Edward Sauvain suggested the need of diversified industries—industries that would not be effected by depres-sion in the textile industry. C. F. Ritchie said that he wanted to back up what his brother members had said, and he added a suggestion about the treatment of strangers in the city. Strangers should be met with the kindliest consideration— "make them feel that they are wel-come," that we are glad to have them and want them to come again," said the speaker. Rev. WEEKLY MEETING OF THE CONCORD ROTARY CLUB Nithers, -, isitors prom Green-ville, S. C., Heard. ' Five minute talks by four members and a brief talk by J. E. Sirrine, of Greenville, S. C., were high lights in the weekly meeting of the Concord Rotary Club yesterday. The club members talked on "What Should Be Bone to Improve Concord," and Mr. Sirrine chose his own subject. C. B. Waggner stressed the need of a live real estate dealer in Concord, to encourage the selling of real es-tate to prospective Home owners. He said that while the, building and hom associations had done much to en-courage home owning, that a live real-tor or company could do a great deal more.

The revival started in a great way Wednesday night. There was another parge congregation present, and the power of God was there in a mighty way. Seven were reclaimed and professed faith in Christ. The Soster Choir is singing fine. Rev C. K. Turner, of Kannapolis, was present. He and Mr. Fry sang a duet: "Drifting Over Life's Seas." which was soul-stirring and uplight-ing.

Christ? First, by living a Christian life yourself. The great hindering cause today is we have such poor Christian living. We need more home religion. How is your home life? A man or woman's religion that doesn't shine at home is not worth much. Listen, boother, we need more families that will erect the old family altar and pray with the children in the home.

Mr. Payne, the evangeist, preach-er a powerful sermon on the subject "Bringing Some One to Jesus." from John 1:42, and he brought him ta-Jesus. He said in part: Prayer and personal work are the foundation of every reviral meeting. When the Lord can use us here no longer He has a better place for us. The first thing that Andrew did when he found Jesus, he went and brought Simon Peter, his brother, to Jesus. The greatest thing that you or I ever did or ever will do is to bring some one to Jesus. There is no mar or woman that goes up or dawn alone we carry some one else with us. How can we bring some one else to Christ? First, by Hving a Christian life turity period. "Choice," it seems to me, 'ns the most potent word in our language; for upon choice depends the consequence of all human acts. Choice and re-sponsibility are inseparably joined. The privilege of "choice" is a chal-lenge to the human race.
