LOCAL MENTION

Mrs. Chas. Goodman, who is undergoing treatment at the Badin Hospital, is improving now.

According to a deed filed Thursday Mrs. Addie E. Foll and Mrs. Pearl Roger Lafferty have sold their interests in property in No. 8 township to L. E. Boger for $15,000.

Q. E. Smith, city engineer, reports that plans for all houses in the city have been purchased by the city and will be put on as soon as they arrive.

A water carnival, starting with animals of the deep and other features, will be staged at the Y. M. C. A. tonight at 7:30 o'clock.

No official weather bureau is maintained in Concord but it is known that temperatures here climbed over the 100-degree mark Thursday.

Kannapolis got revenge on Fayetteville by winning the first game of the series in Kannapolis. The two teams will play again today and tomorrow.

Police officers of the city reported this morning that no cases were docketed for trial in recorder's court this afternoon, therefore no session of the court will be held.

R. O. Walters and Dr. T. N. Spencer are spending the day in Raleigh, going to the capital for a bus hearing.

J. A. Walker has been given the contract by the city to patch a number of street gutters in the city.

Pittsburgh increased its lead in the National League Thursday by defeating Brooklyn while New York was losing to Chicago.

Colored persons returning from the swimming pool south of Concord are quieter now, police officers say.

Sought Pay For Sinning

Like most religious people, Jefferson Davis Lawson, of No. 3620 Pilgrimage street, admits that it is a sin to violate the Third Commandment.

Lawson appeared before Judge MacNelle in "Poor Man's Court" last night to complain against Wiley Kelly, of No. 3532 Warren street, a contractor, who, he alleged, owed him $15 for doing a Sunday job.

Judge MacNelle, it appeared did not think much of Lawson's ethics and told him so frankly.

A young wife went into a grocer's shop and said: "I bought three or four hams here a month or so ago, and they were fine. Have you any more of them?"

Al—What's a tetrahedron? Bert—You mean an icosahedron? Al No, a tetrahedron.

COLE'S COUNSEL PROTESTS?

Despite the protest made by one member of the Cole defense counsel against a special session, it was not anticipated here that counsel will formally register opposition as the date recommended for the special session is only two weeks ahead of the regular term and any move for continuing the trial likely will be made before the court.

The Raleigh post of the American Legion, if called upon, probably would make a contribution to a fund for the employment of an attorney to aid in the prosecution of Cole, Paul H. Fish, post commander, said tonight.

Down in Rockingham Saturday a wealthy and prominent citizen walked up to a poor incapacitated ex-serviceman and without a word of comment poured three bullets into his body, causing death instantly.

But, according to dispatches from Rockingham in the morning papers, his cell is being "fitted up" so that he will be "comfortable" and he will await trial in a "specially furnished cell."

The cell which is good enough for one prisoner should be good enough for another, wealth, environment and prominence notwithstanding.
