BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

A GOOD NAME THE BEST ASSET - A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor rather than silver and gold - Proverbs 22:1.

GROWTH OF BUILDING AND LOAN IN THE STATE.

Building and loan men of the State are holding their annual convention at Wrightsville Beach this year and reports submitted to them by officers show a very fine record of work for the past year. Associations in all parts of the State have enjoyed almost unprecedented patronage and the associations as a whole are growing in strength as well as in favor.

LET THE PESSIMIST GROWL.

Business is "going to the dogs" in the opinion of some people who are ready to give up when money gets a little tight. These people see no hope for the future and spend most of their time expounding their theories of pessimism.

0000, and industrial and miscellaneous companies will pay over $16,000,000. Industrial dividends for seven months are nearly $13,000,000 greater than in the same part of last year.

MAKE "CLEAN UP WEEK" AMOUNT TO SOMETHING.

The city is going to some expense next week in staging a "clean up week" and it is to be hoped that the citizens of the city will take advantage of this opportunity to get their premises cleaned up free of cost.

KLAN MIGHTY, SAYS ORATOR

"Woe to those who oppose it," shouts King Kleagle Bell. More than 7,500 persons, most of them women, cheered King Kleagle Arthur H. Bell, imperial representative of the knights of the Ku Klux Klan, at the regular Sunday meeting of the Ocean Grove, N. J., auditorium Bible class yesterday.

Post and Flagg's Cotton Letter.

New York, July 22.—It has been a dull, dragging market reflecting expectation of a somewhat bearish report tomorrow as seems justified by developments to date and by reports from private authorities generally. Much, however, depends on the importance assigned to Texas where the situation has without doubt gone from bad to worse.

DINNER STORIES

Rufus: "Don't you aggravate me any more, big boy! De Bible says dat even 'er worm will turn."
Goofus: "Dat shows 'ee' how foolish you is—likenin' yowself to 'er worm. What do 'er worm want to turn for, when it's de same on de udder side?"

Man Wanted.

Under this head Motor West offers the following:
Wanted—A man for hard work and rapid promotion, who can find things to be done without the help of a manager and three assistants.

Pity the Poor Bald Headed Man.

It is related that a lady who had made much study of the appropriateness of dress, color schemes and the like, on one occasion was expatiating on mans apparel. Said she: "A man with black hair is becomingly attired should wear a black suit; brown hair, brown suit; gray hair, gray suit."

PRISON HEAD HITS SEEKER FOR NEWS

Reporter Calling at Prison Greeted With Blow; Armed Guard Helps Boss. Raleigh News and Observer. Jonathan W. Daniels, the member of the News and Observer staff regularly assigned to the State Prison, was greeted by a blow from Superintendent George Ross Pou when the reporter called at the prison yesterday in the course of his regular rounds and asked what had happened at the meeting of the board of directors of the prison held earlier in the day.

Bad Checks.

Monroe Enequier. Down at the postoffice one evening this week a prominent merchant opened a letter from his bank. "I wonder whose bad check this is?" said he as he opened it. "Large amount?" I inquired. "Oh, only $11.50," said he, with a sigh.

Mr. and Mrs. Pou and Mrs. J. H. Norman were seated on the lawn. Daniels walked over toward the group. He bowed, took off his hat and asked Mr. Pou if he might speak to him. Pou rose from his chair and walked over to Daniels. "Mr. Pou, could I get a statement from you on the meeting of the prison board today?" Daniels asked.

with the affray between Mr. Pou and Jonathan Daniels.

Jonathan Daniels, a reporter of the News and Observer, came to the prison late yesterday. He approached where we were sitting on the lawn. Mr. Pou got up and met him. Daniels asked Mr. Pou if he had any news to which Mr. Pou replied he had no news for Daniels and would not have any as long as Daniels continued to publish damn lies about him.

Statement by Major Hugh A. Love.

"Mr. Fleet Williams, the city editor of the News and Observer, advised Superintendent Pou this afternoon that he would detail Bog Gray, Jr., to cover news at the state's prison to succeed Jonathan Daniels. Mr. Pou had requested that a gentleman be sent by the News and Observer to secure news from the state prison."

REMEMBER PENNY ADS ARE CASH

Few places in London are more interesting than Covent Garden Market, and not least among its many curious features is the company of "whip-minders." The company consists of twenty women, who may be seen any morning before 3 and 10 o'clock holding the whips of carters who have produce to market.
