte. He lives in town and works in the country, having interests in both Mecklenburg and Cabarrus. One of his farms in the latter county is located in the Newell section and it is property of considerable acreage. A few days ago a tenant came to town and informed Mr. Wolfe that some people were surveying through his lands. The tenant did not know what it might mean, and Mr. Wolfe did not learn what the surveyors were up to until a few days ago, when information of the projected extension of the interurban came out. Then the word Mr. Wolfe sent to the Southern Power Company was "Go to it!"

He would throw no obstacle in the way, but would assist in any manner possible to expedition of the right-of-way in his section. This attitude of Mr. Wolfe is typical of that of land-owners in general. The Southern Power Company is likely to find the way open to its projected extension all along the line from Charlotte into Winston-Salem, for the farmer of today is man awake to things that advantage him.

In Norway, Sweden and Finland women are frequently employed as sailors.
