Congratulations!

Presenting the new lightweight champion, Jimmy Goodrich of Buffalo. He won the title in the recent elimination tournament. Here he's shown reading some of the many telegrams of congratulation he received after knocking out Stanislaus Lozman in the final bout.

Asleep in the Deep

Sidney Helms of Des Moines, Ia., has completed a 200-mile trip down the Mississippi River on a mattress. He is a mattress salesman and the mattress he sells float. So he put a light wooden frame around one, gave the bow a toboggan flare, stuck an outboard motor at the back and got up a speed of eight miles an hour. He went from Keokuk, Ia., to St. Louis.

LOCAL MENTION

We thank our friend, H. W. Harkey, of No. 6 township, for a large basket of wonderfully fine peaches of the Carmel and Elberta varieties.

Mrs. H. F. Swink, who has been in the Concord Hospital for several weeks, returned to her home yesterday very much improved.

Marriage license has been issued by Register of Deeds Elliott to Vester Freeze and Miss Annie Pethel, both of Kannapolis.

The annual catalogue of the Appalachian State Normal School, Boone, N. C., gives the attendance from Cabarrus at 28. This school trains public school teachers.

Arrangements are being completed for the opening of the city schools which is to be held on the 7th of September. The entire faculty has been elected and the list will be published in several days.

Funeral services for the infant of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Suther, stillborn Sunday morning, were conducted Sunday at the home on North Church street and burial was made in Oakwood cemetery.

Word received from the bedside of John W. Cline this morning stated that Mr. Cline was still dangerously ill. He has been in a serious condition for the past week.

Leslie Bell, formerly connected with the Musette, Inc., has accepted a position with the Kidd-Frix Company, where he will have charge of the school books which will be sold there this fall.

Mrs. M. F. Teeter and daughter, Margaret, Miss Willean McKnight, of Charlotte; Miss Pearl Abernathy, of Pioneer Mills, left by automobile this morning for Washington where they will spend ten days.

Judge John M. Oglesby, who spent the week-end here after holding court in Asheville last week, left yesterday afternoon for Burnsville, where he will preside at sessions of Yancey county court for the next two weeks.

During this week, from August 3rd to 9th inclusive, Efford will have a clearance of all summer apparel. The entire stock of summer dresses in voiles, crepes, and silks of every kind will be offered at less than wholesale prices.

R. C. Crooks, of the Times-Tribune force, is enjoying a vacation this week. Mr. Crooks plans to spend part of this week in the western part of the state, and the members of his family to make the trip in their automobile.

The county commissioners met at the court house this morning for their regular August meeting. It was predicted before the meeting that no matters of unusual importance would come before the meeting and up to the noon hour the prediction had been fulfilled.

Frank Mund, city building inspector, announced that during July he issued 20 building permits for work valued at $324,880. Twelve inspections for new electrical equipment also were made during the month by Mr. Mund, according to his report.

The condition of S. J. Ervin, who has been ill for some time at his home on North Union street, was not so favorable Sunday. However, there was a change for the better during the early part of the night and he was reported today as resting more comfortably.

The golf tournament held at the Cabarrus Country Club last week was won by Walter L. Furr, with a score of 163 for 36 holes. Dr. W. H. Wadsworth was second. Play in the tournament was completed Saturday, Furr getting a commanding lead on the first nine Saturday when he came in with a 38, one over par.

The eleventh annual meeting of the Wineoff Memorial Association will be held at Center Grove E. L. Church on Tuesday. An elaborate program beginning at 10:30 o'clock has been prepared for the occasion. Dinner will be served on the grounds as soon as the program is completed.

Washington defeated Detroit in the American League yesterday, while Cleveland was winning from New York. In the National League Brooklyn won from Chicago, Cincinnati and Boston split a double header and St. Louis defeated New York. The Pittsburgh Pirates are leading the National League and Philadelphia is leading the American.

The week-end closing today was one of the coolest Concord has ever known for August in many years. There was a decided touch of fall in the temperature and coats were much in evidence Saturday and Sunday night, while light wraps were used by women during yesterday. The storm which carried snow to parts of Texas is thought to be responsible for the cool weather here.

Six defendants are to be tried in recorder's court this afternoon, police officers report. Three are charged with intoxication, two with assaults with deadly weapons and one with operating an automobile while intoxicated. Police officers pointed out that this is the first time in several weeks that as many as three persons are to be tried at the same session of court for being intoxicated.

The many friends here of Rev. W. C. Alexander, of Nashville, Tenn., are delighted to have him in their midst again. Mr. Alexander preached yesterday morning in the First Presbyterian Church, of which he was a former pastor. As there were no services in several of the other churches, members of these congregations were glad of the opportunity to hear Mr. Alexander preach again. His popularity here is city-wide.

MT. PLEASANT EASY MARK FOR TWILIGHT ALL STARS

Johnson Shows Old-Time Form and Defeats the Mt. Pleasant First Stringers 16 to 2.

By JAXXY MOORE. Kannapolis, August 3.—"Sucky" Johnson, frequently mentioned as a cast-off of the Cabarrus club of the Twilight League, will be signed for life if he pitches the brand of ball that he defeated the Mt. Pleasant regulars with Saturday afternoon. Johnson had perfect control, plenty of speed, and a neat "hop" that resulted in pop flies that turned the visitors back 16 to 2.

Hill, star gunner of the Mounties, was replaced by Waits after the All Stars went on a Babe Ruth rampage in the fifth inning and sent four balls out of the park for the limited four-base hit.

Lipe hit like wild-fire for the locals, gathering three out of five; single, a double, and a home run. Shot, Mt. Pleasant boy, showed more class than any of his teammates.

Kannapolis Personal Items. Kannapolis, Aug. 3.—John S. Carpenter, R. H. Williams, W. J. Hartwell, and E. D. Hede attended the annual Southern Industrial Conference the latter part of last week as representatives of the Cabarrus Cotton Mills. The conference was held at Blue Ridge with 500 representatives present.

Miss Virginia Viola and a party of young people are on a motor trip which will take them to Blowing Rock, Black Mountain, Asheville and other points of interest. They expect to be gone about a week.

Miss Edith Jolley will entertain the bridge club of which she is a member Friday at her home on South Main street.

M. J. Peary, after visiting relatives, has returned to his home in Columbia, S. C.

Miss Claire Thompson, of Bluefield, W. Va., who has been the house guest of Miss Blanche Walters, has returned to her home.

Miss Evelyn Barbee has been the guest of her parents in Harrisburg. At the Cabarrus Y. M. C. A. are Charles Lobe and E. J. Ombrey, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Payne Johnson will pass a month touring the eastern states.

Miss Dorothy Williams entertained a small dinner party at the Cabarrus club rooms last Friday evening.

Miss Bertha Moser, who has been quite ill at the Charlotte Sanatorium, is improving and will come to her home soon. Mrs. Meerin Matthews is spending two weeks at Wrightsville Beach.

A novelty feature that took place on Saturday evening was a keno party, which was received with a good deal of enthusiasm by the guests of Cabarrus Y. and was attended by a number of people from upper Kannapolis.

The Kannapolis Truck Drivers' Association announces that Ben Widenhouse has been elected President for the ensuing twelve months. Oscar Price was chosen vice president, and Sam Hethcock was made secretary-treasurer. The social committee is composed of Robert Dayvault, Leo McCombs and Clarence Dellinger. The charter members are listed: Edwin Davis, Clarence Troutman, Frank Moser, George Rhyne, Jake Widenhouse, Ben Widenhouse, Leo McCombs, Oscar Price, Sam Hethcock and Clarence Dellinger. President Widenhouse wishes it announced that an interesting program is being planned for the remainder of the summer months.

The Y. P. C. U. of Main Street A. R. P. Church held a meeting and social at the home of Miss Elsie Bost on the Enochville road Thursday evening with twenty members present.

Mrs. John E. Boger was the hostess at a dance at her home on South Main street Friday evening.

Miss Azucena Correll, of Indianapolis, Ind., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. George Rodgers, at her home on South Main street.

LOYAL ORDER OF MOOSE.

Regular meeting of Concord Lodge No. 404 Loyal Order of Moose Monday evening at 8 o'clock. All members requested to be present. W. J. HETHCOX, Sec.
