Riot in Charlotte on Christmas Day, 1875.
The Rocky Mount Telegram has a column in which it publishes news that occurred fifty years ago. In its last issue it had the following headed, "Riot in Charlotte":
"A bloody riot occurred in Charlotte on Christmas Day. A policeman attempted to arrest some drunken and disorderly negroes and being resisted summoned some other bystanding negroes to help him. This they flatly refused to do and when he had summoned and received the assistance of a posse of white men, the negroes rushed upon them and attempted to rescue the prisoners. This led to a general riot, in which clubs, knives, pistols and guns were used and some two or three of the negroes were killed and others were wounded. One white man received slight wound. The greatest excitement prevailed and fears were entertained that the negroes would attempt to carry into execution threats made during their madness, but the town was at once put under strict police and quiet and peace was maintained."

JOHN W. CLINE DIES AT HOME IN CONCORD

Had Been Seriously Ill For Several Months With Heart Trouble.—Funeral Service Tomorrow.

John W. Cline, for a number of years one of the most successful business men of the city, died at his home on East Depot street this morning at 4:30 o'clock, death being caused by heart trouble with which he had suffered for a number of months. Mr. Cline's condition had been slightly improved for several days and while his friends realized the seriousness of his condition they did not know there had been a change for the worse and the announcement came as a shock to them.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock at Central Methodist Church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. W. A. Jenkins. Rev. Mr. Keller, of China Grove, will assist and interment will be in Oakwood cemetery.

Mr. Cline was 57 years of age, having been born in No. 5 township, this county, February 13, 1868. He was a son of the late James and Margaret Cline. He was married on March 15, 1888, to Miss Lela Phillips, who with two children, Mrs. Ernest Hicks and Harvey Cline, survive.

Mr. Cline spent his early life on the farm, having moved to Concord about 18 years ago. For a number of years he was owner of a grocery concern here, which bears his name and which was successfully managed by him.

Early in life Mr. Cline joined the Gilead Reformed Church, later moving his membership to the Kellee Reformed Church, which he aided in building. After moving to Concord he became a member of Trinity Reformed Church, but moved his membership to Central Methodist Church several years ago. He was active in church work and all civic projects, and was in all respects one of the county's best citizens.

In addition to his wife and children the deceased is survived by one sister, Mrs. Alice Brantley, of Mooresville, and two brothers, Robert F. Cline, of No. 5 township, and C. P. Cline, of this city. Several brothers and sisters, and also several half-brothers, preceded him to the grave.

Two half-brothers of Mr. Cline fought with the Union forces during the War Between the States, and one-half-brother and one full brother fought with the Confederate forces.

Mr. Cline's family has been prominently identified with the life of Cabarrus county for a number of years and the announcement of his death cast a pall of sorrow on his wide circle of friends and relatives.

Honorary pall bearers will be: A. S. Dayvault, D. B. Coltrane, A. S. Webb, C. F. Ritchie, W. F. Goodman and J. B. Sherrill. Active pall bearers will be: D. Coltrane, A. F. Hartwell, W. R. Ward, C. B. Waggoner, J. F. Dayvault and J. L. Crowell.

Trains Surrender to Buses in New York Capital.

The street railway in Albany, N. Y., is supplanting its cars with buses, the first company, it is said, to voluntarily do so. Buses are making such enormous inroads into the business of electric railways that many authorities see the industry as doomed. Others disagree, and say the traffic problem will bring the electric car back.

School books and pencil sharpeners * new caps and little blouses! The child world is turning back to the classroom again. You mothers, if you only realized it, can help your children so materially in their progress through school.

Boys and girls need heartier breakfasts now—especially if they carry a cold lunch. Hot cereal, eggs or bacon, stewed fruit with graham bread toast, and milk or cocoa is none too much. If the children come home for luncheon, don't neglect to prepare at least one warm dish—soup or a vegetable or baked dish hot from the oven.
Provide good light for evening lessons. Gas light is mellowest and most restful of all. If you burn gas, equip the lights with new mantles. A study lamp is also a good investment.

Insist on a thorough hand washing with hot water and soap the minute the child comes in from school. Germs of all kinds ride away from the classroom on the excellent transportation provided by Willie's ten fingers. A ready supply of hot water from the instantaneous gas water heater makes children more easy to train in this habit of health and hygiene.
