DO 60 YEARS MEAN OLD AGE?

Some Say "Yes," Some Say "No."—Doctors and Scientists Claim Old Age May Be Controlled.

CAN'T BEAT "TIZ" WHEN FEET HURT

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunions-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath.

WHY NOT TAKE ACTION NOW?

The anthracite operators and miners seem hopelessly deadlocked over wage negotiations. They have been in conference at Atlantic City for several weeks yet apparently they are no nearer a solution of their problem than they were at the beginning of the negotiations.

McCLAIN SETS PACE FOR KANNAPOLIS BATTERS

Home Game Averages Show Why Kannapolis Is One of the Best Teams in Western Part of the State.

Lee is leading the team in scoring runs with twelve to his credit, and stands second to Saunders in base stealing. Saunders has done the theft act on thirteen occasions, while Lee has been successful in eleven.

The Right Kind of a Public Meeting.

Public meetings are of various kinds. There are meetings that are snappy and full of enthusiasm and "pep," to use a much used term.

Rowan Stepping Out.

Rowan has for years been a county that believed in good roads and has spent a good deal of money in an effort to build them.

Richard T. Harriss Did It.

Richard T. Harriss got a habit in Fort Worth, says the Star-Telegram of that city. He was a newsboy then, selling papers on a street corner.

The Last of the Seven.

Six years ago a Texas rancher was the victim of a "wire-tapping" scheme whereby seven swindlers hid him out of a cool $45,000.

THE LIMITED MAIL

Bob, a young tramp, has prevented a terrible disaster by signalling the Limited as it was about to dash into a boulder on a trestle in Granite Gorge.

Later, refreshed, Bob found time to study the lean, merry face of the mail clerk, and was conscious of an unaccountable liking for him.

CHAPTER II—Continued

Jim and Bob, under kindred moods of fascination, leaned out of the half-opened doorway of the mail car and peered into the naked abyss which, like a black vampire, was couched immorally in her rockbed enjoying the ravishing caress of the gale.

It was from—her!

with a broom and sweeps me into the Gorge. I always wake up as I'm falling in. Funny, isn't it?

It was from—her!

Bob signified agreement by a grave nod. Then, as the soprano rattle of trestle rails underwheeled succeeded by the secure tenor of solid, ballasted right of way, Jim left his hunch behind with the Gorge, banged the car door shut, and turned to throw up his hands in dismay at the chaos of sacks and letters within the car.

In the corner farthest away from the work table Spike and Potts had made themselves snugly at home without ado, cleaning up the contents of Jim's supper can, to which he had bid them welcome.

"Better wash the grit out of those cuts on your forehead," advised Jim, giving him soap and a clean towel. "You'll find some iodine in the compartment behind the mirror here."

Whatever little caste as a tramp Bob had, in Spike's eyes, was lost now as the latter saw him washing; and he leeringly drew Potts' attention to this unethical department. But Potts, being a man of broader human experiences, merely shrugged with the air of a lenient inquisitor who disapproves but does not condemn.

What Will She Do?

A wealthy "realtor" in New York has an adopted daughter who "chases" everything she wants except a playmate. The little girl would like someone to share with her 100 dolls, 150 dresses and her own Rolls-Royce.
