

The Concord Daily Tribune

J. B. SHERRILL Editor and Publisher W. M. SHERRILL, Associate Editor MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Concord, N. C., under the Act of March 3, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES In the City of Concord by Carrier: One Year $6.00 Six Months 3.00 Three Months 1.50 One Month .50

RAILROAD SCHEDULE In Effect June 28, 1925. No. 40 To New York 9:28 P. M. No. 136 To Washington 5:05 A. M.

Supply in the South is so small that not over a few thousand pounds could be found early this week in all of Gaston county, North Carolina.

SHOULD HAVE SAID NOTHING. Secretary of State W. N. Everett says he was misunderstood in his first statement about the Cole-Ormond case.

Approves Prayers For Rain. The Presbyterian Standard, instead of seeing any threatened invasion by political officials in religious affairs, says "it delights our heart, in these days of moral lassitude, to see public men recognizing the value of prayer in our daily life."

GETTING RID OF SCRUB CATTLE. A campaign has just been conducted in fifteen counties of Piedmont North Carolina for the purpose of replacing scrub cattle with pure bred stock.

Where's the Woman? R. R. Clark in Greensboro News. In Wilson superior court a man convicted of second degree murder was about to be sentenced when a man hurried into the presence of the court and declared:

Time to Take a Firm Stand. The occurrence near Monroe Sunday morning when a mob took a white man from his home and performed an operation upon him, is still another indication of the rapidly growing disrespect for law.

Modern Marriage Problems. A Macfadden Publication in its October issue has a very interesting article by Madison Munroe "Dangerous Wives."

Will the Drought Prove a Blessing? Quite a number of cotton mill men are of the opinion that the drought will prove a blessing to their industry by reason of the fact that it has necessitated a curtailed power schedule, which has forced the mills to stand two days a week throughout this section.

NEGRO ANGRY AT WIFE. USES A KNIFE ON HER. She is Taken to Hospital While He Escapes—Clubs to Hold Contest. Salisbury, Sept. 17.—Angered at his wife, Alberta, because she would not provide him food, James Davis, a negro, attacked the woman with a knife and inflicted very severe wounds about the body and legs.

SHERIFF FURR FEARED THE PEOPLE'S ANGER. Will Broadway Spirited Out of Albemarle by Officer. Albemarle, Sept. 17.—Fearing a mob last night, Sheriff R. N. Furr spirited Will Broadway, who was in jail here on a charge of having dynamited his mother's home Tuesday night, out of the county.

The Figures Lukeman Will Carve on Stone Mountain. We published a few days ago sculptural figures of Jefferson Davis, Robt. E. Lee and Stonewall Jackson as they appear in Augustus Lukeman's design for the central group of the Stone Mountain Confederate memorial, which was submitted to the board of directors at a special meeting held for that purpose in Atlanta August 27th.

METHODIST HOME WILL HAVE BABY COTTAGE. Contract is Awarded For New Building At Methodist Institution at Winston-Salem. Winston-Salem, Sept. 17.—Contract has just been awarded for the erection of the "baby cottage" at the Methodist Children home, the contract price being $30,000.

USE PENNY COLUMN—IT PAYS. Drainage Pipe Plumbing is probably the most important in the house. Upon its character the health and possibly life of the family may depend.

USE PENNY COLUMN—IT PAYS. Coal, Wood, Oil or Gas Stove To apply on the purchase of any Gas Range purchased from our stock. Sale ends September 30th.
