Unusual

A very unusual headress is this in these days when hair long enough to braid is the exception. However, it is very picturesque, and one that is gaining favor in Europe, where, it is whispered, long hair is returning to favor.

War Mothers in Regular Meeting.
About thirty War Mothers gathered at the home of Mrs. A. M. Brown for their September meeting. The devotionals were conducted by Mrs. John Ritchie, and the meeting was then taken in charge by the War Mother, Mrs. John K. Patterson. The committee on Oteen reported receiving a letter from our boys in England, and the chapter for a treat of ice cream and cake furnished them.

The War Mothers appointed a committee composed of Mrs. Giles Crowell and Mrs. J. Lee Crowell to make plans for the sale of forget-me-nots in October. And now let all lovers of good music take notice, for plans are on foot for a concert to be given in the near future by the War Mothers. There will be an orchestra, songs by a chorus, solos, etc.

The most interesting event of the afternoon was the report of the National convention recently held in Philadelphia. Mrs. J. L. Hartsell, Mrs. G. W. Means and Mrs. Ridenbourn spoke in behalf of different phases of the convention.

The Mothers were heartily welcomed to the City of Brotherly Love where 500 delegates gathered. They were given reserved seats at Atlantic City to view the Beauty Pageant, visited Valley Forge, with its sacred memories, were given a concert at Vannamaker's and had their pictures taken near the grave of the Unknown Soldier at Washington.

After the meeting had adjourned ice cream and angel-food cake was served by the hostesses, Mrs. A. M. Brown, Mrs. Jno. K. Patterson, Mrs. S. J. Bost and Mrs. J. B. Sherrill.

Corresponding Secretary.
H. G. Gibson to Move to Florida.
The friends in Concord of H. G. Gibson will be interested to learn that he has resigned his position with the Great Northern Manufacturing Company, of Chicago, and will go to Lake Wales, Fla., where he will be associated with the Realty Service Corporation as office manager.

Mrs. Gibson and little daughter, Frances, will not go to Florida at the present time but will join Mr. Gibson later.

PERSONAL

Miss Sudella Frick and Love Nussman, of Mt. Pleasant, attended the Made-in-Carolinas Exposition in Charlotte last evening.

Mrs. A. R. Howard, Mrs. A. J. Yorke and Miss Alice Yorke are spending the day in Charlotte.

Miss Catherine Haynes Carpenter, Miss Lois Crowell and Miss Margaret Ritchie have motored to Winston, where they are visiting Miss Rosa Caldwell at Salem College.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Barrett and children left Wednesday for Dallas, Texas, where they will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Cook are in Durham, with Mrs. Marshall Teeter, whose condition is reported as being more favorable.

Mrs. Jacob Sturtevant and her mother, Mrs. Allman, of Birmingham, Mrs. W. W. Flowe and Mrs. S. W. Rankin are spending the day today in Charlotte at the Exposition.

Mrs. Frank Howard, of Griffin, Ga., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Baker on North Kerr street.

Home Demonstration Clubs Meet Here Saturday.

The Federation of Home Demonstration Clubs will meet Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. Music will be furnished by the Mt. Pleasant club and Miss Edna Edwards, home demonstration agent of Rowan county, will talk on clothing. All the women are asked by Miss Mattie Lee Cooley, chairman of the demonstration, to attend this meeting as there will be some important business.

Immediately after the federation meeting the county council will hold a short business session.

To Entertain For New Teachers and Members.

The Ellen Pemberton Sunday School Class will entertain at a dinner tonight at 7:30 o'clock honoring the new Methodist teachers who have joined the faculty of the local schools this year and also honoring the new members recently added to the church. Over fifty are expected at the dinner which will be held in the dining room of the church.

To Attend School at Gunston Hall.
Miss Alice Yorke, daughter of Mrs. A. R. Howard, will leave within a few days for Gunston Hall at Washington, where she will attend school this winter. She will be accompanied by her mother and by Mrs. A. Jones Yorke, who will spend a week in Washington and New York.

Take Dinner in Charlotte.
Mrs. C. J. Harris and Miss Adelaide Harris were guests in Charlotte at the home of Mrs. R. L. Gibbons, where they were entertained at dinner. Miss Adelaide Harris and Miss Louise Gibbons were classmates at Sweet Briar last year, both graduates.

Railroad Runs Through Duke Campus.
Duke University, Sept. 22.—Duke University's trans-campus limited will soon become a reality.

Work on the spur track which is to haul building materials and supplies from the tracks of the Southern railroad to the scene of the $4,000,000 group of campus buildings began in earnest today. After long delay, due to arrangements which the railroad and other technical difficulties, the workmen are now engaged in laying the track.

The track will enter the main gate of the university, proceeding straight down the main walk, passing between the two chief administration and classroom halls. With practically all of the heavier work completed, the huge steam shovel was removed from the campus yesterday afternoon and put to work near the Southern tracks, just opposite the main gate of the University.

For nearly all of the colleges throughout the country September 26 will be not only a red letter day, but a college letter day, for it will witness the formal opening of the football season of 1925. It will not be split wide open in a hurry, for the gridiron squads of almost all the big colleges are still rather inanimate masses, with the coaches just beginning to deduce therefrom some kind of promising lineups. Nevertheless, the players of many institutions of the first or second rank will for the first time face actual conflict other than that against the inanimate tackling dummies or the often audacious scrub eleven.

When a jazz band knocks the rest out of restaurant it puts the din in dinner.

JIMISON DROPPED FROM TRAINING SCHOOL BOARD

J. P. Cook Declares That Governor Had No Personal Motive in Not Reappointing Preacher.

Early morning dispatches from Raleigh today, in which the appointments on the board of directors of the Jackson Training School, the state hospital for the insane at Morganton and the hospital for the negro insane at Goldsboro were announced, featured the fact that Tom P. Jimison had been dropped from the Training School board.

Intimations were given that in dropping Mr. Jimison, Gov. McLean was doing so because of the fact that the former Methodist preacher did not support him in the primary campaign of last year. It was stated that "the former labor preacher was not a McLean man in the primary campaign of last year, and his failure of reappointment on the training school board is not considered due to his recent difficulty in getting located in a law school nor to his recent prosecution in the Charlotte police court for transporting liquor. The circumstances however, tend to make his case conspicuous."

In commenting on the story as it appeared, J. P. Cook, chairman of the training school board, declared that the assignment of personal motives to Governor McLean were without cause. It came merely as a result of the reduction of the number of members on the board by the legislature.

"The original membership of the Board of Directors of the Jackson Training School," said Mr. Cook, consisted of fifteen—ten selected by the Board itself and five by the Governor. The recent General Assembly reduced the number of members from fifteen to eleven and all the appointments by the Governor.

"So you see," he continued, "that in carrying out the mandates of the law, Governor McLean had to leave out four members. It is a mistaken notion that the Governor sought to punish anyone, directly or indirectly, for any cause. Governor McLean is not that kind of man."

It has been learned that in addition to Mr. Jimison there were four other former members who were not reappointed by the Governor. They were Prof. J. J. Blair, Mrs. T. W. Bickett, Mrs. A. L. Cobb and Mrs. G. T. Roth. Mr. Jimison has recently been in the press conspicuously because of his efforts to get settled in a law school. After attending the summer school at Wake Forest, the authorities at that institution decided not to admit him this fall. Just this week he was admitted to the University where he is now pursuing his studies in law.

All other members of the board whose terms expire at this time were reappointed. They are Mrs. Cameron Morrison, of Charlotte, wife of the former governor; Mrs. W. N. Reynolds, of Winston-Salem; Miss Esau Shaw, of Rockingham; and Paul Whitlock, of Charlotte, a cousin of the former governor. Succeeding Jimison is Miss Katherine McD. Robinson, of Fayetteville.

These, with the following heretofore appointed by Governor McLean, complete the full board of the training school: Dr. I. W. Faison, Charlotte; J. S. Eiford, Albemarle; C. A. Cannon, Concord; D. B. Coltrane, Concord; Herman Cone, Greensboro, and J. P. Cook, Concord.

Reappointments on the board of directors of the Morganton hospital are as follows:
C. E. Brooks, Hendersonville; J. H. Giles, Glen Alpine; Dr. C. S. Kirby, Marion and Sloan M. Robinson, Gastonia. Other members recently appointed by the governor and completing the membership of the full board are: J. H. Beall, Lenoir; R. R. Clark, Statesville; J. R. Boyd, of Waynesville; John M. Scott, Charlotte; and O. M. Mull, Shelby.

On the Goldsboro hospital board, governor re-appointed G. H. Atcock, Pantego; L. M. Blue, Gibson; R. T. Wade, Morehead City, and appointed Dr. J. F. Patterson, of New Bern, to succeed Dr. H. V. Horton, of Winston-Salem. Others recently named and making up the membership of the full board are Capt. Nathan O'Berry, Goldsboro; Dr. J. E. Hart, Wadesboro; Dr. R. C. Beaman, Tarboro; Dr. John D. Robinson, Wallace, and Judge E. W. Timberlake, Wake Forest.

INSTANTLY KILLED BY DYNAMITE EXPLOSION

Foreman Meets Instant Death As Result of Premature Blast.

High Point, Sept. 23.—Blown 150 feet in the air when a stick of dynamite discharged, Holland Tuck, formerly employed by a construction company, met instant death near Randleman at noon today, according to advices received here.

Tuck's body was badly mangled, parts of the arms and legs being thrown several hundred yards. His face was mutilated beyond recognition. The highway had been completed but Tuck was in charge of a force of workmen building curbs. He was at work near the rock crusher. After lighting a fuse he signalled to workmen to stop the traffic on the highway, before Tuck could run to safety the dynamite discharged blowing him in the air while a score of workmen looked on.

Cox Says Rights of Way Must Be Given.

Lexington, Sept. 23.—"The State Highway Commission cannot build any more roads in Davidson county until the county guarantees rights-of-way," declared J. Elwood Cox of the fifth road district, at a conference here Thursday afternoon in regard to the tangled road situation in this county.

"That is final," continued Mr. Cox, in addressing J. R. Raper, of the board of county commissioners. "The commission simply will not require Bertie, or Guilford, or all other counties in North Carolina to guarantee rights-of-way and not require the same thing of Davidson," he declared positively.

Photography has been substituted for typewriting in the office of the Register of Chicago, where a great saving is anticipated.

AGED HUSBAND ORDERED TO PAY WIFE ALIMONY

She Said He Promised Fine Home, Money and an Automobile.

The much discussed case wherein Mrs. Ida McManus, young and pretty, disappointed in alleged pre-marital promises of a fine home, money, and an automobile, sued her husband, A. W. McManus, aged and wealthy, for alimony, came up for hearing before Judge T. D. Bryson in Superior Court yesterday. She was awarded $50 a month temporary alimony, and her husband served notice of appeal to the Supreme Court.

The case was argued yesterday morning in the city auditorium where civil court of the term. Col. T. L. Kirkpatrick and Frank W. Orr appeared for Mrs. McManus and Parker, Stewart, McRae and Bobbitt appeared for Mr. McManus.

In her pleadings Mrs. McManus alleged that after a courtship which included promises of comforts and considerable luxury, she consented to marry the Union county Confederate veteran. She further alleged that he steadfastly refused to meet his promises after the wedding and that she left him. She accused him of being penniless.

Answering, he said that he had never made such promises and would not have married her in any case had he thought she was marrying for his money only. He asked for a legal separation.

Judge Bryson held that she was entitled to some income during the period before the final settlement of the case and fixed the sum at $50 a month, also ordering that the veteran pay his wife's lawyers' fees.

FOOTBALL SEASON BEGINS IN CONCORD THIS WEEK

Albemarle to Furnish Opposition in the Opening Contest.—Prospects for Team Only Fair.

Concord's football season will begin Friday when Coach McAuley's charges engage in combat with the reputedly doughty warriors from Albemarle, the contest being set for 3:30 o'clock at the Gibson Mill field.

Prospects this year are not as favorable for a winning team as they might be. Coach McAuley takes a great deal to say and beyond remarking that the team will be "fair," he has been rather quiet. It is known that the greater part of last year's team is not in school this year which gives for the most part only green material with which to work.

Practically an entirely new backfield will greet the spectators. Lineberger at quarter was a substitute last year and played in most of the games. Roy Litaker also started the season but an injury to his leg in one of the early contests forced him out for the remainder of the playing year. He has been selected captain of this year's eleven.

However, who was an outstanding man at end last year, has been shifted to the backfield where he takes the place as fullback. Jarrett, a substitute, has secured a regular berth at left halfback. Both these men are showing up well, according to Coach McAuley.

Of course this is only a tentative lineup in the backfield and may be changed before the game and in all likelihood will be changed after the game starts to give the promising substitutes a chance to show themselves.

Kerr Street Baptist Church Revival.
There were nine professed faith in Christ and made happy Wednesday night. A large congregation was present, and the power of God was felt by all present. Everyone enjoyed the solo sung by Mr. Fry entitled "Shadows." Mr. Payne preached a soul-stirring sermon from Mark 10:52. "And he casting away his garments arose and came to Jesus." He said in part:

Jesus Christ while in this world, went about doing good. And as He went through Jericho there was a blind man sitting by the wayside, who began to cry out asking Jesus to have mercy on him. And Jesus stopped and opened his eyes.

First, This blind man heard Jesus coming. He used his ears though he could not see, he made use of his ears. Paul says that we should pay the most earnest heed to the things we hear, lest at any time we should let them slip. It would pay some to use their ears here tonight.

Second, but many discouraged him. The people said unto him to hold his peace. Listen! I don't believe there is anyone here tonight that would discourage you in seeking Jesus Christ. Third, But he received encouragement from Jesus. Jesus has never discouraged one soul in seeking his every salvation, but Jesus encourages everyone to come, and live, and when this blind man heard the invitation he tarried not but cast away his garments, and came to Jesus.

Fourth, Then this man stated his case to Jesus. He said, Lord, that I might receive my sight. Seeking the Lord is not crying and weeping, although sometimes we may cry. But we must tell Jesus that we want him to do for us. So many come to the mercy seat and never pray. Listen! All the Christian people in the world might pray for you, but unless you pray you will never be saved.

Fifth, Then Jesus was passing this way His last time if this blind man had not been healed at this time he would have always been blind. Jesus is passing this way tonight. Will you come to Him, and cast away everything, asking Him to save you.

Service tonight at 7:30. We are expecting to have some special singing. Come and worship with us.

A. T. CAIN, Pastor.

COMPROMISE IS DENIED IN COLE MURDER CASE

Local Prosecution Attorney Says the State Seeks First Degree Murder Verdict.

Raleigh News and Observer.
"There is absolutely no truth in the report that the State will compromise the Cole case on a lesser verdict than first degree murder," declared W. C. Douglass, senior member of the firm of Douglass and Douglass, in whose office the prosecution counsel conferred all day Tuesday on the case.

"The report has absolutely no foundation and the State is contending and will press for a conviction for first degree murder," he declared.

Mr. Douglass declared that since the publication of the rumor in an afternoon newspaper he had conferred with Solicitor Don Phillips, who also categorically denied the report.

"We never said or dreamed anything about a compromise," Mr. Douglass declared.

He stated that Solicitor Phillips had wired the newspaper in which the rumor was printed declaring that it was utterly untrue.

TOM SIMS SAYS

American Legion had a parade in New York where many had forgotten the war except for wrist watches and then.

New York's a great city. Has just about every kind of trouble in the world except forest fires.

These forest fires are growing worse. They should tack up signs in the woods reading "No forest fires permitted."

Maybe the game warden could limit the campers to starting one small forest fire per day.
