Flattering

It is hard to arouse much interest in the short sleeve, most fashionable women preferring a long sleeve or none at all, but there is a type that is gaining favor in Paris. It is above the elbow and has a full-pleated ruffle of organdie that is very flattering.

RESIGNS POSITION AS KINDERGARTEN HEAD HERE

Miss Berta Hallem Will Not Return Owing to Ill Health of Her Mother—Successor Not Elected.

In a letter to Y. M. C. A. officials, Miss Berta Hallem, who was head of the kindergarten last year and who had been elected to the same place for the coming year, resigned her position, declaring that it would be impossible for her to come to Concord next year.

The reason she assigned was that her mother was in such ill health that it made it unwise for her to leave her home in Richmond Hill, N. Y. Miss Hallem had first planned to bring her mother to Concord with her to live but her condition has become such recently that it was thought best not to make the trip.

This fact will be learned with regret by Miss Hallem's friends in the city. She was considered an excellent teacher for the younger children and her work was highly praised. When she was re-elected, officials in charge of this work considered that they were fortunate in having her to return another year.

Owing to the absence of Mr. Blanks, it is not known who will be secured to take her place. No action is expected to be taken in securing a new teacher until he returns from Europe the last of this month.
