Concord Furniture Co. THE RELIABLE FURNITURE STORE

An institution as great as the Ford Motor Company admits its growth is due to honest, trustworthy dealings with the people of a nation.

The same principles and purposes must govern a successful dealer. These requirements have been met by an investment that demands it and an organization headed by former factory men with long successful records—men now permanent local citizens who are determined to merit your confidence and esteem.

War Vet Regains Children

Claude N. Logan, veteran of the A. F. F., has at last unravelled several miles of red tape and regained his children, Nathan Barzen, 5 (right), and Velmur Barzen, 2. He married a German girl, Cecile Barzen, while with the army of occupation in Germany, but military officials wouldn't sanction the wedding and he had to leave his family behind. Then the mother died, and he sent money for the children to come to his home at Springfield, O. Immigration officers held them up again, and it was only through the intervention of Senator Fess of Ohio that Logan finally got them.

The Standard Buick Co. announces the sale of a five passenger Buick sedan to C. H. Gracber, of Kannapolis. This is the first 1926 model Buick delivered in the county, as the new models just came out August 1st.

Three abandonment cases were tried in police court Friday and all of the cases were adjusted with the payment of the costs. The three couples notified court officials that they had settled their differences and the defendants were discharged with the payment of the costs.

L. V. Elliott, register of deeds, has completed the task of computing taxes for the year. "The work was done in ten days working time," Mr. Elliott always is one of the first register of deeds in the state to turn his books over to the sheriff.

The gang of workmen engaged on the hotel structure is putting in long hours now. Instead of stopping work at 5:30 each afternoon the men keep on until dark stops their labors. Fine progress has been made with the work during the past week.

At a meeting of the school board held Friday night, Mrs. Ora Hill was elected principal of Central Primary School and Miss Ruth Dry was elected acting principal of Central Grammar School until Miss Constance Cline is able to resume her work.

Pittsburgh won again Friday from Brooklyn while New York was losing to Cincinnati and Chicago was winning from Philadelphia in the National League. In the American League Chicago defeated Boston, Philadelphia and Cleveland split two games, St. Louis defeated Washington and Detroit won from New York.

Workmen have been engaged for the past several weeks putting the Concord-Monroe highway in shape since it has been taken over by the State Highway Commission. Signs are being painted at present with the number of the highway on them and placed on the road. The highway is No. 154.

Delsena Snyder, 76, died at the County Home Friday night about 10 o'clock and was buried this afternoon in Oakwood cemetery at 2 o'clock. Funeral services were held at the County Home prior to the burial. Her husband died 22 years ago and she is survived by no near relatives.

K. L. Craven, who has been confined to his home on West Depot street for several weeks by illness, entered the Presbyterian hospital in Charlotte today for treatment. Mr. Craven's condition has not been grave, but he has not been able to find relief from an old ailment and he entered the hospital where careful attention can be given his case.

H. S. Davis and G. C. Kennedy, both of Clarkesburg, W. Va., were visitors at the Times-Tribune office Friday afternoon. Mr. Davis has been employed in Clarkesburg as advertising manager of a newspaper and Mr. Kennedy was a linotype operator. Both had resigned and were on their way to Tampa, Florida, where they have secured work.

Chief of Police Talbirt states that he has recently turned over to the county board of education $2,699.63, which represented fines and forfeitures in city court here for the first six months of the present year. The figures are practically the same as for the last six months of 1924, the total then being $2,672.75. All money collected in the court except costs, goes to the school fund.

City officials state that about $13 and not $50 was given to the Mrs. Smith, from Lima, Ohio, who asked for aid here several days ago. The city gave part of the money, the county part and the Y. M. C. A. part, the total being a little more than $13. Although the woman was here one day last week and said she was hurrying home to a sick husband, officers say they saw her near Lexington on Thursday of this week.

John R. Blackwelder, well known farmer of the county, reports that since he purchased a bull dog recently he has missed no more chickens. "Thieves carried off some of my best hens and pullets several months ago, but I have missed no chickens or anything else since I put the dog on my farm." Mr. Blackwelder has been very successful with his poultry, selling eggs on the local market the year round.

R. Frank Brewer, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Brewer, of Concord, who has been with the engineering department of the New York Edison Co., ever since his graduation from Trinity College in 1920, has been promoted to the rank of engineer, being second to the chief engineer. Mr. Brewer's many friends in Concord and elsewhere will rejoice to learn of his well deserved promotion.

MASONIC NOTICE

Special communication of Stokes Lodge No. 32 on Monday evening at 7:45 o'clock. Work in the Second Degree. By order of the W. M. HOWARD L. COLLIE, Secretary.

A dog catcher leads a hard life. Cats are his only friends.

People are funny folks. Everybody looks down on somebody.

All's fair in love and war. Women used enough rouge last year to paint our navy.

And the women are painting their knees. It is sensible. Mosquitoes will get painter's cramps.

Bad Alabama news today. Car of eggs wrecked. And the hens working so hard in the hot sun.

But the world could be worse, much worse. Wouldn't it be terrible if you had to chew watermelon? (Copyright, 1925, NEA Service, Inc.)

Says Europe Is Center of the World's Troubles

Lake Junaluska, Aug. 6.—Describing Europe as the center of the world's trouble, Fred C. Woodard, young missionary, native of Tennessee, now located at Warsaw, Poland, declared that if the Christian church failed to do its duty, America would be forced to spend more money for warships and munitions and the blood of its sons to restore order out of chaos. He was addressing an audience here.

The young missionary declared that conditions in Europe "are a distinct challenge to every right-minded Christian" and that "there is no place where Christian missionaries with a service of friendship and brotherhood in their lives are more needed or appreciated."

"The Methodist Episcopal Church South, first entered Europe to do relief work after the war. Two years ago it organized a native church for religious and moral extension in Belgium, Czechoslovakia, and Poland, in which three fields it now has an approximate membership of 10,000. That, it is said, represents the largest membership gain in any section of the denomination in a similar time."

Mr. Woodard declared that governments and established churches had opposed Methodism but that it had made real headway, notwithstanding.

Secretary of Agriculture Jardine says that motor trucks are not hurting the railroads, by taking the short-haul business from them, as it never has paid the railroads.

Queen Mary's favorite dance is the waltz, possibly because she dances it best, and at Court functions very little beside the waltz is danced. "Jazz" dances are a pet aversion of her Majesty.
