

HAPPINESS MUST BE EARNED

Douglas Fairbanks in 'THE THIEF OF BAGDAD'

Have you ever seen a Magic Rug soar above the city bearing a Thief and a Princess?

Have you ever seen a white horse with wings fly through the clouds?

Have you ever seen Magic ropes, live dragons and bats as big as elephants?

Have you ever seen an "invisible" cloak?

This beautiful story of romance and adventure abounds in happenings of astounding and unbelievable magic.

LOCAL MENTION

Norman M. Black is spending the day in Union county where he has gone on business for the North Carolina Co-operative Association.

According to a deed filed Tuesday at the court house B. L. Emberger and W. C. Houston have sold to R. S. Clontz property on McGill street for $1,600.

C. W. Byrd spent some time in Charlotte Tuesday afternoon with his mother, who is undergoing treatment in a hospital there. He reports that her condition has slightly improved since she entered the hospital.

Albemarle News-Herald: "Mr. A. J. Hahn, of Cabarrus county, was in Albemarle Saturday. Mr. Hahn says that his section is still dry and that many farmers are forced to haul water for domestic use."

George A. Ritchie has returned to Concord after six weeks in Chicago and Kansas City, where he was employed by the Hewitt Stock and Bond Company. He has accepted a position with the Charlotte Bank and Trust Company as assistant cashier.

Police officers this morning reported that several cases are docketed for trial in recorder's court this afternoon. Several of the cases were continued from former sessions of the court, it was stated, and those which developed since Monday are of little importance.

Among the Albemarle friends attending the funeral of T. D. Maness here Monday were Col. and Mrs. F. E. Starnes, Mr. and Mrs. G. D. B. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Parker and family, Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Book, Miss Louise Parker and Mr. O. J. Sikes.

Fred Isenhour, six months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Isenhour, of No. 4 Township, died at the home of his parents at 6 o'clock Tuesday evening, death being caused by colitis after an illness of a few days. The funeral was held this afternoon at four o'clock at Trinity Lutheran church.

The trial of H. M. Johnson against W. A. L. Smith was held here Tuesday before Judge G. M. Lane and a verdict of $70 for the plaintiff was returned. The defendant asked for a jury trial, the verdict being that of the jury. It was stated at the trial that the suit grew out of some sawing work done for the defendant.

The injuries of J. I. Rimer, who was burned Monday afternoon, are more serious than at first thought, according to reports today from his home. Muscles and leaders in his left wrist were burned so his fingers cannot be moved without being pulled out of place, it is reported, and he may lose the use of his hand.

The equinox seems to have much influence on the weather. At least there was a mighty change in temperatures here Tuesday and Tuesday night and wraps and blankets were used freely during the night, the change being credited by many persons to the equinox. The mercury stood at 66 here early this morning.

Work of preparing the free parking lot in the rear of the city hall has been started by the city. The lot will be attractively arranged and parking spaces will be laid out with the idea of getting as many cars on the lot as possible. It will be several days, perhaps, before the work is finished.

Pittsburgh and Washington both won Tuesday and need but three games each to clinch the pennants in the National and American leagues, respectively. As the teams have eleven more games to play there seems little chance of victory for any one else. The first game of the world series will be played in Pittsburgh on October 7th under present plans.

Police Officers Widenhouse and Sloop visited the home of Ed Byers on North Spring street Tuesday and discovered three and a half pints of liquor, it was reported at police headquarters. Byers escaped while the officers were searching the house, making his getaway through a rear door and across a vacant lot to the rear of his home.

Good progress has been made with the excavation work on the athletic field at the high school. Much dirt has been moved and the playing field partially graded. The excavation has been made so a standard football and baseball field will be available for the athletic teams of the school. It is planned to complete most of the work this week.

A representative of the State labor department spent Tuesday here seeking cotton pickers for eastern North Carolina. It was stated that transportation expenses and $1.00 a hundred would be paid if as many as ten pickers could be secured in the county. However, there is a scarcity of labor in this county and no one so far has signed up for work in the east.

From Art to Gospel. Lexington Dispatch.

Many of those who through a period of years learned to know the late Judge B. F. Long as one of the ablest jurists of North Carolina are watching with much interest the work of his son, Rev. Mac Long, who is distinguishing himself in the ministry. Recently the young minister has been holding a revival at Harmony, over in Fredell, and a newspaper account of the meeting says that hundreds were converted or rededicated themselves to a more consecrated service in the church.

The Rev. Mac Long who is pastor of a big Presbyterian Church in Macon, has the charm of eloquence and the power of deep conviction that moves his hearers greatly, according to reports of his preaching.

There is a pretty story of how the young man laid down the artist's brush and took up the Bible. He had studied art under great teachers in this country and went abroad and studied in London, Belgium, France, Italy and Germany. In London the conviction came upon him that he was called to preach. Returning to his homeland after completing his studies in art, there appeared before him the prospect of great fame, wealth and adulation. Art is a thing of beauty, of proportion, and beauty and proportion are near to God. But even his love for the beautiful and the proportionate could not overcome that inward urging, so the young artist turned to the pulpit. His choice appears to be thoroughly vindicated in the work he is doing.

A Real Man. Monroe Enquirer.

A real man never talks about what the world owes him, or the happiness he deserves, and all that.

A real man is just as honest alone in the dark of his own room as he is in public.

A real man does not want pulls and favors. He wants work and honest wages.

A real man does not expect something for nothing, so the get-rich-quick people can not use him.

A real man does a little more than he promises.

A real man is dependable. His simple word is as good as his oath.

A real man is loyal to his friends, and guards their reputation as his own.

A real man can not hurt a woman, physically or morally. He sticks to his wife. He can be loyal even if love is impossible.

A real man judges his own business. He does not judge other persons beyond sure knowledge—not presuming to "search hearts."

A real man has excuses for others, never for himself. He is patient and charitable to others; to himself he is strict. A real man does not hunt danger, but never dodges it when he ought to meet it. A real man is glad to live and not afraid to die.

"Good morning, Mrs. O'Connor, and la Pat at home?" "Sure, and where are your eyes, Dirty Murphy? Isn't that his shirt hangin' in front of ye on the line?"

GOOD DISPOSITIONS INVALUABLE

You can't watch your disposition too carefully. A crab and a grouch are rarely successful. If your liver and stomach are in an unhealthy condition you can not have a sunny disposition because they affect the brain as well as the entire system. May's Wonderful Remedy has been usually successful in such cases. Our advice to every one troubled in this way, especially when accompanied with bloating in the stomach, is to try this remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis.
