SAME OLD THING.

Statesville Daily. The school vacation period is two-thirds gone, but since the vacation "problem" for school girls and boys is ever present the difficulties may be worthy of consideration. It is the Statesville Times that is remarkable: "Any school boy or girl ought to be able to earn at least $2 per day during vacation * * * But where are the jobs for them and would they take the jobs at moderate wages if they had the opportunity?" The statement that "any school boy or girl ought to be able to earn at least $2 a day during vacation" taken in too much territory. Many couldn't earn that, even if they had the job. There are always more boys and girls seeking jobs ("jobs" is used advisedly; it isn't always "work" they want) during vacation than there are places to fill. But The Times comes close to the real seat of the trouble when it asks if "they would take the jobs at moderate wages if they had the opportunity." The main difficulty is that so many of the youngsters are too "choosy." If offered a job they want to know its character and what they are to be paid. Frequently neither suits them, and they go their way. Utterly failing to recognize the fact that they are as a rule inexperienced and can't earn as much as persons of experience, they demand the limit in pay. Frequently kind-hearted persons give jobs to these young people, simply to help them along, when they aren't really needed, only to find to their disgust that the youngsters feel that they are conferring a favor rather than receiving one. In addition to being unwilling to work for modest wages until they have demonstrated the capacity to earn, and unable to realize that they must gain experience at the expense of the employer, many of the youngsters are very particular about the character of their work. They won't take on the work of a menial, unable to realize that any honorable work is honorable and that the humblest task may be dignified, glorified, by the industry and the efficiency with which it is performed. And so it is that the humbler tasks are often more numerous than the workers, while the school people looking for vacation jobs complain they can get no work, in which complaint many well meaning but ill-advised people are all the time joining. But, prise be, there are many youngsters who are willing to do their best at any task assigned, who are willing to demonstrate their ability to earn before they say much about pay. These are the future successes, the future captains of industry, the men and women who will run the world. There are not too many of them. There is room in the ranks—always room in the ranks of those who have the will to try.

MADE A WELL MAN OUT OF ME

Concord Cotton Mill Man Says HERB JUICE Is Best Laxative He Ever Used.

"Your HERB JUICE has convinced me beyond a doubt that it is truly a wonderful worker and does give almost instant relief in the most severe cases of stomach and kidney trouble, and knowing from experience what it will do, I gladly add my name to help further its cause," said Mr. O. L. Broom, highly connected with the Brown Cotton Mill, Concord, N. C., when he called to see the HERB JUICE man a short time ago. "Before I commenced using HERB JUICE," I continued Mr. Broom, "I had been a constant sufferer for a number of years with stomach and kidney troubles. I could not sleep well at night on account of indigestion and would have to be up several times during the night because I was bothered so much with my kidneys. This broke me up of my rest and sleep and I would arise in the morning all worn out and feeling worse than when I went to bed. It is needless to say that I tried many different kinds of medicines, but never found any genuine relief until I started taking HERB JUICE, which I must admit is a truly wonder worker. The first few doses relieved me of the heavy burning feeling after eating and now after using it for some time, I feel as well as I ever did, bowels and kidneys are regular, I sleep splendidly at night and get up in the morning feeling fit and ready for a hard day's work. HERB JUICE has improved my general condition of health so much and restored my health after other medicines had failed, that I feel as though it is my duty to recommend it to other sufferers that they too may know about it, take it, and be benefitted in the same way. I expect to keep a bottle in my home from now on, when I need a good laxative, it will be HERB JUICE for me. My wife is also using HERB JUICE with wonderful results and thinks it is the best laxative and system builder on the market." HERB JUICE is sold and guaranteed to give satisfaction or money refunded by Gibson Drug Store.
