

The Concord Daily Tribune. P. M. HERRILL, Editor and Publisher. W. M. HERRILL, Associate Editor.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES. In the City of Concord by Carrier: One Year $6.00, Six Months $3.50, Three Months $2.00.

RAILROAD SCHEDULE. In Effect June 28, 1925. Northbound: No. 40 to New York 9:28 P. M., No. 36 to New York 10:25 A. M.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY. THE BEST MEDICINE.—A merry heart doth good like a medicine; but a broken spirit drieth the bones.—Proverbs 17:22.

WILL BE CORRECTLY DRESSED. Meeting this week commissioners of Stantley and Montgomery counties decided to keep traffic officers for the county roads but they made provision for the officers to be dressed at all times so that no one could mistake their identity.

One deputy sheriff in this county has been seen on the roads lately arresting speeders. On one occasion he wore a pair of khaki pants, a plain cap and no shirt. It would not be easy for him to be identified as an officer when he is so garbed.

SEES "GREATEST UNIVERSITY IN AMERICA." A New Jersey man writes to Duke University asking for reservations for his son in 1940, because in his opinion Duke University is destined to be the greatest institution of learning in the United States.

Indian Has Outdoor Bath. When a Glacier Park Indian catches cold he drinks hot herb tea and packs himself in his outdoor sweat bath, which is about as near to nature's contrivance as he gets.

students by the thousands and the number of "turned down" applications by the hundreds.

We are still buying automobiles in great numbers in North Carolina. From Raleigh comes the report that auto licenses issued this year exceed the number issued to the same date last year by 35,150.

ORGANIZED LABOR ENDS ITS SUPPORT OF THIRD PARTIES. Federation Emphatically Declares Non-Partisan Policy to Be Followed.

Washington, Aug. 2.—In direct language from its executive council today, the American Federation of Labor announced that it was through backing the third party movements of the kind which it supported in 1924 with the late Senator La Follette as presidential candidate.

The convention's dictum was carried further by the council declaration that "no aid or comfort will be given those who seek to launch third party movements," by a decision to have prepared for the national convention at Atlantic City, October 5th, a set of reports dealing with local, State and national political contests.

In behalf of such candidates, particularly those in the congressional field, the council promised to wage a "strenuous non-partisan political campaign." State federations of labor and central labor bodies everywhere will be summoned to assist, as in previous years, it said, while its usual condemnation of "bosses" and support of the primary system for nominating candidates again was made evident.

Did Not Last. The statement mentioned the events of 1924, when the council endorsed the La Follette forces, but said that "since the non-partisan political policy has been followed, many independent or third party movements have come and gone, generally existing only for one election."

Governor To Be Asked To Look Into Guilford County Dog Law. Governor Angus W. McLean is scheduled to look into the Guilford county dog and game law controversy. A committee was appointed yesterday afternoon by I. C. Huffins, chairman of the farmer's central committee, which will draw up a petition for his excellency's consideration, setting forth reasons why the legislature should meet in special session to repeal the "obnoxious" act passed at its last session.

Dope Dealer Knocked Down Three Officers. Sample F. Huffine, local federal narcotic agent, got the worst of an encounter at Durham last Saturday, in which Henry Johnson, well-known negro narcotic dealer here, was wounded in the leg in a running fight with police, after the negro had knocked down Mr. Huffine and two members of the detective force of the Durham police. The shooting took place on Roxboro street near the union station in Durham early Saturday night.

"IF YOU WERE A CHINESE"

Stanly High in Dearborn Independent. It was in one of the great Pacific port cities of North America. My Chinese boat was due to sail the next day, and with bag, baggage and passport I visited the immigration office beside the dock to get through with the customary examinations.

"I've something to show you," he said. "Show away," I replied, and followed him down a flight of stairs and into that section of the building where space was set aside to handle the examination of Orientals. The rooms, there, were divided up into great pens. Into these a motley crowd was herded: Chinese, Indians, and Filipinos, waiting their return with the inspectors.

"What do you mean?" I asked. "They mean that my people are awaking," he said. "Translated those characters read: 'Warning! We will do worse than this to you when we are strong.'"

"How would you feel," said my doctor friend, "if you were a Chinese?" Shanghai is a Chinese city—the chief port of a nation of 400,000,000 people; the country's industrial center; the crossroads of the Eastern world as London is the crossroads of the Western.

Beyond the International Settlement—which has appropriated the choicest section of the city—one can see something of China. There, in narrow, congested streets, lined with dimly lighted shops and cluttered up with beggars and coolies, children, business men in long, flowing robes, and the vendors of strange oriental wares who announce their wares in shrieking chants, there, beyond the foreigners' Shanghai live the natives of the city.

Walking down the bund in Shanghai one day I stopped at the entrance to one of these parks. A young Chinese student from a mission school was with me. Behind the entrance to this park a long line of resolutions was posted.

"Can you wonder that we students resent this foreign city?" he asked. "Look at the last regulation." I did. It was as follows: "Dogs, unless on leash, and Chinese not admitted."

"How would you feel," the student continued, "if you were a Chinese and found that signs, posted by foreigners in your most important city?"

Westerners in China have frequently acted upon the presumption that the Chinese were an inferior race, legitimate prey for the exploiters. That the Chinese have a pride of race as deep—probably deeper—as that of the average Westerner has been generally overlooked, save by the missionaries who, almost alone of Occidentals in the East, have come to an appreciation of the greatness of the people with whom they are working.

CRITICIZES DELAY IN PRINTING STATE LAWS

James H. Pou Sharply Raps Delay. Everett Says Slowness Responsible. The delay in the printing of the Public Laws of 1925 was yesterday declared to be an imposition upon the people of the State by James H. Pou, president of the Wake County Bar Association.

Secretary of State W. N. Everett stated that this year the copy was unavoidably delayed in being sent to the printers because of the illness after the session of the General Assembly of R. T. Wilson, of Kanesville, Del. (R.), charge of the indexing and sidestepping Mr. Everett said he expects to get the laws within 30 days. It was stated at the office of Frank D. Grist, Commissioner of Labor and Printing, that the copy for the captions was furnished about June 15 and the copy for the public laws about July 1.

Negro Lodged in State Prison. Raleigh, Aug. 4.—According to information given out at the state prison tonight, Fannie Burke, Chatham county, has been lodged in the penitentiary by instruction of Judge W. A. Devin of a capital charge against a white girl in that county.

CONCORD FARMER SAYS TO ASK HIM. Says That He Owes His Good Health and Strength to HERB JUICE.

"Just tell the people around here to ask me about HERB JUICE and I will tell the facts about this medicine that will surprise them in more ways than one," said Mr. A. L. Goodman, well known and highly respected farmer who resides at 68 St. Mary's street, Concord, N. C., when he called to see the HERB JUICE man a few days ago.

MR. A. L. GOODMAN. "Why, before I was fortunate enough to hear about this wonderful tonic laxative," continued Mr. Goodman, "I was in about as bad run down condition as a person could be and still keep going. My stomach was all out of shape. In plain words I thought it was just about worn out. I could not eat and enjoy a thing as my food seemed to sour just as soon as it reached the stomach, and for hours after eating I would suffer terrible pains from gas and indigestion. My kidneys also acted very irregularly which caused me to be up all hours of the night making it impossible for me to get my proper rest. In addition to this, I was badly constipated and try as I would, I could not find any medicine that would relieve this trouble or regulate my bowels until I started using HERB JUICE. That's why I say just tell the folks around here to ask me about this medicine. I now feel better in every way than I have for years. Kidneys act regularly, sleep just fine at night and don't have a pin or ache. HERB JUICE has also regulated my bowels and relieved me of the constipation trouble with the result that my stomach is free of all poisons and I can eat and enjoy my meals without any indigestion pains afterwards. I can sure speak a good word for this medicine and recommend HERB JUICE to every one. HERB JUICE is guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded by Gibson Drug Co.

It is altogether likely that the present crisis will not finally drive the Japanese and British interests from China. Those interests are deeply founded and every effort, doubtless, will be made to protect them. But even though they remain when this storm has passed the fact cannot be lost sight of that the spirit out of which the movement grew is likely to persist. Not only that, but in India, the Philippines, Korea and all through the East where nationalism is increasing the present uprising in Shanghai will be watched with eager and sympathetic interest. More than gunboats will be required to put down the growing belief among these peoples in the ideal of self-determination. Unless, at some future day, the white man is not to be ousted from the East by force, Western governments must inaugurate, at the present moment, constructive policies that will help both East and West toward a co-operative and conciliatory approach to their common problems.

Some Potato Bug in Arkansas. It was potato bug time in Arkansas and a bunch of farmers were talking it over at the country store. One of them said: "Them bugs eat up my whole potato crop in two weeks."

OUT TODAY New Victor Records

- RED SEAL RECORDS. No. Size. 1094 10—Indian Dance (Roos-Zamecnik) — Frances Alda. Please Keep Out of My Dreams (Bayer-Maxwell) — Frances Alda.

BELL-HARRIS FURNITURE CO.

We have the following used cars for sale or exchange:

Advertisement for Sewing Machines. Sewing at an old fashioned machine is nothing more or less than a tradition today in the modern home where wise minds have decided that everything that saves time and energy is economy. Let us demonstrate one of these small motors that run sewing machines. "Fixtures of Character" W. J. HETHCOX W. Depot St. Phone 669

Advertisement for Wilkinson's Funeral Home. The Personal Touch. Every detail of the funeral arrangements is given our personal attention. We endeavor to impress upon our patrons our desire to serve them in the capacity of friends. In doing this, we hope to mitigate to some small degree their burden of sorrow. Wilkinson's Funeral Home. AMBULANCE SERVICE. PHONE DAY OR NIGHT NO. 9. CONCORD, N. C. Concord Plumbing Company. North Kerr Street. Phone 978.