LOCAL MENTION

C. A. Furr has returned from Chapel Hill, where he has been attending Summer School at the University of North Carolina.

The Bethel Congregation of No. 10 Township, has set apart Monday, July 27th, for cleaning of the cemetery, and it is hoped that a goodly number will be present.

The weekly meeting of the Concord Kiwanis Club will be held at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow at 12:30 o'clock. The committee in charge of the meeting announces that an interesting program has been arranged.

L. T. Hartsell, Jr., left this afternoon for Lancaster, S. C., where he will spend the remainder of the week at the home of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones. He will be accompanied back to Concord Sunday by Mrs. Hartsell.

No games were played in the major leagues yesterday. The two scheduled games in the National League were rained out, and no games were scheduled in the American League. In the South Atlantic Charlotte won again from Columbia in a free hitting contest.

Lewis Kiser, negro, was brought back to Concord yesterday by local officers from Monroe, where he was arrested by Union county officials. The negro has been wanted here for several months on a charge of assault with a deadly weapon. He is now in the county jail.

Defendants tried in police court yesterday paid costs totaling $120.15. One defendant charged with having liquor in his possession paid $100 and the costs and was sentenced to serve six months on the chain gang for transporting, capias not to issue on agreement not to handle liquor for two years.

Plans are being made now for a golf tournament to be held next week at the Cabarrus Country Club. Medal play will determine the winner over 36 holes. The entries in the tournament and the days for the matches will be announced later when the tournament committee has completed its plans.

Baseball fans are promised a good game at the Gibson Mill park this afternoon when the Gibson and Cooleenec teams meet. Watts will do the twirling for the locals, with the rest of the lineup the same as has been used in recent games. Saturday the team goes to Kannapolis for the third game with that team.

The Concord National Bank, administrator for the estate of J. E. Allison, has sold to C. A. Leubner property in Ward 4 for $1 and other valuable considerations, according to a deed filed Thursday. Another deed records the sale of property on Fink street, in Ward 1, by D. A. McLaurin to L. M. Burris for $600.

Remember during next week, when the "Clean Up Campaign" is on, trash and garbage will be moved free of charge by the city. Citizens are asked to collect the stuff from their yards and place it on the streets so the city's wagons and trucks can pick it up. Every section of the city will have available the free service.

The managers of the Star Theatre and the New Concord Theatre have been highly commended during the week for bringing to Concord "The Ten Commandments" and "Quo Vadis," respectively. These are two of the biggest pictures ever filmed and local movie patrons were pleased at the opportunity of seeing them.

Miss Louise Morris underwent an operation for the removal of her appendix in a Charlotte hospital yesterday afternoon, and her condition today is reported as favorable as could be expected. Miss Morris became ill several days ago with Camp Illabee and was carried to the hospital from camp by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Morris.

"The Development of Building and Loan Associations" was the subject of an address delivered before the North Carolina Building and Loan League in Wilmington yesterday by Gilbert Hendrix, of this city, who is associated with his father in the management of the Cabarrus County Building and Loan Association.

A fine rain fell in Concord yesterday, the rain being in the nature of a general one although it fell only a few hours. Heavy clouds hung over Concord during most of the day, although the rain did not fall in earnest until about 11 o'clock in the morning. More rain is predicted for today, although the clouds have been breaking up during the morning.

Lexington Court Hears Another Mosquito Case.

Lexington, July 22.—Trial of the case of W. C. Coggin against the Tallahassee Power company, one of the "mosquito cases," was begun here yesterday in Superior court and will probably consume the balance of the week or longer. The plaintiff, after the introduction of about a half-dozen witnesses to prove the prevalence of mosquitoes and malaria after the impounding of the waters from Badin dam, rested and the defense began its testimony, which will include a number of medical experts. The same case last September resulted in a hung jury. A large number of similar cases are on docket here and in Montgomery county.

A number of star golfers of England and the United States have entered for the Canadian open championship tournament, which is to be held at the Royal Ottawa Club during the week of September 14.

The murder rate in the United States is forty times as high as that of Switzerland.
