MEMBERS OF MOB TO BE TRIED FRIDAY

All Except Seven of Thirty Persons Charged With Attack on Asheville Jail Are Arrested.

Asheville, Sept. 23.—It was announced by Solicitor J. Ed Swain here today that all those arrested charged with participating in the action of a mob which entered the county jail here Saturday night with the intention of lynching Avira Moore, charged with a criminal assault on a white woman which occurred that morning, would be tried Friday.

All but seven of the thirty men indicted had been arrested this afternoon and the sheriff is confident that the others will be apprehended by morning.

An attempted escape early this morning of fourteen of those arrested for being members of the mob was frustrated when guards discovered, before the men could get out, that two bars had been removed from the windows of the cell in which they were confined.

The trial of the negro, who was carried to Charlotte for safe keeping by Sheriff Mitchell Saturday night, is expected to come up at a special term of court which has been requested of the governor. According to present indications here, this term will be called November 2nd. The condition of the victim of the assault, who was struck on the head by a large flat rock, was so serious as to make the delay necessary, as she is unable to testify before the grand jury now.

Plenty of Room For More Candidates In Times-Tribune Big Subscription Campaign

In a Few Short Weeks the Biggest Vote Period of the Campaign Will Have Passed.

WHAT ONE NEW NAME WILL DO

If Candidates Do Their Part Now They Will Have No Cause for Worry as Campaign Ends.

The most important and vital days in the history of the short election of The Tribune and Times are now at hand. Nearer and nearer the big vote period is drawing to a close. In just a few short weeks the biggest vote making days will have passed beyond recall and from present indications some will be trailing in the oblivion of defeat and will be blaming themselves for not having taken full advantage of this all-important period.

It is not a question of subscriptions—it is a matter of votes and more votes are given NOW than at any other time during this short election. Just one NEW yearly subscription now is worth six new yearly subscriptions the last week of the race. If you do your part NOW, taking full advantage of the present vote possibilities, you will have no cause to worry about what John Jones is doing the last week of the race, during which time the subscriptions will be cast in a sealed ballot box, which will not be opened until the campaign has been declared closed. The seals will then be broken by the judges of the election and the final count will begin.

New Nominee Can Win

An absolutely new candidate can enter this election today and in a short time be on equal footing with the others. For an example, take one four-year subscription: This would entitle the holder to 150,000 votes for the subscription alone. Then there is the nomination vote of 5,000, the first subscription coupon of 20,000. Altogether totaling 175,000 votes to say nothing of the club vote and the bonus of 80,000 if it was a NEW subscription. Who is there to stop a new candidate from having an exceptional opportunity here for any five-wire, who wishes to participate in this attractive list of awards to be made in just a few short weeks?

All in the State of Mind

If you think you are beaten, you are. If you think you dare not, you don't. If you would like to win but think you can't, you are not. It's almost a cinch you won't. If you think you'll lose, you're lost. For out in the world you'll find success begins with a fellow's will. It's all in the state of mind.

Full many a race is lost

Er'e ever a step is run And many a coward fails, Er'e even his work is begun, Think big and your deeds will grow. Think small, and you'll fall behind; Think that you can, and you will— It's all in the state of mind.

You've got to think high to rise

You've got to be sure of yourself before You can ever win a prize, Life's battle don't always go To the stronger or faster man, For sooner or later the man who wins Is the fellow who thinks he can.

THE CAROLINA MOTOR CLUB

The North Carolina Organization the Largest in the South.

Greensboro, September 24.—Keeping pace with the phenomenal growth of the automotive industry which in 25 years has replaced steel as America's chief industry, the Carolina Motor Club this week is celebrating its third birthday.

September 22, 1922, a group of staunch Carolinians from throughout the state—a band of pioneers with courage and vision who realized the potentialities and need of such a club, founded the Carolina Motor Club. The late Emmanuel Sternberger, venerated Greensboro pioneer, was its first president and when he took office there was a deficit of $52. C. G. Armstrong, of Gastonia, was the second executive and C. S. Wallace, Morehead City, is the current president. C. W. Roberts has served as active vice president and secretary since the club's inception.

Consistent, substantial growth has placed the Carolina Motor Club in the first fifteen group of the American automobile association. With a membership of 6,243 the North Carolina organization is the largest in the South—with twice as many members as its nearest competitor. September 22, 1924, there were 3,561 members enrolled and the year before 1,704. "High pressure" methods are taboo and an encouraging feature and the chief fact that stamps the organization as substantial and worthwhile is the high percentage of renewals—a percentage that warrants the slogan: "once a member, always a member." More than 35 "gyp" clubs, so-called organizations that promise all and give nothing, have come into North Carolina during the three years and all have failed away while the Carolina Motor Club continues to grow steadily. Affiliation with the A. A. A. links it with 749 other clubs and gives members not only national but worldwide service.

Carrying out the basic idea of "service" several new departments have been recently added and others are contemplated as the increasing membership justifies. New and enlarged departments include: accident prevention, legal, research, public relations, license and touring.

Touring is at its peak this year as attested by the increased number of road information calls, maps used and routings furnished. More than 16,000,000 miles of routings—a distance 640 times the circumference of the earth—have been issued in the past year. One routing covered 10,000 miles, embracing a tour to Washington State, Mexico and return. More than 120,000 calls for road information, in person, by wire and letter were answered and 150,000 maps distributed.

SAY NOEL NOW IS SANE ENOUGH FOR TRIAL

Allenists Insist Kidnapper and Slayer Is Now Entirely Normal. Newark, N. J., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Harrison W. Noel, who according to his own confession kidnapped and shot to death six-year-old Mary Daly, sat in court today and impassively listened while State alienists testified that he is sane enough to stand trial for murder.

The experts asserted that they had repeatedly examined Noel and that in their opinion he is now entirely normal and capable of aiding counsel in his own defense. Merritt Lane, attorney for the youth, subjected each alienist to a severe grilling, but failed to shake his testimony.

Throughout the proceedings Noel sat impassively, his gaze roving aimlessly around the room, his long fingers playing languidly with his upper lip or fingering his frayed cuffs.

THE COTTON MARKET

The opening was steady at a decline of 8 points to an advance of 7 points. Active positions sold 13 to 16 points net higher shortly after the call on covering and trade buying promoted by the belief that yesterday's break had discounted the government crop report and that the larger yield figures would prove only a temporary check to business in the goods market.

December sold up to 23.82, but considerable hedging and liquidation eased prices back to about yesterday's closing figures before the end of the first hour.

Cotton futures opened steady. October 23.24; December 23.60; January 23.00; March 23.27; May 23.30.

MISSING GIRL LOCATED IN GREENSBORO HOSPITAL

No Indication That Miss Jenkins Left Meredith College With a Young Man. Raleigh, Sept. 23.—After a three-day search by welfare and police officials, Miss Elizabeth Jenkins, a Meredith College freshman who had been missing since Monday morning, was located this afternoon in a hospital at Greensboro.

The young woman left the college while other students were at breakfast Monday, taking with her all her personal effects. The college authorities first thought she had returned to her home, but when, upon communicating with her father, it was learned she was not there, the welfare officers and local police were asked to join in a search.

Investigation by the college it was reported, indicated that Saturday she had received a telegram from a young man reading, "have you forgotten?" and on Sunday he undertook to communicate with her at the college. Next morning she disappeared. In the report tonight that she had been located at Greensboro, there was no mention of the young man being connected with her departure.

French Mission Gets Ear of Government

WANTS FRANCE TO CEASE FIGHTING

Governor Blaine Does Not Want Debt Settlement Until France Stops Present War in Morocco.

Madison, Wis., Sept. 24.—(AP)—Gov. Blaine, of Wisconsin, today made public a telegram he sent to President Coolidge declaring that before conversations are entered upon with France upon settlement of the war debt, America should demand "a halt in this ruthless warfare between the French and Rifians in Morocco."

"Caillaux, French finance minister, landed in America today seeking extension of time of payment of French debts due America and reduction of interest thereon," the telegram said. "A few days ago dispatches carried the news that France had sent a fleet of 16 airships to fight the Rifians in Morocco, and France boasted that each airship dropped two tons of high explosives upon the homes of Moroccans, killing defenseless men, women and children.

"France is engaged in a competitive underbidding in building larger armies and navies and extending her territories in the exploitation of weaker and smaller nations. The ruthless warfare that France is making on the mountain folk of Morocco in the killing of non-combatants and women and children is nothing short of barbarism. Before conversations are entered upon with France on the debt settlement, America should demand a halt in this ruthless warfare. Before any confessions are made to France or any other foreign government, America should demand that they cease building larger armies and navies and cease their warfare on smaller and weaker peoples.

"To advance the time of payment of America's debt owing by France was done in the case of Great Britain, means that the American taxpayer is to be burdened for the benefit of foreign governments in the pursuit of foreign wars and exploitations. In the name of humanity and decency I protest the settlement of foreign debts until America has assurance that American dollars will not be used for more war and the murdering of helpless, defenseless women and children."

Large numbers of those who have made requests for tickets, and who forwarded cash to cover them, will have their money refunded, no tickets being available. Mr. Bramham stated and pointed out that, in this situation, of course he would be unable to fill those being filed now.

Red Cross Campaign For Sweaters For Ex-Service Men in Hospitals

As we stated in the announcement in last Friday's Tribune the American Red Cross has launched a campaign for 30,000 sweaters for ex-service men in government hospitals. The Cabarrus Chapter has been asked to furnish six sweaters—four with sleeves and two without sleeves. That is a very small quota for our Chapter, and it has already been oversubscribed thanks to the good people who have the interest of our ex-service men at heart. The reason for this campaign is the fact that the war time supply of sweaters has been exhausted, and by the time cold weather reaches us some of the men in the hospitals will suffer for lack of clothing if this provision of sweaters is not made. Many of the men take only the clothes on their back with them when they enter the hospitals. Hence the first cold pinch finds them without sufficient warm clothing. As stated, our quota has been subscribed already, but we are not limited in the amount we wish to give. I am quite sure many will like to knit a sweater, so the campaign will run a few days longer and give everyone a chance. The sweater with sleeves will cost you $2.55. The sleeveless sweater will cost you $1.45. The knitting is extra, of course, but it only means a few hours of your spare time. I will furnish anyone with full directions for knitting the sweaters, and as soon as it is known how many people will volunteer to knit a sweater, or pay for one and let some other person do the knitting, I will order the wool from headquarters in Washington, and the work can then proceed.

The following are the subscribers thus far: Mr. D. L. Best, Mrs. J. F. Cannon, Miss Elizabeth Gitsgo, Mrs. G. B. Lewis, Mrs. C. A. Cannon, Dr. Thomas Madison Rowlett, and Mr. W. A. Jenkins. Call The Tribune soon and tell them what kind of sweater you wish to make.

W. A. JENKINS, Chairman.
