BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY Bible thoughts memorized will prove a priceless resource in after years.

CREATION NOT IMITATION. Speaking in Charlotte before textile men as a feature of the made-in-Carolinas Exposition, Governor McLean urged the cotton mill men to go in for more diversification.

Our Opportunity. Winston-Salem Sentinel. Speaking of opportunities, a Sentinel man was talking the other day on the train to a citizen of another North Carolina city.

The Clerk The Robber. Statesville Daily. Rockville Daily postoffice clerk who reported that while he was alone in the office on night duty he was assaulted and shot by masked men, who robbed the registry pouch of a large sum of money and escaped, is now under arrest, charged with the robbery.

MARKS A FINE RECORD. The work done in this county by Miss Ford, the tuberculosis nurse, has reached the ears of tuberculosis experts the State over and after a recent clinic in this county.

the phrase and that she has devoted so much time and effort not only to nursing but in keeping up with her cases, that she has been able to preserve records that facilitate the duties of other people who of necessity must take part in the work which she supervises.

No phase of health work in the State is of more importance than that which deals with tuberculosis patients. We know without question that many tuberculosis patients can be cured if properly treated and Miss Ford has been untiring in her efforts to check the disease in this county.

SECRETARY WILBUR SAYS HE WILL NOT RESIGN. Several newspapers have demanded the resignation of Secretary Wilbur as a result of recent naval disasters.

William H. Anderson. After serving his term in the penitentiary charged with misappropriation of funds in his keeping, William H. Anderson is out in a long article in "The Fellowship Forum," a fraternal paper published in Washington, in which he vigorously attacks the Anti-Saloon League of the state of New York.

Two days and nights enabled the Countess Courteau to strip the Northern Hotel, to assemble the movable appurtenances thereto, and to pack them into boxes, bales, and bundles, none of which weighed more than one hundred pounds.

"Take six-hour shifts," she told them. "I'll hold you responsible for what's here."

"It's as safe as wheat," Broad assured her.

"You're going to miss your alfalfa bed before I get you to Laramie."

"The Kid nodded seriously. 'I won't,' said he. 'Serves me right or quittin' a profession for a trade, but I got to look over this Dawson place. They say it's soft pickin'."

"Do you think Broad and his partner are altogether trustworthy?"

"Nobody is that," she told him. But they're at least intelligent. In his kind of a country I prefer an intelligent crook to an honest fool.

"What's wrong?" demanded the woman.

"Plenty. You've been double-crossed, whip-sawed. Your noble heart has been quit you; they jumped your stuff at the river and jam Kirby's freight. They're back in Dyea now, the whole works."

"What do you mean?" the woman repeated, in a voice quivering with fury.

"What do you mean?" the woman repeated, in a voice quivering with fury.

"I'm on orders," said he. "There's no use to argue. I'd talk plainer to you if you was a man."

PROFESSOR POTEAT SCORES JAZZ HYMNS

Makes Plea For Standard Church Music and Against Cheap Productions. Winston-Salem, Sept. 30.—At Salem College today the student body and many visitors enjoyed a lecture by Professor H. M. Poteat, member of the faculty of Wake Forest College who spoke on the subject of "The Jazz Element in Religious Music."

The matter of the "cheap" hymns of the "cheap" publishers who are working solely for the monetary gains and not for the spiritual uplift of their users according to professor Poteat has been made a special study by him and during his address he presented some rather startling facts. His descriptions and illustrations of the jazz type hymns written by what he termed "uncultured poets" were most amusing and were received with laughter and applause.

INDIAN WOMAN DIES AS RESULT OF HIGH LIVING

Kate Locklear Succumbs to Over-Indulgence While Returning From Robeson Fair. Lumberton, Oct. 1.—Kate Locklear, Indian woman of the Pembroke section, died suddenly last night while en route to her home after attending the county fair here. Investigation revealed the fact that whiskey drinking and too much high life had caused her death. No inquest was held.

The woman, in company with Maggie Hunt, another Indian woman, and two male companions were driving on the hard surface road near Pembroke when the Locklear woman fell over in her seat dead. The Hunt woman would not divulge the names of the men with whom.
