

Names of Contestants In Subscription Campaign Soon To Be Published

If You Want to Enter This Race It Is Necessary That Your Name Be Handed In.

YOUR NAME WANTS TO BE IN THE LIST

Watch The Tribune and Times for the First Announcement of the Candidates to Date.

Within a few days, now, the list of names of people who have accepted nominations in the Concord Tribune Times $10,000 race will be published. This list will mean something to some, while to others the real significance will not be apparent. It is really important that all those who are considering participating in this contest enter as early as possible. Experience shows that with the first list of names the people of the city and country territory immediately elect to support a certain favorite. So your name should be there to draw attention to that support you can expect.

Those who have been following from time to time the publicity on the slow progress of this campaign, in which $10,000 must be given away in automobiles and cash at the end of a few weeks, have no doubt noticed the repeated efforts to impress the fact that there is little room for any living person who wishes a car or a share of the thousands of dollars in cash for their spare time efforts. It seems, however, that it has little effect as that situation still exists and perhaps it will continue until many of you who are considering have had the opportunity to see in black and white just how many who and from what sections the few candidates are entered.

Of course, that list of names will be names only. In a great percentage of the cases, as there are now many active candidates, that in candidates' names are not yet ready and nothing can be said. But we still have faith in the people of this part of the state in believing they will not allow any of the big prizes to go begging for someone to claim them. There are still winners to be chosen in this campaign and that means that the man who gets now before the campaign has gained any momentum, will be those in a position to claim their choice of the big prizes. Remember that there is all the way from a few dollars to $200 a week to be earned by those who get into this great effort now and carry on.

The campaign department office at room 230, Calumet Savings Bank building in town from 8 a. m. until 9 p. m. is to be of service to candidates and prospective workers. There is no obligation incurred in acquainting yourself with the details of this offer and if you are on the fence as to participating in this campaign, do yourself the justice of at least finding out about it.

Watch The Tribune and Times for the first announcement of the names of the candidates to that date.

Accident Prevention Campaign.

Durham, Sept. 17.—A state-wide accident prevention campaign, launched here Monday by the Carolina Motor Club to continue throughout the week, has the cooperation of more than a dozen civic, commercial and educational organizations, under the direction of the municipal recreation and playground commission. "Safety Week" here is the first serious, sustained effort in North Carolina to cut down the accident toll that reached 22,000 in America last year, according to C. T. Matthews, director of accident prevention of the club, who has delivered a number of addresses here.

Mr. Matthews quoted United States government statistics disclosing that Durham ranked next to Wilmington for lowest traffic accident per 1,000 population. In 1924, Mr. Matthews said, there were only 300 automobiles in the United States while this year there were more than 17,000,000. City streets, it was suggested, have not been widened sufficiently to absorb this huge increase in traffic. In 1924, he pointed out, there were only 354 accidents, but sixteen years later, at the total was 22,000.

Mr. Matthews said that the accident toll in the city was 22,000. The accident toll in the city was 22,000. The accident toll in the city was 22,000. The accident toll in the city was 22,000.

Poisonous Snakes

Julius Jerny, of San Antonio, Tex., is deadly poison to the most poisonous snakes. He has been bitten by 42 poisonous snakes in the last 20 years and every one of them has died in agony as a result. Jerny believes that his blood has become so poisoned that 20 years work with snakes that it now quickly poisons any snake that bites him. Doctors think it is always like that in periodic disease.

INSANITY PLEA DID NOT WORK

Defense Counsel Also Suggested That the Men Be Given Life Imprisonment But This Plea Failed.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Joseph Holmes and Jack Woods, two of five robbers who a few weeks ago invaded the fashionable Drake Hotel and staged a pistol battle in an attempt to hold up a party, were convicted today by a jury of murder of Frank B. Rody, hotel cashier, and given the death penalty.

The jury deliberated for more than nine hours, until nearly dawn today, and several times were reported deadlocked at 9 to 1 and 10 to 2 for a hanging verdict, the minority holding out for life imprisonment on the ground that the pair in issue.

The defense relied on the insanity plea and in the closing arguments declared there were many instances in which persons accused of murder had pleaded guilty and been sentenced only to life imprisonment.

The prosecution called 46 witnesses, many of whom identified the accused and named Holmes as the actual slayer. Confessions of both were read in the evidence.

Holmes and Woods, alias Wilson, with three others, terrorized the exclusive business on Chicago's "Gold Coast" at sea time, July 20th. Masked and armed with pistols and shotguns they held up a number of employees and engaged in running fights with the hotel detectives and traffic policemen from nearby Lake Shore Drive.

REPLACING SCRUB BULLS

A Total of 185 Bulls Placed in 777 Town Counties.

The bulls were placed in 777 town counties of Johnston, North Carolina, by farm agents of State College, assisted by the dairy extension office, says J. A. Arty, in charge of extension work for the college. This is the result of an intensive campaign conducted during the last months period beginning March 1st and ending September 1st of this year.

A complete cattle census of the counties was taken. In taking the census, the workers visited the individual farms and discussed the value of purebred bulls with the owners. In this way the scrub bulls were located, and a starting point established.

The defects of the scrub bulls were also pointed out, and in many cases the farmers bought purebred bulls during the taking of the census.

Campaigns were put on in Alamance, Randolph, Iredell, Rowan, Davidson, Forsyth, Mecklenburg, Union, Cleveland, Catawba, and Gaston counties. To push the work a fire prize of all expenses to the National Dairy Show in Indianapolis October 10th to 17th was offered by Mr. Arty, and a second prize of half the expenses to the same show.

These prizes were for the county agents placing the greatest number of purebred bulls in their respective counties.

County Agent W. Kerr Scott, of Alamance, won first prize and will be awarded a silver trophy cut offered by the American Jersey Cattle Club. The second prize went to Elving Millsaps, county agent in Randolph, who, in addition to half the expenses to the dairy show, will receive a silver trophy cut offered by the National Guernsey Cattle Association.

The third largest number of bulls was placed by E. W. Grasher, of Iredell county.

Chicago to Fight Crime With Music, Mayor Says.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Music instead of police force to maintain peace in the community is proposed by Chicago Mayor Dwyer, who has started an investigation of musical means employed in European cities to keep people happy and out of trouble.

Civic musical centers could be provided by the city with great benefit, he said. Opera stars and others would, he believes, be willing to donate their services. It is better to spend money for such places than for police, men, clubs and jails.

THE COTTON MARKET

Opened Firm on Renewal of Yesterday's Late Buying Movement.

This advance met heavy realizing which apparently was absorbed on reactions of 10 to 15 points, and the market showed renewed firmness at the end of the first hour. It seemed traders who had taken the profits on the mid-week reaction were rebuying while there was covering by recent sellers for a reaction coupled with reports of price fixing for the trade.

Woman's Home at Albemarle Is Dynamited; Her Son Accused

Albemarle, Sept. 16.—One of the most blood-thirsty attempts at murder ever perpetrated in the history of Stanly county was that last night when some one, thought to be the woman's son, fired a stick of dynamite under the home of Mrs. Jane Broadway, who lives in the extreme northwestern section of Albemarle. The explosion took place between 10:30 and 11 o'clock, and was so severe that it was heard all over the city, although the circumstances were known to only a few Albemarle people until this morning.

As soon as the explosion was heard the local police got on the job, with Sheriff R. N. Furr. The sheriff and a deputy started immediately for Thomasville, the home of Will Broadway, son of the woman whose home was dynamited, the victim having informed the officers that she was satisfied the rally seven years ago was her son. The man was tracked down to Albemarle and when the sheriff arrived at Broadway's home in Thomasville, the radiator of his car was still hot. He was arrested.

Broadway, who is a married man about 30 years old, told the sheriff, it is said, that he had been at the home of his uncle, and that he left there about 9 o'clock. The sheriff took him to the home of the uncle and was told by him that Broadway left his home about 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon instead of at 9 o'clock last night as the prisoner claimed was the case. He was brought to Albemarle and lodged in jail.

A Deliberate Attempt. Looking at the wrecked home, one can't have a doubt as to the intent of the person who dynamited it. The head of the bed in which Mrs. Broadway was sleeping was in fact immediately over the place where the explosion was fired. The iron bed was wrecked the rolling having been twisted into a snarl. The bed was turned over, the mattress torn in pieces and set on fire. Mrs. Broadway was blown into the middle of the room, where she was found in an unconscious condition by P. L. Maberry, a barber, a European-style dresser, who had been called to the scene with her on her way out of town, through the door, which

Fate Of Unification Will Be Known Soon

At Conference of Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 17-19.

VOTING IS CLOSE AT THE PRESENT

Various Conferences in the South Already Have Taken Action on the Proposed Merger.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 17.—(AP)—The fifteenth conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, which meets in October, with the Holston and Louisville conferences which convene September 30th, will largely determine the success or failure of the pending plan of Methodist unification. With the adjournment of the Missouri conference September 14th the vote on unification stood 211 in favor, 370 against the measure, the Missouri conference polled the largest vote of any conference which has met to date, voting 196 to 14 in favor of unification. The Holston and Louisville conferences are as large if not larger than the Missouri, but the issues in these conferences are more sharply drawn.

The Holston is the first of Bishop Edwin Monson's conferences to convene. The result in the Tennessee and Memphis, the other two conferences over which the unification leader had jurisdiction, is said to be extremely doubtful.

In the Kentucky conference which met recently, the merger plan was lost by one vote, the poll being 87 for, and 88 against. Bishop U. V. W. Darlington, one of the 5 minority bishops opposed the plan, is president of the two conferences in Kentucky. The Western North Carolina conference convenes at Statesville October 14th.

Approves Unification. Flint, Mich., Sept. 17.—(AP)—The Detroit conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church today voted 229 to 120 for unification with the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. Admission of laymen to the future sessions also was approved.

COMFUSHEE BECOMES PEER

Earl of Portsmouth and Family Only Living Descendants of Sir Isaac Newton.

London, Sept. 17.—The death of the Earl of Portsmouth, and the succession to the title of his younger brother, Oliver Henry Walpole, who for many years has resided in Wyoming, have aroused considerable discussion in England, as the family is one of the most ancient in the kingdom, having settled in Hampshire long before the Norman conquest. Also of interest is the fact that the new Earl and his family are the only living descendants of Sir Isaac Newton, whose niece was married to a son of the first Earl of Portsmouth.

The reports that the new Earl, soon after taking up his residence in Gody, Wyo., back in 1906, has taken the oath of allegiance to the States and at the same time renounced his rights to the earldom of Portsmouth, are more interesting than important. The fact that the Hon. Oliver is leaving Wyoming and coming over to take possession of the title and estates of his deceased brother shows that he is wise to the law covering such cases. While he may have become a citizen of the United States, as stated, he could not under any circumstances renounce his rights to the earldom. Under the English law he has no legal power to make such renunciation of his inheritance of a peerage, so that with the death of his brother he becomes Earl of Portsmouth, Viscount Lymington, and Lord Walpole, whether he likes it or not. But as an American citizen he will not be permitted to take his seat in the House of Lords until he has taken steps to recover his English citizenship.

With his new titles the one-time Wyoming cowboy will come into possession of a large fortune. Something like $300,000, it is estimated. With the high school and college education at Faru Life school, Thomas was a red letter day educationalist in Rowan county.
