ROYSTON IS CHARGED WITH LEAVING FAMILY

Marrried Again in Salisbury After He Is Alleged to Have Deserted Wife and Three Children. Salisbury, Sept. 27.—Mrs. F. K. Majewski, formerly of Anderson, S. C., now living at High Point, has had James Herman Royston arrested here for deserting her and her three children.

The man has been living at Gold Hill and recently has been doing carpenter work on the new Lutheran Church here and boarding in the city. About a year ago he married Miss Bunn, an operator at the Salisbury telephone exchange, and they have a four-weeks old baby, the mother and baby being at Gold Hill. The charge is that after leaving his family at Anderson the man changed his name and finally landed at Gold Hill where he took up his residence and married.

The arrest was made Saturday night at Gold Hill by Deputies Brown and Stikeleather and while Royston at first denied that he was the man wanted he later admitted his identity, according to the officers. When wife No. 1 confronted him at the jail, however, he denied knowing her. The original charge is desertion but this may be changed to bigamy.

CLUB WOMEN ASK PARK FOR SMOKIES

Southeastern Council Adopts Resolution Favoring Its Establishment. Sylva, Sept. 27.—The Southeastern Council of Women's Clubs, meeting in Chattanooga last week unanimously adopted a resolution favoring the establishment of a National Park in the Great Smoky Mountains of North Carolina and Tennessee.

Mrs. E. L. McKee, of Sylva, President of the North Carolina Federation of Women's Clubs, presented the matter to the council, in a speech which she delivered on the subject, and introduced the resolution, placing the club women of the south directly and actively behind the movement.

The resolution follows: "Whereas, that portion of the United States east of the Mississippi is practically devoid of national parks; and Therefore, be it resolved that the Southeastern Council of Federated Club Women endorse the establishment by Congress of the proposed national parks in the Shenandoah valley of Virginia, and the Great Smoky Mountains of North Carolina and Tennessee.

"And that the presidents and representatives of the several state federations included in the Southeastern Council urge their respective congressmen and Senators to do all in their power to expedite the establishment of these parks."

NOTED ARTISTS MAY APPEAR IN CONCORD

Mr. Blanks Making Preparations For Pavlova, Ruth St. Dennis and Sophia Breslau.

If the plans which Mr. Blanks is making for the winter matter, there should be some excellent attractions for the Concord people in the line of amusements.

Already he has an option for the appearance of Ruth St. Dennis and her dancers for their only booking in North Carolina during this year. En route to Florida, she will make one showing and this has been secured for Concord, tentatively.

Before signing the final papers for this company, an effort is being made to secure Pavlova, the famous Russian-dancer, considered the greatest aesthetic dancer living. No definite information has been received from her management but if she comes south, it is probable that she will make a stop-over.

Along musical lines, there is a possibility of one of two attractions, Saizeda, the greatest living harpist and six metropolitan artists accompanying him.

John Blick Alexander, of Mooresville, noted prima donna, and William Bacchus, a leading pianist, may appear in Concord.

Although the program is still tentative, Mr. Blanks assures the people of Concord that he will have some really worthwhile entertainments in Concord during the coming season.

VOLLEY BALL CHAMPIONS IN WEST MAY BE BOOKED

"Terrible Sweats" From Kansas City, Write Y. M. C. A. For Game in Concord This Winter.

Volley ball fans in Concord will, no doubt, prick up their ears and begin to watch for developments in this sport when they learn that the "Terrible Sweats," Western Champions from Kansas City, Mo., may play in the city this winter.

In a letter received from the Western organization by Mr. Blanks, they expressed a desire to play here in their trip South. They had been referred to Concord, they declared in the letter, as a place always putting out good teams and were very anxious to give an exhibition here.

Although no definite action has been taken, it is likely that the volley ballists will be booked.

An aged Israelite was at the point of death and was giving his last farewells and instructions to his family flock. He inquired: "Is my wife Leah here?" and his wife replied: "Yes, here I am." Next he asked: "Is Moses here?" and Moses, his first born, responded: "Yes, father; I'm right here." Then the old gentleman queried: "And Sol; where is he?" To which Sol returned: "I'm here, father." Finally the sick man exclaimed, with increasing anxiety: "Are you all here?" And the family responded, in chorus: "Yes, yes; everybody is right here. Then who is minding the store?" the old man gasped.

McLEAN WON'T MAKE A REPLY TO MORRISON

Ex-Governor's Statement Far Milder Than Expected. Tom Bost in Greensboro News. Raleigh, Sept. 27.—All Raleigh guesses today, including some almost in the environs of the executive mansion, were that Governor McLean will not now nor hereafter make any public remarks on the finally of former Governor Cameron Morrison.

The statement of the ex-governor is far milder than even he at best had promised to make it. He had told the folks that it would not be sensational. His proclamation of goodwill toward his successor is somewhat of a surprise. Nobody accuses him "swail himself" of the good stead his former capacity for stimulating love. But at that, hardly anybody expected a public confession of friendship and with it a public absolution of all executive sins, insofar as they are chargeable to the Scotchman himself.

Mr. Morrison leaves much to the imagination. It is hard to locate the "designing politicians" who have imposed upon Mr. McLean and made him "swail himself" of the good stead Morrison deficit, which he found with back ready to bear away all the State's debts while he possessed for his own glory the current assets in the shape of supplies on hand, accrued taxes, and taxes in arrears amounting to millions of dollars.

There is nothing in the implication that can please Governor McLean, but certainly there is nothing that will likely drive him to public statement. The "designing politicians" are not named and Mr. Morrison does not generally generalize. If he knows Bill Designing Politician his former excellency is most liable to bawl Bill. While Mr. Morrison very much admires St. Paul, the Apostle to the Gentiles won fame by observing that the Cretons were liars. "Sept Poll," as he is known in high church circles, never did name his Creton so that the newspaper men could without a doubt say that Mr. So and So carried off a cussing. It is so of Mr. Morrison today; but generally "is not." When he talked about folks he usually was talking to them.

Customs of Civilization Killing Off Eskimos, Declares Doctor. Edmonton, Alta., Sept. 28.—(AP)—Dr. D. E. Scott, who recently returned here after one year at Akavik in the Arctic of the Mackenzie river, predicted that not many years would elapse before the Eskimo would be exterminated by disease through adopting white men's ways of living.

Since the Eskimos have been living in cabins and shacks instead of snow houses, as in the olden days, tuberculosis has ravaged them. Ninety per cent of the Delta people had symptoms of tuberculosis, he declared.

Eskimos and Indians of the Delta are suffering from intestinal parasitic attacks, due to eating raw fish, rabbits and other meats, said the doctor, but these are not so serious a problem as cancer and appendicitis, which are becoming prevalent.

Egyptians from time immemorial have been shockingly addicted to cursing.

ONLY FIFTH OF TEACHERS ARE COLLEGE GRADUATES

Figures Show That Only 20.7 Per Cent Graduated From Colleges. Raleigh, Sept. 28.—(AP)—Almost four fifths of North Carolina's teachers in the white public schools of the state last year were not college graduates.

This is shown by figures compiled and published in the current issue of State School Facts, a publication of the North Carolina department of education. The exact percentage, as shown by the figures quoted by the education periodical, was 89.3 non-graduates of colleges; 20.7 percent college graduates.

The State last year employed a total of 16,948 white teachers in its public schools. Of this number, 3,312 were college graduates.

More college graduates are secured by the city schools than by the rural public schools, it is shown. In the city schools, 44.26 percent of the white teachers were graduates from colleges, while the percentage in the rural schools was only 12.07—the city school percentage of college-graduate teachers being almost four times that of the schools in the county.

A similar situation exists with regard to the negro teachers, with an even larger percentage preponderance in favor of city schools, in the negro institutions. The percentage of colored teachers who are college graduates is 3.3. In the country schools, the percentage is only 1.38, as compared with 9.54 in negro city schools.
