

FIRST VOTE SCORE

Candidates and Vote Scores Entered to Date in The Tribune - Times
$10,000 Automobile and Cash Circulation Campaign

Because of the seeming lack of effect of previous publicity having to do with the slow progress of this great gift offer, we have been forced to the conclusion that there must have been some skepticism on the part of some of the hundreds of people who must have been reading of it. It has been our purpose not to publish the list of candidates until some reasonably decent showing could be made, but we have not waited.

Instead, here is our hand, face up. Read it for yourself. What do you think of the progress so far now? You, who have harbored the idea that scores and scores had jumped into this truly rich campaign offer, can now judge for yourselves. And by far the greater part of those represented by names in the list below are names only. Few have done anything. There are still more capital prizes than there are active contestants. Now, you be the judge. What are you going to do about it? There's a prize here for you. Do you want it?

Many Sections Unrepresented

There are many parts of the City of Concord and of the outside districts which have not one single person entered in this campaign to claim the support of his or her community toward winning one of these wonderful automobiles or big cash prizes. Some live person in each one of these sections is overlooking one of the greatest opportunities which has ever been presented. Just a little of one's spare time consistently utilized right around home will start someone toward seemingly impossible profit within a few weeks. There are friends of your very own who are holding off choosing a favorite in this campaign pending the time someone in whom they have a greater interest announces his or her candidacy. You surely must appreciate the fact that the first one in from each section has the best chance of receiving the support close to home.

To Those Who Have Entered

You, who have been nominated in The Tribune-Times "Everybody Wins" Campaign, and expect to remain active and participate in the distribution of the valuable prizes. NOW, during the present BIG VOTE period, is the time to put forth your best effort and enhance your vote standing toward winning the prize of your choice. Bear in mind the first publication of vote standings in tomorrow's issue of The Tribune and have some votes to publish. All subscriptions cast up to tonight at 9 o'clock will be included in the first count Tuesday. Start now with the campaign.
