FAGGART-WIDENHOUSE WEDDING AT CHARLOTTE

Miss Beulah Widenhouse, of Concord, married to Virginia Man.—To Live in Philadelphia.

A wedding of much interest to a wide circle of friends in North Carolina and Virginia was that solemnized at the Belmont Park M. E. parsonage when Miss Beulah Widenhouse, of Concord, became the bride of Mr. Howard H. Faggart, of Schoolfield, Va.

Mrs. Faggart is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Widenhouse, of Concord. Mr. Faggart has employment with the national government, with headquarters at present in Philadelphia.

The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. J. Frank Armstrong.

Letter From Rev. E. L. Ritchie.

Dear Home Folks:

I don't often write to you. A reference in a recent issue to a moonlight rainbow seen at Bristol, recalled to mind such phenomena which I twice saw very plainly while living in Burkes Garden, Va. One night as I rode home the bow pushed just a little ahead of me, and lingering a bit against a great oak by my yard gate, suggested the investigation of the contents of the pot at its end. I think you might expect it to be filled with silver rather than gold, though white diamonds might be fitting treasure to be marked by an apparition so rare.

I am glad to report my family and self in good health. This is picnic as well as huckleberry season. Had our Sunday School picnic at "Camp-Rest-A-While" yesterday, a very delightful place and time. I went "in swimming." August is vacation time for all preachers in these parts. We go to Gettysburg for the first week, at Lutheran Summer Assembly. After that we will spend the month visiting and resuscitating. Am uncertain as yet about a visit to North Carolina, though I want to be at that Homecoming at St. John's.

Wheat harvest has just passed. Hay harvest has been in progress for a month or more and will continue for some time. Oats is turning golden in places. Buckwheat is in flower. We have had fine rains, too much for convenience to farmers at times. Lightning has destroyed several barns and some other buildings in this county, and killed one man.

The resumption of operations at a number of mines is the greatest material interest here. Inactivity at most and short time and low wages at others, has brought the closest times financially known here within a generation. Though much improved there is nothing very stable about the situation as yet.

I enjoyed that description of road building in Cabarrus in your recent issue. It was very vivid and pleasing as it pictured improvements on the roads so often traversed. Indiana County, Pa., hasn't an enviable reputation for her roads, but is now keeping abreast of the world in providing much of the best of cement, and generally improved roads.

Total Rowan Births Exceed the Deaths. Salisbury, July 25.—This county had 75 more births during the month of June than deaths, according to belated reports that have just been tabulated at health headquarters in this city. There were 52 births in the city and 68 in the county. Deaths in the city were 23 and in the county 22.

CONCORD MERCHANTS SEND RESOLUTION TO MR. DUKE

Pledge Support in Building of the Interurban Line From Charlotte to Winston.

In a resolution drawn up by the Concord Merchants Association in regard to the construction of the interurban railroad line, Mr. Duke is thanked for his vision and is pledged loyal support. The committee is instructed to get busy at once and pull for the line.

The resolution is as follows:

In Reference to Interurban Line:

The Concord Merchants Association being advised that there is a prospect that Mr. J. B. Duke will build an interurban freight and passenger line through Cabarrus County and through Concord, and this Association hereby endorses to the fullest extent this measure.

It will add greatly to the industrial building of the community. It will likely put side tracks near the business part of the City, thereby saving the merchants and finally the buying public, immense sums annually. It will make available a large number of home and business sites along the trackage and bring more people here. It will add some two millions of dollars to our taxable values and hence help to reduce our tax rates. It will help solve the question of our road congestion by carrying part of the load.

Our Association extends thanks to Mr. Duke for his vision in considering this project and we pledge him our loyal support in carrying forward his plans.

We instruct our committee to get busy at once and pull for the Concord Charlotte-Winston line.

This July 25th, 1925.

CONCORD ADVERTISING GET NOTICE OF NATIONAL SHEET

Local Gas Company's Advertisement on Emancipation Pictured in American Gas Journal.

In the July 18th issue of the American Gas Journal there appears a new department, the purpose of which is to give a "Thumb Nail Review" of newspaper and direct advertising. One of the four ads. pictured below the text of the brief article is that of the Concord & Kannapolis Gas Co.

This ad. appeared in The Tribune near July 4th and gives an account of what gas service does for the home. It pictures a coal stove as "slavery" and a gas range as "emancipation."

The article by William H. Matlack is as follows:

With the growing interest in advertising, the editor of The American Gas Journal thinks folks here and there will welcome a thumb nail review now and then of newspaper and direct advertising. As he has put it up to me to do the job, the above is the head we have decided to run for our review. We will take the advertisements as we find them and leave it to you to be judge and jury. It will not be our purpose to pick at any of the advertisements we reproduce. Of course, we reserve the right to have over an advertisement now and then, for the advertising man is putting out some mighty fine things these days.

The ones reproduced here come from "fall over." One from Cuba says but little, as we do not "sabe," but we can see that the border and signature are distinctive. Another number 2, comes from Egypt, and employs a timely theme. We like to see a signature to all advertisements. Number 3 comes from the big town and goes right to bat. Illustration and all are timely. Number 4 comes from the Old North State and was very timely. "Emancipation" always gets attention around July 4th.

"Code of Wilderness" Big Picture of the Early Week.

"Code of the Wilderness," the big Vitagraph picture with Alice Calhoun and John Bowers at the Concord Theatre today and Tuesday ranks as one of the finest action dramas of the vast open spaces ever produced. The story is wonderful and there is action galore together with a lot of humor in this new type picture. Produced by Stuart Blackton for Vitagraph who has a number of real big productions already to his credit.

The cast is one of unusual selection and to see this big picture means an hour and a half of genuine entertainment.

The program includes another clever cartoon comedy by Paul Terry, Aesop's Fables. Title "Office Help" and latest issue of Pathe News.

CONCORD TOURISTS REACH PARIS IN SAFETY, SAYS CABLE

"Carolina on Map" Says Wire, Showing That Mr. Blanks Has Not Forgotten to Advertise.

A message was received this morning from Mr. Blanks in which he announced that the tourists had reached Paris. His cablegram to The Tribune was as follows:

"Arrived Paris. All well. Carolina on map."

From the last sentence it is judged that Mr. Blanks and his charges are, in addition to seeing the sights of the continent, engaged in whooping it up for the old North State. It is said that ere the tour is complete, North Carolina and Concord will be the two best known places in America.

The first homeward bound tourists will set sail from Cherbourg August 4th on the Leviathan. This gives them only a week more in France. Part of the remainder will view Switzerland and Italy before starting home on the 15th of the month. Still a third group will, after seeing the sights in Italy, go north through Germany and do the Scandinavian countries in hurried fashion. This last number will sail for New York on the 25th of August.

All messages received in Concord thus far have indicated that the tourists are having the time of their lives. There are forty in Mr. Blanks' party, eighteen of whom are from Concord. The fact that so many of them knew each other before starting has helped materially in making the trip a pleasant one.
