IN AND ABOUT THE CITY

JUDGE CALDWELL WRITES

Defends His Action in the Matter Regarding the Liberty Lunch Case.

Mr. Editor: Your local reporter in big headlines has published that "Judge Caldwell's Action Displeases City Engineer," and as if to justify that displeasure he states that, "after some hesitation Mr. Caldwell decided he would let them (the Greeks at Liberty Lunch) continue ninety days and if at the end of that time it was not improved he would close it." If the police justice had entered such a judgment he would deserve the "displeasure" of city engineer and the criticism of our citizens.

The docket of the police justice made at the time of trial was as follows: "Defendant required to pay cost and required to appear before court each Monday for ninety days and show that a nuisance does not exist and court reserves right to close it at any time." Quite a difference.

If your reporter had a real gift for gathering news instead of his propensity for discovering the defects of the police justice, he would have discovered and published the glad news that the reason the court extended this place ninety days was because the owner, Mr. Chas. J. Harris, in presence of 200 people in open court promised to tear down the building (the real nuisance) within 90 days, if court would not cut off his rent of $100 a month. I regard this the best days' work I have done for the City of Concord and I place it alongside the boasted trash removal of Mr. Smith.

I am replying now personally because I feel that the people should know the facts. I wish the public to understand further that inasmuch as the State inspector could not touch these Greeks or the City has failed to pass an ordinance affecting lunch counters, there was no law applicable except the old common law of nuisance which any layman of average intelligence ought to know makes it more difficult to convict.

I made a personal inspection and became satisfied that Liberty Lunch was not a common law nuisance in spite of the declaration of the city engineer that "it is a nuisance and everybody knows it." If everybody knows it to be a nuisance let Mr. Smith produce men to swear facts showing it to be a nuisance and it will be closed. Until he produces proper evidence I must decline his demand. I wish to state in conclusion that this is the last time I shall appeal through the columns of The Tribune.

The Court is vested with authority to protect it against further slanders and slurs and the offending parties will be cited for contempt.

MORRISON H. CALDWELL,
Police Justice.

(Judge Caldwell has failed to take note of the fact that the story to which he refers quoted Mr. Smith and in no wise gave any personal opinions that the reporter might have had. Had the matter been one for such opinions, it would have been handled in The Tribune's editorial columns.)

ANOTHER HEAVY RAIN IN CITY DURING THE NIGHT

Rain Fell in Torrents About 10:30 and Continued For Several Hours in Steady Downpour.

Another heavy rain was Concord's weather portion last night. Although the clouds of yesterday morning gave way to the sun during the afternoon, they gathered again during the early evening and about 10:30 they broke away, sending a perfect deluge on the city.

Rain began falling before 10:30, but it fell steadily before that hour, reminding one of the fall of the day before. About 10:30, however, there was a perfect downpour, the fall being so heavy that objects could not be distinguished 25 yards away.

Several streams in the county were reported out of bounds this morning as a result of the rain last night but no serious damage was caused by them. In Concord the streets became rivulets following the downpour but the water disappeared quickly when the rain ceased.

Bear Struck By Motor Car Revives and Fights Driver.

Yakima, Wash., Aug. 5.—Big game hunting by automobile is not so good, L. D. Gaines, driver of an oil truck, is convinced after an encounter he had with a black bear, while on the Rimrock road in the Cascade mountains, east of here recently.

When first seen, the animal was loping the highway ahead of him. Gaines related. Speeding up his machine, he forced the creature toward the rocks at the edge of the road. Suddenly turning, the bear sprang onto the hood of the truck, but skidded off, fell under the wheels and lay still.

To take home proof of his prowess, Gaines returned and grasped the bear by an ear. The truck passenger, however, had not killed, only dazed him, and the animal sprang up with an angry "woof!"

At this point Gaines decided to allow the bear his life and liberty, and sped back to his machine without dignity and only a part of his trousers. The bear disappeared up a canyon.

ANNUAL COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

To Be Held at St. Stephens Lutheran Church Thursday, August 20th.

Officers of the Cabarrus County Sunday School Association are of the opinion that one of the most interesting and helpful, as well as one of the most largely attended, Sunday school meetings ever held in the county will be the annual County Sunday School Convention at St. Stephens Lutheran Church on Thursday, August 20th. Programs of the convention have been mailed to all pastors and Sunday school superintendents in the county, with special invitations to attend the convention themselves, and requesting that they try to get all of their Sunday school teachers and officers to attend.

The convention program includes addresses and conferences on practically all phases of the work of the modern Sunday school. In arranging the program the small Sunday school was given much attention. During the convention there will be question and discussion periods, when those present will have opportunity to give and get information concerning any Sunday school problem.

The Cabarrus County Sunday School Association is one of the units of the North Carolina Sunday School Association, in which Sunday school workers of all evangelical denominations participate. At this time ninety-eight of the one hundred counties in the state are organized into Sunday School associations, many of which are completely organized and doing fine work.

BETTER TRAIN CONNECTION

Western Train No. 12 to Connect With Main Line No. 135.

Since June 28th there has been no connection with western train No. 12 with main line train No. 135. Passengers for China Grove, Landis, Kannapolis, Harrisburg, Newells and Concord arriving at Salisbury on this train at 7:55 were compelled to wait for No. 35, leaving Salisbury at 9:25.

The publisher of The Tribune took the matter up with R. H. Graham, division passenger agent at Charlotte, and this morning received the following letter from Mr. Graham:

Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 5, 1925.

Mr. J. B. Sherrill,
Concord, N. C.

Dear Mr. Sherrill: Exchange correspondence concerning connections at Salisbury from Asheville division.

We will have a change of schedules at an early date and on our next issue of time able we will arrange to connect train No. 12 from the Asheville division with main line train 135.

I sincerely hope that this will take care of passengers enroute from points west of Salisbury to Concord on the afternoon train.

With kindest regards and best wishes, I beg to remain,

Very truly yours,
R. H. GRAHAM,
Division Passenger Agent.

'LET WOMEN ALONE' IS CAPABLY ACTED

Pat O'Malley, Wallace Berry and Wanda Hawley in Cast of Great Comedy-Drama.

There is a timely lesson for the sterner sex, humorously presented, in "Let Women Alone," the feature at the Concord theater today. The moral is that if a woman says she won't she simply won't, and no mere man can make her.

The picture is splendidly acted by an exceptional cast, and, although it is rich in thrills and contains some intensely dramatic moments, at core it is a comedy, and as funny situations and new bits of comely business flashed on the screen last night, the house virtually reeked with laughter.

Ethel Wales, one of the foremost character actresses in motion pictures, gives a superb performance as Ma Benham, whose "go-getter" son, Tom, brings her to the big city and compels her to lay off the broom and washboard and be a lady of leisure. But inactivity soon pals and Ma is miserable. So, she dusts off the broom and gets busy, but Susan, hired by Tom to see that Ma keeps her hands folded, is close at her heels and spoils her fun. However, Ma stands just so much, and then she takes the reins and makes things hum!

REV. W. C. ALEXANDER HEARD BY ROTARIANS

Spoke Before Local Rotary Club at the Weekly Meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Yesterday.

Dr. W. C. Alexander, of Nashville, Tenn., who is spending some time in North Carolina with friends and who makes his headquarters in Concord while in the state, was heard with peculiar interest by members of the Concord Rotary Club at their weekly meeting at the Y. M. C. A. yesterday.

Dr. Alexander, who formerly was pastor of the First Presbyterian Church here, gave the Rotarians food for serious thought in his address which combined the humorous with the serious in bringing out those points which the speaker wanted to specially stress.

Dr. Alexander spoke before the Rotarians at the invitation of E. C. Barnhardt, who had charge of the program at the meeting.

M. L. Cannon was a guest of Ed. Sauvain at the meeting and Dr. David was a guest of Dr. R. B. Rankin.

At a meeting of the directors of the club, held immediately after the regular meeting, Dr. R. B. Rankin was chosen a director to succeed his brother, Dr. S. W. Rankin.

Escaped Monkey Startles Crowds on Fifth Avenue.

New York, Aug. 5.—A gibbering chimpanzee pursued by a throng of pedestrians led by 10 young women employees of a Fifth Avenue book shop it had entered, today fled through the traffic maze of Fifth Avenue, causing a general flap. The chimpanzee sought refuge in a woman's lingerie shop but was ousted by fear-stricken workers.

The monkey then sought refuge under a taxicab, riding for some distance. Routed by a traffic policeman, the animal was captured by another policeman as it tried to enter a mail box. It was taken to police headquarters while police sought the owner.

Hundreds of Sparrows Killed in Hall Storm.

Gastonia, Aug. 4.—Hundreds of sparrows were killed here last night by hail which fell during the terrific rainstorm which pelted the city between 10 and 11 o'clock. In P. R. Huffstetler's yard more than 300 dead sparrows were picked up
