BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY... Bible thought's reminder will prove a refreshing beverage in after years.

ABUNDANTLY SATISFIED... They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of their house; and they shall make them drink of the river of their pleasures.

SHOULD STREET BE USED AS A "DUMPING GROUND?"... Many protests have been heard recently against the practice of dumping trash from the street cleaner at the intersection of Barbrick and Spring streets.

The Modern Flapper... A Traveler in Elkin Tribune... The girls at Randolph-Macon not being allowed to "roll their own" reminds me of a little incident that happened in the coach of a little "shoo fly" train between here and Winston-Salem the other day.

WHAT WILL BE THE FATE OF THE STREET CAR?... Much interest has been aroused over the fate of Concord's street car system. The North Carolina Public Service Company which owns and operates the system has advised the city that it is losing money daily with the line and that unless the city wants to take it over, it would like to cease operations.

Founded by a Falsehood... London, Aug. 10.—How a false accusation led to the founding of a chapel in a village in the west of England has been recalled by the celebration of the founding centenary by one of the servants of the local landowner.

MAIL FOR THE "LONELIEST ISLAND" Receipt of News From the Outside World... London, Aug. 5.—Announcement is made by the general post office that a mail will be despatched tomorrow for Tristan da Cunha, the little speck jutting out of the South Atlantic Ocean.

The Penny Tip, the Millions Gift, Charlotte Observer... Every once in a while when Mr. Rockefeller goes his way on northern estates or southern golf links, the newspaper every story of his distribution of "tips" in new 10-cent pieces.

To Add 120 Rooms to Hotel Charlotte, Charlotte Observer... Addition of 120 rooms to the Hotel Charlotte is a prospect that looms in the not very distant future.

"WORTHITS WEIGHT IN GOLD" Says Concord Woman Praising HERB JUICE... Nervous Indigestion Overcome.—Wants Other Sufferers to Know About It.

WALKER TO MAKE RACE AGAINST MAYOR HYLAN... Major General Charles W. Berry, of Brooklyn, was elected as candidate for the office of Mayor of the City of New York.

liability and not an asset to the city. A representative of the service company appeared before the aldermen last week and was assured the city officials anxious to reach a decision that would be of mutual benefit to the city and the street car owners.

Mary Louise Spas will not get part of the Browning fortune. It has been determined without a doubt that she is at least 21 years of age and the millionaire who adopted her under the impression that she was 16, is willing for her to go back to her natural surroundings.

Bob saw Jim walk starkly into a tree, stagger back, and fall heavily. tombs, for Jim Fowler was dead to the sounds of reality, of the storm and the world. He plodded stiffly, chin in, shoulders square and arms by his sides as a corpse might walk.

CHAPTER III—Continued From that stuffy parlor into the unsheltered outer night was only a step, but it carried Bob into a different world. He was glad to get out, though, and to offer his bare head and naked cheeks to the cleansing vigor of the elements.

Bob was unfamiliar with the topography of the local countryside, but its general conformation here led him to suspect a cliff, after the characteristics of the surrounding territory with which he had become familiar in his short life as a tramp.
