LOCAL MENTION

L. T. Hartsell, Jr. is confined to his home on Spring street on account of illness.

The weekly meeting of the Concord Rotary Club will be held at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow at 12:30 o'clock.

Mrs. M. G. White and daughters, Misses Rachel and Ruth, and Sarah Frances Crech have gone to Richfield to spend several days.

The condition of little Miss Annie Elizabeth Brown, who has been confined to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Layton Brown, on North Church street, is greatly improved.

Marriage licenses were issued to the following couples Monday by Register of Deeds Elliott: D. B. Talbirt and Miss Grace Hodson, both of Concord; and Ernest Query and Miss Bessie Caldwell, both of Concord.

Friends of Allie Wineoff were glad to see him on the streets again after an absence of several months, during which time he was confined to his home on Douglas Avenue on account of illness.

Miss Ruth Moore was injured Monday afternoon while driving on the Mt. Pleasant road. She fell from the automobile when the door opened. She was badly bruised but no bones were broken.

A swimming circus will be held at the Y. M. C. A. Friday night at which time all the best swimmers and divers will be seen in action. It is probable that several champions from Charlotte will be here for the performance also.

Franklin Avenue has been widened between the property of Mrs. B. F. Rogers and G. S. Klutz. Two trees which formerly stood on the street have been removed and the cement walls which surrounded them have been removed, thus widening the street several feet at that point.

"Abandonment cases are increasing here rapidly," a police officer said this morning. "Last week four abandonment cases were reported to local officers and another was reported this morning." The officer added that he had never before known so many cases of this kind in this city.

In the first game with Fayetteville the Kannapolis team was defeated Monday 6 to 2. Ferguson pitched fine ball for Kannapolis until the seventh inning when he allowed several hits. Kannapolis could not hit in the pinches, say reports of the game.

The Giants climbed nearer the lead in the National League Monday by defeating Philadelphia while Pittsburgh was idle. In the American League only one game was played, Detroit losing to Chicago. In the Southern League Atlanta took the lead by winning from New Orleans. In the South Atlantic Spartanburg won from Charlotte.

J. A. Cline, Robert E. Lee, Mrs. J. W. Lee and H. B. Troutman have sold to the City of Concord property extending from East Corbin street to a point on the old R. A. Brown property. The land will be used by the city as a street, connecting East Corbin street with South Union street. The new street will be known as Hahn street.

Fifteen cases were tried in police court Monday. One was for operating a car without license, one for seduction, two for speeding, five for gambling, four for intoxication, one for operating a car while intoxicated and one for reckless driving. Fines and costs amounted to $207, of which $105 was paid. The other must be paid by Wednesday or new sentences will be given.

A. T. Allen, state superintendent of public instruction, is a visitor in Concord today, having come to the city to confer with the county board of education and committeemen of high schools in the county. He attended a conference of the board and committeemen at the high school building, adding suggestions as to how a new system of high schools can be organized in the county.

It is desired and expected that every township in the county be represented at the County Sunday School Convention at St. Stephens Church Thursday. The county has had the distinction of being one of the few in the state who have made the honor roll for the past several years, and this record must be kept for this year. All officers, teachers, superintendents are delegates by virtue of their offices.

A Londoner with a reputation as a pugilist had gone from London to fight a Scot farmer whose great strength had been praised in the press. He entered the yard of the Scot, tied his horse to a tree and approached the farmer who was working nearby. "Friend," he said, "I have heard a great deal about you and I came a long way to see which of us is the better wrestler."

The Scotman, without answering seized the young man by the middle of the body, pitched him over the fence and returned to his work. When his lordship recovered his breath he stood silent. "Well," said the farmer, "have you anything more to say to me?" "No," was the reply, "but perhaps you'll be good enough to throw me my horse."

Consider These Things.

A Toronto, Canada, doctor asks us to—

Consider the robust health enjoyed by the cow on a strictly vegetarian diet.

Consider the splendid physical condition of any number of animals that never bathe.

Consider the teeth of the tiger, never subjected to brushing or dentistry.

Consider the vigor attained by so many denizens of the forest precisely through refraining from man's many inventions.

The elephant does not cook his food. The ibex does not wear clothes or boots. The giraffe does not undermine its eyesight by poring over fine print.

Occasionally, to be sure, bewilderment arises between rival schools of health drawing their lessons from rival mammalia. The elephant is mighty because he is a vegetarian. The lion is king of the forest because he lives on raw meat.

If it Pays These to Advertise, It Will Pay You

Newspaper advertising has all the other forms backed off the boards, including the billboards.

The largest firms in the country are spending their millions in the newspapers because they have discovered that these are the most effective agencies for reaching the people with their stores.

Here is the way some of the greatest concerns spread their money for advertising in the papers and magazines: Victor Talking Machine Company $1,900,000 in newspapers, $1,124,310 in 31 leading magazines.

Ford Motor Company, $2,000,000 in newspapers, $186,600 in magazines. Postum Cereal Company, $275,000 in newspapers, $1274,830 in magazines.

Chevrolet Motor Car Company, $1,650,000 in newspapers, $552,065 in magazines. Dodge Brothers, $1,200,000 in newspapers, $641,000 in magazines.

Colgate and Co., $1,500,000 in newspapers, $186,000 in magazines. Calumet Baking Powder Company $1,400,000 in newspapers.

Standard Oil Company of California, $500,000 in newspapers. William Wrigley, Jr., and Co., $1,250,000 in newspapers. Literary Digest $500,000 in newspapers.

Union Pacific Railway Company

$570,000 in newspapers.

The July issue of Advertising and Selling contained the above figures and list of concerns, together with a catalogue of 60 of the largest firms in the United States which spent in 1924 in newspapers, $32,834,940 and in magazines $20,434,111.

If it pays the greatest business in the country to advertise in the newspapers it will pay the smaller proportionately.

Too Late. Oh, George! George! Come! Startled out of his night George sprang from his bed at the sound of his wife's voice.

George! Oh, George! His wife was in peril. She whom he loved better than life itself—his young wife, his first and only love!

George! Quick! He scrambled into his clothes. Not a moment was to be lost. He must save her. George! George! George!

At last he was on his way down, three stairs at a time, to arrive breathless in the dining-room. Ah! George, you are too late! Too late. Too late?

Yes, baby had his toes in his mouth and he looked too cute for words! Why didn't you come when I called?

Quaker Heat is Quicker Heat—and Cleaner too

The Quaker Pipeless Furnace is built of heavy riveted boiler plate steel—and steel radiates heat three times as fast as cast iron. That is why Quaker heated homes are always so comfortable on cold mornings. Just open the draft and up through the Quaker Register pours an enormous volume of warm, pure, clean air. Before you buy a furnace, find out about the

"The Pipeless Furnace that is built of Steel"

It not only gives you quicker heat but more of it from the same fuel. Every corner of every room is warmed thoroughly. It's cleaner too because every joint is riveted tight like a steam boiler. Can't leak gas, soot or ashes like the cement joints of cast iron furnaces do. Fire pot is lined with high temperature fire bricks. Hold heat extra long. Won't crack nor burn out. Handy water filter outside of furnace keeps air moist and pure. The Quaker is the ideal heating plant for homes, schools, churches and stores. Easily and quickly installed in any old or new building.
